General Notes:

This was left by Rachel Abshier to be read at her funeral:

"Read this at my funeral

March 26, 1904

As life is uncertain. Death is sure, sometimes very sudden. For this reason I write a few words. I hope and pray while I live that all my children and grandchildren will try to gain a home in heaven, God forbid that one should be lost.

If the weather will permit have my funeral at the grave yard.

I am 71 years of age. The Lord only knows how long I am to live. The sure way is best in all things."
