PO Box 193
Prairie Grove AK 72753

Dear Loyd:

Enclosed is the latest round of research on your Luginbuhl family. These are all deeds with the exception of one Power of Attorney.

Reviewing the listing of deeds that I had sent previously and with what I am sending now, I can see the need to look at least two more deeds that may be quitclaims to Frederick. These occurred in 1911 and involve two of the lots that are in the current quitclaim deeds – Emil Cleophas etal and Leonard Goodman etal to Frederick Luginbyhl.

After that Frederick seems to have sold the property in 1919. That would most likely be the last deed I would need to get. Please let me know if any other names on the previous list jump out at you that you would like me to obtain.

I have pretty much tapped out the records for your early family in Holmes County. If there is another direction you would like me to take, please let me know.

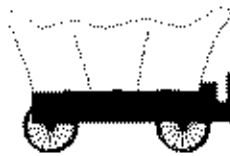

I'm also enclosing the information on Christian Strahm that I referred to in my email of December 31st. Nimishillen Township is in the north central part of Stark County. There is just a small portion of Holmes County that butts up against Stark.

It has been a pleasure doing research for you. If you have any questions regarding the enclosed information, please feel free to contact me, either in writing, by phone – 330-695-2122 or email – pastlane@bright.net.

If I can be of further assistance in your research, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Cheryl A. Abernathy

REPORT TO: Loyd Luginbuel

SUBJECT: Luginbuhl Family

BACKGROUND: Further research on the Peter and Maria Stram Luginbuhl family

OBJECTIVES:

1. Retrieve deed / land records mentioned in last report, but not sent or transcribed.

REPOSITORIES: Holmes County Library, Millersburg, OH

LIMITATIONS: None at this time

ANALYSIS: The deeds that were copied this time were mostly quitclaim deeds from the children of Peter Luginbuhl "selling" their property to their brother Frederick Luginbuhl. These heirs at law were scattered over the country, including Michigan, Texas and Nebraska as well as several different counties in Ohio. These are quitclaim deeds are recorded in Volume 42 pages 44 through 50.

In Volume 63, pages 142 through 145 there are more quitclaim deeds from what appears to be a second generation, perhaps some of the grandchildren of Peter Luginbuhl who had inherited a share of the property from their parent who was deceased at the time of Peter's death.

Also included is a Power of Attorney from John Luginbuhl, Richardson County, Territory of Nebraska, to Peter Luginbuhl. This POA gives Peter Luginbuhl the authority to deal with the estate of Christian Welte late of Said Holmes County deceased. This is most likely the father-in-law of John Luginbuhl as his wife's, Anna Elizabeth, maiden name was Welte.

In two deeds from December 1860 between Christian Strahm and Peter Luginbuhl, it appears that the two traded parcels of land that were next to each other. The lot that Christian Strahm sold to Peter Luginbuhl is part of the quitclaim deeds that are described above.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

(See research notes for complete details)

Birth and death records were not required to be kept at a county level in Ohio until 1867. Before that they are difficult to find unless you are able to find them in a church or perhaps family Bibles. Marriage records were kept at a county level from the time a county was formed.

Because a book has been published on Winesburg Birth Records, a lot of earlier birth records are available to the public that ordinarily would not be.

It appears that the Luginbuhl's and variant spellings that were located in the Holmes County, Ohio area may all be related; however I have not been able to place some of them with the client's family.

SUGGESTIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH

Death records, probate records and land records need to be searched in Holmes County.

If the Luginbuel family first settled in Stark County (Waynesburg), then Stark County records need to be checked for early land records, history etc.

... Baker heirs. Mr. ... was elected justice of the peace
 for this Tp as successor of Thomas Frazier, continuing as such until after the organization of Holmes county.

Patent to Moses Dustin for lots 20, 22
 and 23, 100 acres each, in 1st quarter Tp.
 9, range 8, is signed by President Jefferson, dated June 15, 1808. This land is in the valley of Paint creek and includes the well known Robert Johnson tract. Mr. Johnson bought this land of the Dustin heirs in 1820 and moved to it the same spring. The Johnsons still own and occupy this land.

Capt. Wm. Berry laid his warrant on lots 11, 12 and 13, in the first quarter of
 Tp. 9, range 8, patent dated July 8, 1808. Same year Berry sold this to

Jacob Beck and Wm. Slaton. Slaton willed the land to his son David, who May, 1825, sold it to S. S. Henry, Mr. in Millersburg. Later Henry sold same to Ebenezer Bigham, Simpson and others, who improved it. This land in former years was well known as the Bigham,
 Rogers and Levi Uhl farms and is situated at the cross roads between Millersburg and Nashville.

Capt. Benj. Rice laid his warrant on lots 16, 17 and 18 in same quarter Tp.
 and west of but adjoining the last named tract. Rice died before the deed was made and the patent was issued to Eleanor Lookerly as the legal heir, dated May 9, 1818, for the entire tract of 300 acres. This land after being sold several times, became the Whittin, H.
 Johnson and S. Davenport farms.
 Though early located, neither this nor the Berry tract was improved until after the organization of Holmes county.

Lieut. James Barnet laid his warrants on lots 7 and 8 in the 3d quarter of Tp.
 9, range 8, of 100 acres each. Date of patent 1808, signed by Thos. Jefferson.
 James Barnet conveyed this tract to Andrew Mackey, Sr., by deed dated April 12, 1814. Later Andrew Mackey conveyed the west half of lot 8 to James Mackey.
 The other half is now owned by R. M.
 Mackey.

Patent to Thos. M. Thompson assignee of the soldier, for lot 31 in 1st quarter of
 Tp. 9, range 8, signed by President Jefferson, is dated Dec. 14, 1808. He conveyed this land to Thomas Kerr of Washington county, Pa., by deed dated June 30, 1824. Same summer Mr. Kerr moved his family to and commenced improving it. Samuel Kerr was born

... in the 3d quarter Tp. 9, range 8, sold this land to Wm. Strawberry and John J. Bruce of Licking county, Nov. 17, 1814. Strawberry and Bruce sold same to John Williams of Licking county Sept 6, 1817, and in the spring of the next year moved here with his family.

Patent to Henry Northup, assignee of Private Benj. Reynolds for lot 8, in 3d quarter Tp. 9, range 8, is dated Dec. 15, 1820. Same year Northup conveyed this lot to Thomas B. Bird, who immediately commenced its improvement. This land has been owned and occupied since its purchase, by father, son Martin Bird, and grandson, L. B. Bird, present owner.

Patent to Thomas M. Thompson, assignee, for lot 30, in 1st quarter of Tp. 9 in range 9, is dated Dec. 14, 1808. Mr.

Thompson, then living at Newark, O., sold and conveyed this lot to Wm. Corn of Washington county, Pa., June 13, 1824. The same summer Mr. Corn moved his family to this land. The first improvements in this vicinity were made here, under a 10-year lease of Thompson to Thomas Frazier in 1810.
 Mr. Frazier remained in possession of the land until its sale to Mr. Corn.
 After erecting suitable buildings, Mr.
 Corn applied for and obtained a license to keep a tavern. His was the first public house kept in the western part of Holmes county. Mrs. Elizabeth Corn, quite an elderly lady, is now living on this land. And it was here that Grandmother Perdue died a few years ago at the advanced age of 99 years.

Patent to Silvester Minor, a private soldier, is dated Dec. 26, 1816, for lot 17, in the 3d quarter of Tp. 9, range 8. This lot changed ownership several times before being improved. The sales were Minor to Robert Marshall, Marshall to Robt. Depew, and Depew to Joseph Hereland who improved it.

COMMEMORATIVE

BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD

OF THE COUNTIES OF

WAYNE AND HOLMES, OHIO,

CONTAINING

Biographical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens, and of Many of the Early Settled Families.

W 8

ILLUSTRATED.

CHICAGO :
J. H. BEERS & CO.
1889.

Firestone is one of the respected citizens of Chester Township, and has served a number of years as justice of the peace, although he has no aspirations for political honors. He has been a faithful servant for his fellow-townsmen, who regard him with the esteem he justly merits. He was married in 1878 to Miss Alice McFadden, daughter of William McFadden, of Chester Township. To them have been born two children, John A. and Luther Z. Mr. and Mrs. Firestone are members of the Lutheran Church. In politics he affiliates with the Democratic party.

HENRY BAUM, one of the successful practical farmers of Wayne Township, is a native of Berks County, Penn., where he was born in 1823. He is the son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Van Reed) Baum, who were the parents of nine children, eight of whom are living. Daniel Baum was a farmer in Berks County, and later in life engaged in merchandising. He was pronounced an honest and upright man by all who knew him. Henry Baum was educated in the public schools of his native county, and has followed the vocation of a farmer ever since he left his father's home. In 1846 he was married to Elizabeth Zacharias, daughter of Daniel Zacharias, of Pennsylvania. Nine children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Baum, as follows: Mandilla, William, Daniel, Charles (deceased), Henry, Maberry (deceased), Emma, Kate and Mary Sarah.

Mr. Henry Baum came to Wayne County in 1863, with his wife and family, and bought 160 acres of land in Wayne Township. He has since made several additional purchases, and now owns 179 acres of land. He once owned the farm now occupied by the Children's Home of Wayne County, which he sold to the county commissioners. Mr. Baum has been successful in business affairs, and is now the owner of as fine and comfortable a home as any farmer in Wayne Township. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics is a Democrat. He possesses the esteem and cordial goodwill of all who know him.

SAMUEL SAURER was born in Switzerland, September 27, 1825, son of John and Elizabeth (Plucks) Saurer, who immigrated to America in 1828, being sixty days on the ocean. From New York they went to Cleveland, Ohio, and from there by wagon to Wayne County, where they located on a farm in Sugar Creek Township, and there lived the remainder of their days. Samuel Saurer, the subject of this biographical memoir, was reared on this homestead, and was early put to hard work. His education was conducted in German, and he was unable to read or write English. In 1868 he purchased his present fine farm at Moscow, on the State road, where he has since resided. In 1849 he married Miss Gertrude Cooper, of Sugar Creek Township, Wayne County, and by this union there are four children, viz.: John, in Orrville, Ohio, married to Mary Graber; Josephine, now Mrs. John Lugenbuhl, of Dalton, Ohio; Ella, now Mrs. George Shultz, also of Dalton, and Minnie, now Mrs. Melvin Bechtel, of Orrville, Ohio. Mrs. Saurer died April 10, 1889. Mr. Saurer and family are members of the Orrville German Reformed Church; politically he is a Democrat.

Mr. Albert McFadden quaintly expressed himself, he was "born in a log rocked in a sugar trough, clad in woolsey, and schooled in the old log house." He was brought up on farm life, and at the age of two began for himself on the old homestead.

When twenty-six he took to himself a partner in the person of Sarah Nease, only daughter of Jonas and Elizabeth (Summer) Notestine, of Canaan Township, Wayne Co., Ohio, and to this union have been born three children, viz.: Mary and Laura, the latter now Mrs. Newton P. Garrettson, of Topelville. About 1865 Mr. McFadden moved to the city of Wooster with his family in order to have his daughters educated there, and after four years they returned to the farm. In the spring of 1866 he purchased his present pleasant home in Wooster, having retired from active business, and here in the bosom of his family he has since dwelt. Mr. McFadden's success in life is due entirely to his assiduous application to work and energy. When a young man he applied so closely that, in spite of the numerous obstacles he encountered in his efforts to obtain a good education, he made himself competent to fill the position of teacher. He was Wayne County corresponding secretary of the Ohio Centennial Celebration, a position of ALBERT McFADDEN was born about three miles east of Wooster, Wayne Co., Ohio, December 3, 1817.

In the old log school-house, and by the old-fashioned tallow dips, his rudimentary education was received, and of such a primitive nature was it that he never saw the inside of a grammar or geography until he was seventeen years of age. As

PO Box 193

Dear Loyd:

Enclosed is your latest request for information on the Luginbuhl Family. This portion focused mainly on land records. Death records were not required in Ohio until 1867, so many of those records of your earlier ancestors are not available.

The Holmes County Genealogical Society has a small library in Nashville, OH. The items include many original documents that have been filmed by the courts and are no longer needed as well as books and genealogies that have been donated by people with Holmes County ancestors. One of these donations is a "book" on the Luginbuhl family, namely Peter Luginbuhl, Sr and Maria Strahm.

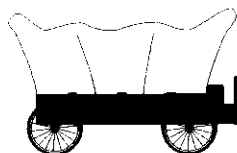

I've enclosed the introduction and the family group sheet for Peter and Maria. I have no idea whether the address listed is still good or not. You may want to contact them for any information that they may have.

It has been a pleasure doing research for you. If you have any questions regarding the report, please feel free to contact me, either in writing, by phone - 330-264-2911 or email - pastlane@bright.net.

If I can be of further assistance in your research, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Cheryl A. Abernathy

REPORT TO: Loyd Luginbuel

SUBJECT: Luginbuhl Family

BACKGROUND: Further research on the Peter and Maria Stram Luginbuhl family

OBJECTIVES:

1. Search for any death records that may be found
2. Search deed / land records

REPOSITORIES: Holmes County Genealogical Society Library, Nashville, OH
Holmes County Library, Millersburg, OH

LIMITATIONS: None at this time

ANALYSIS: Because of the timeframe for deaths, not many were to be found. Ohio did not require deaths to be recorded until 1867.

There were many deeds to be found in the indexes. This researcher pulled and copied ones that seemed to be relevant to the family mainly those between family members. The Luginbuhl and Strahm names are recorded in these deeds, several of which deal with the sawmill that the family owned and operated.

In a deed dated 4 May 1842, Christian Strahm and Ann his wife, Peter Luginbuhl and John Strahm are named heirs at law of Christian Strahm, late of Holmes County Ohio Deceased and Mary Strahm widow of the said Christian Strahm...

HOLMES CO. GENEALOGY

Christmas Eve, 1996

The following book was compiled by my husband, Michael Glen Voirin, and myself as a Christmas gift to my mother, Shirley Sharon Luginbyhl Murphy, and my maternal aunt, Beverly Ann Luginbyhl Snyder. We are all interested in Genealogy and Family History so Michael and I thought it would be a fun and educational project as well as a neat gift for two loved ones who are impossible to shop for!!

Of course, a "book" on Family History is always considered " a work in progress", but we hope that you'll find this one to be at least fairly complete! Michael and I have enjoyed our correspondence with so many of our various family members - some of them whom we'd never met! We also enjoyed the opportunity to visit with many of them over the telephone and meeting even others in person for the first time!! We have a wonderfully diverse and interesting family, and we'd most especially like to thank the following family members for their contributions:

- * Fran Simpson Abelson of Sanger, TX
- * Regina Luginbyhl Bruner of Hurst, TX
- * Anne White Luginbyhl of Alexandria, VA
- * Carl Christian (Cark) Luginbyhl of Bethany, OK
- * Robert Ivan (Hig) Luginbyhl of Borger, TX
- * Waymond Clarence Luginbyhl of Mill Creek, OK
- * Bonnie Parrish McKee of Ft. Worth, TX
- * Stephen Eldon (Steve) Marshall of Laredo, TX
- * Patricia Adelle (Pat) Caywood Peterson of Hampton, GA

Again, THANK YOU to EVERYONE who took the time to supply information - including photographs! - for our Family Pages as well as addresses and / or phone numbers for our Luginbyhl Family Directory. We'd also like to thank Mom and Aunt Bev for giving us the idea to compile this book ... and for unwittingly providing us with photographs to use, as well!

Please contact us if you find any additions or corrections that should be made:

The roots of Peter Luginbuel are in Germany at which time the name was spelled Luginbyhl. Petri Luginbyhl sent his children to Switzerland for religious freedom. A number of these children married Swiss, thus know as German-Swiss nationality. From Switzerland three sons and two daughters came to the United States.

HISTORY OF RICHARDSON COUNTY, SPICER TOWNSHIP, NE

A tall, ornate headstone, etched with age, marks the final resting place of a Nebraska pioneer named John Luginbill. He was born more than 160 years ago near Bern, Switzerland, and died June 29, 1897 in Richardson County, Nebraska.

John is buried in Four-Miles Cemetery, a picturesque setting of gentle rolling hills and valleys punctuated by timberlands that follow streams snaking their way toward the Missouri River.

The Luginbill family migrated to American in 1829. They made the Atlantic crossing in a sailing ship and the trip through the Appalachian mountains was accomplished by wagon train.

The family settled in or near Waynesburg (Stark County), Ohio, about 1830. The 1850 Federal Census of Holmes County, Ohio records the young man's age as 24 and that he was married to Elizabeth Welty. She too, was born in Switzerland and had come to America when two year's old.

Census records of 1860 show the family has moved further west to Andrews County, Missouri. This move, probably about 1853, was the next to last stop for the John Luginbill family since records show they were in Nebraska in 1856.

Note: History of Richardson County, Nebraska list the following family member at the FIRST REGISTER OF SETTLER'S CLAIM

John Luginbill - October 3, 1854: Peter Luginbill - October 3, 1854: Christian Luginbill - October 3, 1854: (Peter and Christian brothers of John Luginbill).

Nebraska, still a Territory, was blessed with rich, black soil that produced abundant crops for a growing young nation. This was the end of the rainbow for John Luginbuel. Here he put down roots, and here he remained. By this time there were two new additions to the family: Elizabeth and Rosena. Older members for the family were William H., Peter, Mary C., Henrietta, and John -- for a total of seven children.

It should be said that in 1854 a settler could homestead 160 acres, live on for six months, and then buy it from the U.S. Government for $1.25 an acre. At the time they called it preemption, and that is the road John traveled, but it wasn't an easy one.

Historians note that the frontier in those days was no place for weaklings. Only the fittest could endure the hardships, privations, and dangers of everyday living. Although friendly and helpful, the Indian was a factor.

One anecdote has it that John owned a pair of oxen he obviously had brought from Ohio. One winter day while logging. Indians made off with his one and only team. Promptly he picked up a gun and trailed them through the snow to Brownsville, Nebraska. After confronting the culprits in language they understood, they returned the oxen and John returned home.

Without question, the winter of 1854-55 was to be a hard one for the Luginbills. They lived in a log cabin in that provided few comforts, especially with seven children. The, too, the weather was harsh and provisions were scarce. The daughters learned to spin wool and weave cloth to keep the family warm. John and his sons tended the livestock in makeshift shelters and melted snow to drinking water. By springs they were ready to go into the fields.

A set back of sorts occurred a few years later when President Buchanan signed legislation requiring payment of the $1.25 per acre that John had signed up to buy. He had no choice but to take the inheritance money and savings of the entire family to pay for the title to his 160 acres.

From that point on, however, the John Luginbill family fortunes began to look better. Besides the land John had found through homesteading rights, deals were struck with Indian Chiefs for additional acreage and, little by little, John Luginbills holding became substantial.

Meantime, the country was going through an era of turmoil and agony. They abolished slavery in 1865; The Civil War ended in April 1865 and President Lincoln was shot the same month (April 1865). Two years later (March 1867) Nebraska became the 37th State in the nation.

A deed dated January 3rd, 1868 at 11. O'clock am from A John Peavy & wife to John Luginbills for $1000.00 description of land in Richardson County containing 160 acres. Another deed dated the same for 160 acres.

Unfortunately, they destroyed or lost censuses for 1870 as were the files for 1890.

However, we do know William H. and Peter Luginbills were married between 1877 and 1880. William married Anna Barbara Grossenbacher and Peter was wed to

Family Group Record

Elizabeth Stalder. Each of the new families now farms their own land, possibly helped along by John.

Also, married in 1873 was Mary C. Luginbills. She wed John E. Wissler. Still at home, according to the 1880 census, are Lizzie, 18, and Rosa, 15. Another son of John Senior, born in 1859, also named John, died at an early age (no record).

A deed dated May 9, 1874 at 12 O clock from John Luginbills & his wife Anna Elizabeth for the sum or $800.00 sold to Samuel German description of land in Richardson County containing eighty acres.

At the turn of the century, John's wife, Elizabeth was a widow. The census of the year said she raised seven children, six of them still living in 1900. She had come to the U.S. in 1834 and lived here for 66 years.

In the years preceding his death, John had considerable influence on events of Richardson County. It should be noted the he was elected as a Judges to help select the County Seat for Richardson County. He was the judge from Speiser Precinct when they named Fall City.

History of Bolivar, Texas

COMPILED BY FRANCES SIMPSON ABELSON AND RHEBA RIPPEY MARSHALL

The town of Bolivar was laid out by Dr. Hiram Daily in 1852 and Bolivar Cemetery was established east of Main Street on high ground across a small branch, being the same site the cemetery has now occupied for some 145 years.

Family Group Record

Bolivar Cemetery is located on FM 455 northwest of Denton, Texas, via I-35 north 12 miles to Sanger then via FM 455 west 3.7 miles. It is about 756 feet west of the northeast corner of J. B. Reed Survey A-1086 then 862 feet south; 384 feet west; 862 feet north; 384 feet east to beginning containing some 7.61 acres of land.

There are many unmarked graves; however, the earliest interment identified by a monument is of Zolly Cofer Waide (January 13, 1863--May 14, 1863). Veterans of the Mexican American War, Civil War, World War I, World War II, Korean Conflict, and Vietnam War are interred here. Other than the Government-issued markers, moments, range from the very elaborate to simple home-made tombstones and marked rocks.

Dr. Hiram Daily, who was not only a physician but also a Methodist minister and store proprietor, first established Clear Creek Settlement in a bend just south of Bolivar; but it was wiped out by black smallpox. The Cash Settlement where the stagecoach driver rested and changed horses was only a few miles north; nevertheless Dr. Daily obtained land in the southeast corner of the John Yoakum Survey that was accessible to Clear Creek about one-half mile north of his original settlement. He called the town "New Prospect".

There was some dispute over the name of the town; and Ben Brown of Bolivar, Tennessee, who settled north of town near the big Chisum ranch, suggested it be named "Bolivar." An election was held to settle the matter and the Tennessee exchanged mugs of rum for votes - "Bolivar" won!

Good water, plentiful timber, a scenic plateau, being closer to the County Seat, and having a local minister-preacher-store owner were all reasons for Bolivar prosper. The original town lots were on the west side of Main Street; and Dr. Hughes purchased land on the east side of Main Street, which was called the Hughes Addition to Bolivar. Today, Main Street is Highway FM 2450 while First is Highway FM 455. When Jesse Sartin moved his stagecoach stop there into a new hotel with a flowing well in the lobby and his saloon nearby, the Cash settlement became part of the Bolivar outlying community.

Ed. F. Bates lists Jake Myers and Chris Luginbyhl among Bolivar pioneers "who never failed to answer the roll call in time of danger." Jacob "Jake" and Mary Lingle Myers, daughters Juretta and Delilah, along with Jake's cousin, Amos Myers, arrived in the new town in 1852-1853 from Indiana. They settled west of Bolivar. Jake died while in the Confederate Army; and his widow married cousin Amos.

Christian "Chris" and Peter "Pete" Luginbyhl were born in Switzerland but grew up in Ohio where their father farmed, owned a saw mill, and had a lumber business. Pete was the more adventurous. He and their brother John were married in Missouri then they and Chris settled near Omaha, Nebraska. All was well until Pete heard about Texas. John had seven children by then so stayed in Nebraska; but Pete, his wife and daughter, and Chris arrived in Bolivar in early 1859. They not only bought farms but helped operate the saw mill. Being master carpenters, they also helped build homes, barns, and businesses in the new town. After Christian Luginbyhl married Juretta Myers on November 20, 1869, the Myers family moved closer to Denton and Pete took his family off to the Arkansas Ozarks. Chris and Juretta settled on a farm just south of Bolivar on what is now Luginbyhl Road. Their nine children were born there as were the children of their son Philo Alexander and Vira Viola (Simpson) Luginbyhl. Some still live in the area; and a number of Luginbyhls are buried in Bolivar Cemetery.

DATE: 31 December 2005

REPORT TO: Loyd Luginbuel

SUBJECT: Luginbuhl Family

BACKGROUND: Further research on the Peter and Maria Stram Luginbuhl family

OBJECTIVES:

1. Retrieve deed / land records mentioned in last report, but not sent or transcribed.

REPOSITORIES: Holmes County Library, Millersburg, OH

LIMITATIONS: None at this time

ANALYSIS: The deeds that were copied this time were mostly quitclaim deeds from the children of Peter Luginbuhl "selling" their property to their brother Frederick Luginbuhl. These heirs at law were scattered over the country, including Michigan, Texas and Nebraska as well as several different counties in Ohio. These are quitclaim deeds are recorded in Volume 42 pages 44 through 50.

In Volume 63, pages 142 through 145 there are more quitclaim deeds from what appears to be a second generation, perhaps some of the grandchildren of Peter Luginbuhl who had inherited a share of the property from their parent who was deceased at the time of Peter's death.

Also included is a Power of Attorney from John Luginbuhl, Richardson County, Territory of Nebraska, to Peter Luginbuhl. This POA gives Peter Luginbuhl the authority to deal with the estate of Christian Welte late of Said Holmes County deceased. This is most likely the father-in-law of John Luginbuhl as his wife's, Anna Elizabeth, maiden name was Welte.

In two deeds from December 1860 between Christian Strahm and Peter Luginbuhl, it appears that the two traded parcels of land that were next to each other. The lot that Christian Strahm sold to Peter Luginbuhl is part of the quitclaim deeds that are described above.

Columbus, October 27, 1978

Dear Ms. Matthews:

Luginbühl is a most interesting name. Lug (Upper Germany as in the German of Switzerland) is etymologically linked to English look. It refers to a watchtower or a lookout, also to a place where one lies in wait (is on the lookout) for game. In Lugenbühl, Lugenbill, etc. we have a lookout that is located on a hill (that is, on a Bühl).^①

With all good wishes,

(Dr. Geart B. Droege)

① 'Looking out into (onto) the hill' is suggested by the -in- in the name Luginbühl. Lugin's land is just such a name: "look in (on) the land." Was the -i- in Luginbühl already present in Switzerland? I rather think that an -e- was written instead.

1860 Census -- Jacob Hoffman w/ Anna & Rosanna

1870 Census -- Jacob Hoffman w/ Anne, Annetta, (believe this is Henrietta), Mary, Jacob, Matilda & Wm. Hart

1870 Census ^{w/} Fred & Susan Lugenbuhl, ~~and~~ Rosanna Hoffman, George Hoffman

1880 Census -- Rosa, George, & Jacob Hoffman w/ Fred & Susan Lugenbuhl

Matilda w/ John Strahm

Mary & Clara w/ Jac Hoffmann

Henrietta w/ ???? Married in 1882 in MI, I've also looked under her nickname of Etta, but found nothing.

With this info I assume Anna died before 1880. Also her mother (Mary)'s Will states that Anna's children are to inherit Anna's share. The will is dated Jan. 1888 and George Hoffman is made Executor of that portion of the will. Mary died in 1893. John Strahm & Eli Olmstead were Executors.

born and reared in Clark county, Ohio, the daughter of Josiah and Mary (Dow) Jones. To this union have been born three children, two of whom are living: Donald, living at home, and Lawrence, now in his third year in high school. The family are prominent and popular in the social and religious circles of their community, Mrs. Fitzgivens being a member of the Methodist Episcopal church in Concord township. Mr. Fitzgivens is a Democrat in politics, and takes an active interest in the civic affairs of his county. In 1914 he served as a member of the county board of equalization. Fraternally, he is a member of Homer Lodge No. 394, Knights of Pythias, at Mechanicsburg, and also of Wildy Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Mechanicsburg, and is a most noble grand of the latter lodge. He is a member of the Champaign county fair board. Mr. Fitzgivens lives on the farm known as C. O. Taylor farm.

WILLIAM HART.

One of the substantial and progressive farmers of Champaign county is William Hart, living on his well-tilled farm of eighty-eight acres in Jack-son township three miles south of St. Paris. He was born on September 10, 1851, in Audrain county, Missouri, the son of Gottlieb and Annie (Buckenbill) Hart, both of whom were natives of Switzerland.

Gottlieb Hart and his wife were both born in Switzerland and came to this country with their respective parents to America in an early day, locating first in Holmes county, Ohio, where they grew to maturity and were married. Shortly after their marriage they went west to Missouri, where Gottlieb Hart followed his trade as a cabinet and coffin maker for a few years until his death occurred, and his widow returned with her family to Holmes county, Ohio, where she married again and afterwards went to live in Stark county, Ohio, where she lived the remainder of her life. By her first marriage to Gottlieb Hart there were two children born, William and Gottlieb, the latter of whom died while young. To her second marriage were born seven children, two of whom are living: George Hoffman, of Holmes county, Ohio, and Mrs. Henrietta Strubill, living in Michigan.

After his mother's return from Missouri, William Hart lived with his grandfather in Holmes county, Ohio, receiving his education in German in the district schools of that county. At the age of seventeen he started out in life for himself by learning the carpenter trade, in which vocation he was engaged for a number of years. In 1890 he decided to take to farming, and moved with his family from Holmes county to Champaign county, locating at Mt. Tabor, and has lived in this county continuously since that time with the exception of two years, which he spent in Paulding county, Ohio, on his farm there. In 1910 he purchased his present farm which he has improved in many ways until he now has a very attractive piece of farm property. Here he is engaged in general farming and the breeding and raising of live stock for the markets.

On December 25, 1875, William Hart was married to Catherine Kendle, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Troyer) Kendle, who is a native of Holmes county, Ohio, her parents having come from Pennsylvania. To this union have been born seven children, four of whom are now living: Savilla, widow of Fred Wade, of Urbana, Ohio; John, a resident of this county; Charles, living in Clark county, this state; Ella, the wife of Jacob Stayrook, a farmer of Mad River township, this county; William B., Edward N. and Mrs. Bertie D. Brennon, the last three named being deceased. Both Mr. Hart and his wife were reared in the faith of the German Reformed church, and take an active interest in church work. He is a Democrat in politics, and a firm believer in the principles of that party, although not an office seeker.

CALEB JONES, M. D.

Dr. Caleb Jones, one of the oldest and best-known practicing physicians and surgeons in Champaign county, proprietor of the St. Paris Institute, for the treatment of inebriety and drug addiction; head of the firm of C. Jones & Son, druggists, at St. Paris, president of the Farmers and Merchants Telephone Company of that city and in other ways actively identified with the general business life of the city, is a native of Ohio and has lived in this state all his life. He was born at Piqua on June 2, 1851, son of William A. and Delilah (Coates) Jones, the former of whom also was born in that city, of Welsh descent. William A. Jones was a blacksmith and founder and he made the spikes which entered into the construction of the locks of the old Erie canal. In his later days he moved to Shelby county, this state, and there spent his last days. He and his wife were the parents of three children, of whom two are still living, the subject of this sketch having a brother, the Rev. Joshua Jones, of Jackson Center, in Shelby county.

Reared near Jackson Center, Doctor Jones attended three three-months

Son of Godfrey Hart and Anna Lugenbidal/Luckenbill Hart, both of whom came to the USA from Switzerland. Godfrey was a cabinet and coffin maker in the USA.

William Hart is said to have been a Godly man involved in his German Baptist church. He attended a German school as a child here in the USA. See the below:

"industries-and-institutions-volu-ddi.shtml

" History of Champaign County, Ohio, its people, industries and institutions (Volume 2). (page 64 of 111"

One of the substantial and progressive farmers of Champaign county is William Hart, living on his well-tilled farm of eighty-eight acres in Jack-son township three miles south of St. Paris. He was born on September 20, 185 1, in Audrain county, Missouri, the son of Gottleib and Annie (Luckenbill) Hart, both of whom were natives of Switzerland.

Gottleib Hart and his wife were both born in Switzerland and came as children with their respective parents to America in an early day, locating first in Holmes county, Ohio, where they grew to maturity and were married. Shortly after their marriage they went west to Missouri, where Gottlieb Hart followed his trade as a cabinet and coffin maker for a few years when his death occurred, and his widow returned with her family to Holmes county, Ohio, where she married again and afterwards went to live in Stark county, Ohio, where she lived the remainder of her life. By her first marriage to Gottleib Hart there were two children born, William and Gottlieb.

After his mother's return from Missouri, William Hart lived with his grandfather in Holmes county, Ohio, receiving his education in German in the district schools of that county. At the age of seventeen he started out in life for himself by learning the carpenter trade, in which vocation

He was engaged for a number of years. In 1890 he decided to take up farming, and moved with his family from Holmes county to Champaign county, locating at Mt. Tabor, and has lived in this county continuously since that time with the exception of two years, which he spent in Paulding county, Ohio, on his farm there. In 1910 he purchased his present farm which he has improved in many ways until he now has a very attractive piece of farm property. Here he is engaged in general farming and the breeding and raising of live stock for the markets.

On December 25, 1875, William Hart was married to Catherine Kendle, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Troyer) Kendle, who is a native of Holmes county, Ohio, her parents having come from Pennsylvania. Daughter of John Kendle(1803-1888)and Elizabeth Troyer (1815-1915) and they were married in September 3,1833 in Holmes County, Ohio.USA.

John Kendle was a Mennoite whose ancestors were Mennonites for many years.

Elizabeth comes from a long line of Amish ancestors. Her Amish ancestors were some of the main Amish families who came to the USA, from Swizerland, in the 1700s to live in PA colonizing the Norkill Amish settlement. This settlement made history due to the savage indian attack upon one of the peaceful Amish families. There was a lot of unrest and mistrust going on for the indians because of the way they had been lied to, used and stolen from. Sadly those indians took their frustration out on the peaceful Amish who had nothing to do with stealing their land.
