Edwin Leander Fowler and 5. Emily Bell Wyatt. He married 3. Nettie Cranford October 17, 1926 in Red Star, Newton County, Arkansas.

3. Nettie Cranford, born October 01, 1908 in Newton County, Arkansas; died July 22, 1973 in Fayetteville, Washington County, AR * Buired Cave Mt. Cemetery Boxley, AR. She was the daughter of 6. Cornelius (Neil) Cranford and 7. Sarah Jane (Sallie) Bryant.

Notes for William Audie Fowler:

- Grandpa Audie worked in the coal mines in Pitcher, Oklahoma after he married Nettie Cranford. Then they moved back to Newton County for a while. Their next move was to California for about a year. They returned to Newton County, but did live in Kansas City during WWII where Nettie worked in a parachute factory and Audie worked on planes. After the war they bought a section of land at Evansville, Arkansas and he raised cattle and sold stave bolts that he cut off his land. He was a diabetic and eventually died from a heart attack as he was walking through his lower field after lunch one day. Nannie (Nettie) found him and ran to the neighbor's for help. He only had a fifth grade education, but had full command of the English language and math.

- Audie Fowler was an extremely intelligent man who enjoyed working with the land. He liked kitten's and shot most of his deer from the front porch of his house as they feed in his nearby garden. He liked to listen to the Grand Ole Opry on the radio at night and talk of politics and religion. He had a good sense of humor and loved to laugh. Nannie only acted aggravated when he'd talk about stealing kisses from her out behind the church when she was just a girl. She'd scold him and swear it wasn't true, but there was just enough sparkle in her eye, and a half smile that you'd have to wonder. I spent many a grand summer's with them on the farm. We had wonderful picnics in the orchard and often drove the cows on foot to Ashbee Hollow where the grazing was better. Paw Paw would ride the horse and Nannie and I would each get a long stick and off we'd go. The old dog Bulger would follow barking only occasionally. For me it was an adventure with nothing to fear, but the snakes. He and Nettie worked side-by-side and raised most of what they ate. They only bought their staples like sugar, coffee, tea, lard, and flour. Paw Paw drove an old rusted truck about 30 miles an hour. We'd often go to the cattle auction in Fayetteville and have a hot roast beef sandwich at the cafe while we were waiting for the check that his cattle would bring. When he died he had a new truck, completely paid for, parked out in front of the house.
- Nannie dried her laundry outside and canned everything out of her huge garden. Nothing will ever taste as good as her fried chicken and dinner rolls. She worked so hard all her life and always said she preferred the outside chores to being in the house. I loved the fresh smell of her ivory soaped skin and damp brow under her wide brimmed straw hat. Her lap held many a tearful child, and the leathery hands could provide all the safety that a little kid needed when the world would get a little scary. I don't know how many times she'd call me back from my hiding place to go back home to Ft. Smith with my family after two weeks of vacation on the farm. I'd have stayed with them forever. Life will never be that simple and sweet again.
- Nettie Cranford Fowler died from kidney disease a few years after Grandpa. They were both just in their early 60's when they passed away. Everyone who knew them said, "They were both the salt of the earth, and best people. They were good neighbor's and they bothered no one. They were always ready to lend a helping hand when there was a need."

Notes for Nettie Cranford:

- Uncle Clint said that Nettie and all the family worked very hard. He said that once Nettie and Oscar got into trouble with the school master and some visitors that had come to the school. They gave them a whipping. It was suppose to have Bud Cranford a pretty penny to get them out of trouble.

Children of William Fowler and Nettie Cranford are:

- i. Clint Fowler, born July 11, 1927 in Pitcher, Ottawa County, Oklahoma; died July 04, 1999 in Stilwell, Adair County, Oklahoma *Buried at New Hope Cemetery; married (1) Josephine Ina Louise Feathers October 03, 1949 in Van Buren, Crawford County, Arkansas; married (2) Ginger Northington April 08, 1999 in Van Buren , Crawford County, Arkansas.

Notes for Clint Fowler:

- Clint was a Marine and he was stationed in China just after WWII ended. He was employed at American Airlines as a structural mechanic until he retired. He was a member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA) as a bull rider in his younger years and enjoyed roping when he got older. He was a member of the Lincoln Baptist Church. He had been a deacon at the Riverview Baptist Church in Bixby, Oklahoma. He loved to dance and was quite good at it as well.
- The loss of his beloved wife, Josephine, was hard on him but the tragic death of his son Audie Dean Fowler in a car wreck surely almost crushed his spirit. He has survived his losses and always has a smile and interesting conversation whenever you see him. He has been a wealth of knowledge about the Fowler/Cranford family history and appeared to enjoy talking with the other members of the Fowler family that he met through the years.

- After the death of Josephine he also developed colon cancer which was removed without consequence.
- Seven years later he discovered the he had an undiagnosed melanoma behind an ear. By (February 1999) it had gone to his lungs and after an exploratory surgery he was told that there was nothing more that could be done. He told me that he wasn't afraid of death and that his life seemed to be full of misery and struggle anyway. He expected the next life might be a better one. He told me that he thought that death was hardest for those we leave behind. They seem to suffer the most. He was disappointed that the cancer had spread, but intended to live as long as he could without all the radiation and chemotherapy that he had seen destroy his wife and sister, Dorothy Dean Fowler Goldman. Those treatments wouldn't have saved him anyway. He had no kidney function and was on dialysis. He had high blood pressure and diabetes. His body was just worn out with this life. It's very difficult to face one's own mortality, but he did it with grace and dignity.
- Clint's father, Audie Fowler, was working in the coal mines in Pitcher, Oklahoma when he was born. The Irish doctor that delivered him asked Audie Fowler and Nettie "Cranford" Fowler what they were going to name their new first born child and they told him that they hadn't decided. Later they found out that the doctor wrote on the birth certificate that his name was "Patrick" Fowler. The birth certificate was never changed.
- He was buried on July 7, 1999 with Brother Vernon Fowler of Jasper, Arkansas officiating. Music was provided by his brother-in-law, Leo Feathers. Pallbearers included Leo Feathers, Eddie Fowler, Bobby Fowler, Dennis Neely, Jim Mullins, and Wayne Hughes. Honorary: Nate Holmes and John Garrett.

Notes for Josephine Ina Louise Feathers:

- Josephine Feathers (Fowler) was a blue eyed Cherokee from the Greasy community in Adair County, Oklahoma. She loved Rodeo and was a champion barrel racer. Clint rode bulls when he was young and became a roper in his later years. They raised their children, Matt, Audie, and Latonna around the Bixby, Mounds, Oklahoma area before moving back to Evansville to retire. Josephine had been married before and had two children named Danny and Jan with her first husband, Richard Jones. Clint raised them and loved them as if they were his blood children. He was always their father.
- Matt and Audie were also part of the rodeo scene. Matt was a member of the PRCA and Indian associations. Audie also rode bulls in the Indian Association. Both were champion bull riders in their own right and were well known by all Rodeo people in the state of Oklahoma and other places as well.
- Latonna, like her mother she had stark blue eyes and was quite beautiful.
- After Jo retired she and Clint bought the Audie Fowler home place at Evansville, Arkansas. Jo became ill with lymphoma before Clint could retire from American Airlines and died after a long struggle with the cancer. Her immune system was so compromised that pneumonia killed her in the end. She certainly did everything she could to live and Clint was at her side the entire time.

Notes for Ginger Northington:

- She had been a friend of Clint's for almost 8 years when he got his diagnosis of terminal cancer.
- ii. Conard Fowler, born 1930; died September 06, 1930 in Fayetteville City Hospital *Buried at Ryker, AR - Cave Mt. Cemetery.

Notes for Conard Fowler:

- Conard died as a 6 month old infant of bronchial pneumonia. His death certificate has his name as "Conrad" and no middle name. Clint Fowler said that he could remember that the child cried a lot and that his mother would tell him to go and rock Conard's crib so she could get dinner ready. Nannie said that he just got a high fever. Although the weather was bad Grandpa Audie took the baby on to the Fayetteville City Hospital where he was pronounced dead upon arrival.
- On her death bed Nettie Cranford Fowler spoke of this child as if she could see him and as if she had gone back in time when she had this baby. He is buried in the Cave Mountain Cemetery with nothing to mark his grave but a field stone. I'm sure that she went to meet this lost baby and her beloved Audie when she died. When Audie Fowler passed away she began to die herself.
- Conard died as a 7 or 8 month old infant child. On her death bed Nettie Cranford Fowler spoke of this child as if she could see him. Im' sure that she went to meet this lost baby. He was born inbetween Clint and Dorothy.
- 1 iii. Dorothy Dean Fowler, born November 04, 1931 in Boxley, Newton County, Arkansas; died May 11, 1994 in Ft Smith, AR * Buired Morrow, Arkansas *Bethesda Cemetery; married Charles Ray Goldman November 20, 1949 in Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas.
- iv. Barbara Jean Fowler, <restricted>; married Nick Skirvannos in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Generation No. 3

4. Edwin Leander Fowler, born November 10, 1877 in Chautauqua, Kansas; died April 01, 1956 in Ryker, Newton County, Arkansas *Buried at Cave Mt. Cemetery. He was the son of 8. William Calvin Fowler and 9. Nancy Lucinda Field. He married 5. Emily Bell Wyatt January 30, 1899 in Newton County, Arkansas.

5. Emily Bell Wyatt, born July 14, 1883 in Newton County, Arkansas; died March 10, 1975 in Fulton County, Arkansas *Buried in the Cave Mt. Cemetery.. She was the daughter of 10. William Stanton "Stant" Wyatt and 11. Sophina Ward.

Notes for Edwin Leander Fowler:

- Ed Fowler was a mule trader and singer. As a teacher he taught shaped notes and was by all accounts very musically talented as were many of the Fowlers. He chose to remain in the Arkansas hills after marrying Belle Wyatt. Ed worked in the Ozark woods as a timber boss and a skilled sharpener of crosscut saws ("misery-whips" on which loggers depended for felling the big trees, prior to the advent of chain saws near the mid-twentieth century.) His sons, Troy, Audie, Walter, Chester, and Efton were all "timber men", horse and mule loggers, stave-buckers, and tie hackers. It was hard, dangerous work.

Notes for Emily Bell Wyatt:

- Bell was a very neatly put together woman that sort of reminded me of Whistler's Mother because of the black lace that she wore on her head. There was a softness about her. Once when she'd been to visit Mintie after she'd broken a shoulder, Uncle Clint was going to take her back to Newton County and they were crossing the Arkansas River bridge at Muskogee, she told him that she remembered crossing that river in a covered wagon. They say she walked to church every Sunday and that she died quietly in her sleep.
- Bell's home is still intact and just about the way she left it. Her dresses still hang in the closet. It must have been very sad for her to have seen so many of her children die. No mother is prepared to bury her children.
- One research has that show died in Fulton County, Arkansas.

Children of Edwin Fowler and Emily Wyatt are:

- i. Bessie Fowler, born 1900; married Alexander Edwards.

- 2 ii. William Audie Fowler, born October 21, 1902 in Newton County, Arkansas; died June 07, 1969 in Evansville, Arkansas *Buried Cave Mt. - Boxley, Arkansas; married Nettie Cranford October 17, 1926 in Red Star, Newton County, Arkansas.
- iii. Troy Fowler, born April 12, 1905 in Boxley, Newton County, Arkansas; died March 23, 1985 in Boxley in Newton County, Arkansas - *Buried in the Walnut Grove Cemetery; married Dixie Carrol.

Notes for Troy Fowler:

- In 1943 Troy joined Walter Fowler in the timber business. Troy acquired an army truck to supplement his four mules in hauling timber up and down the Big Buffalo River.
- A major flood occurred in the valley in 1945. According to Dixie, "...As Troy watched the river slowly rising, he remembered the brand new truck and manure spreader sitting near the barn.....Troy, his son Bill, and three older men rushed down to the barn to try to get the vehicles moved to higher ground but it was too late.. They didn't even reach the barn before the water got too high. Then it cut them off from the house. They retreated to the highest part of the field, but he water continued to rise. Their only escape was to climb a big walnut tree. Dixie watched from the house and saw the light that they carried go up into the tree, so she knew where they were. They had to stay there until midnight (4 hours).

Notes for Dixie Carrol:

- Dixie Fowler spent most of her years living along the Buffalo River at Boxley played her five-string banjo and could play "Cripple Creek" with the best of them. As a youngster of about 5 she learned to play chords with her father, and they played duets on the fiddle and banjo and singing.
- iv. Charlie Fowler, born <restricted>.
- v. Mintie F. Fowler, born September 15, 1910 in Boxley in Newton County, Arkansas - *Buried in the Walnut Grove Cemetery; died December 19, 1995 in Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma *Buried at Hallet, Bethany Cemetery Pawnee, OK; married Joe F. Flager March 10, 1931.
- vi. Walter Fowler, born January 01, 1913 in Boxley in Newton County, Arkansas; died December 23, 1974 in Boxley in Newton County, Arkansas - *Buried in the Walnut Grove Cemetery; married Ava Willa Edgemon.

Notes for Walter Fowler:

- Walter and Ava settled into the Frank Scroggins house, after Frank and Barbara moved to Ponca which was a mining community down-river end of the Boxley Valley. Walter was also a logger all his adult life.

Notes for Ava Willa Edgemon:

- (a Marion and Tennessee Edgmon granddaughter)
- vii. Efton Fowler, born April 10, 1915 in Boxley in Newton County, Arkansas; died September 19, 1991 in Ryker, Newton County, Arkansas *Buried at Cave Mt. Cemetery; married (1) Beulah Friend; married (2) Oleta Cowan.
- viii. Chester Vernon Fowler, born February 18, 1918 in Newton County, Arkansas; died June 01, 1998 in Newton County, Arkansas *Buried Walnut Grove Cem.; married Belle Begley.
- ix. Hershel Fowler, born November 1920; married Dorothy Carrol.

6. Cornelius (Neil) Cranford, born May 04, 1856 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina; died July 24, 1942 in Boxley, Newton County, Arkansas. He was the son of 12. Ambrose Cranford and 13. Caroline Hurley. He married 7. Sarah Jane (Sallie) Bryant December 20, 1893 in Madison County, Arkansas.

7. Sarah Jane (Sallie) Bryant, born May 1875 in Laurel County, Kentucky; died December 25, 1951 in Madison Co., Arkansas *Buried Boxley, Newton County, Arkansas. She was the daughter of 14. William M. Bryant and 15. Rachel Florence Licklitter.

Notes for Cornelius (Neil) Cranford:

- Cornelius Cranford's father, Ambrose died in the Civil War with his brother(?) Nettie Cranford Fowler always said of her grandfather and an uncle, "One fought for the North and one fought for the South." She called her father, Neil, Pap.
- Oral family history says that Cornelius Cranford's mother, Caroline Hurley, died when he was 3 days old, and by age 7 his father, Ambrose had died in the Civil War along with an uncle and many more of his cousins. Cornelius was raised by a grandmother and was also known as "Neil or Bud" Cranford. Clint Fowler said that he didn't weigh more than 140 lbs. The Bryant's were supposed to be dark complected, with high cheek bones and some of the children had dark hair.
- Neil Cranford had been all over the United States before he turned 38 and got married. He traveled first to Florida and then went west where he was a cattle drover on the Chisom Trail and he even was said to have panned some gold in northern California and Canada. He had been to most of the western states and there wasn't much that he hadn't seen in that part of the country. He could give very detailed land descriptions of the places that he had been.
- It is said that in Salt Lake he had a quarrel with a Chinese cook over the way that his steak was prepared. The cook began to chase him with a knife and Neil said had he had to defend himself. He shot the man dead. After that he left Utah without much ado and just wandered for a while until he reached the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas where he met and married 18 year-old Sallie Bryant. That ended his world travels.
- Although he and Sallie raised a large family he never went to a bank to borrow money or worked out away from the home. Maybe there was for a very good reason for that, but in any case, they got by. One of the few times he went into town was to pay his yearly taxes.
- Neil and his son Lenoard had been a drinking men until Lenoard was shot and killed. They had both decided to try to quite without much success. After Lenoard's death, Bud never touched another drop of alcohol the rest of his life.

Notes for Sarah Jane (Sallie) Bryant:

- After Cornelius died Oscar took care of Sallie. When Oscar went to California she moved in with Ora and her husband until her death.

Children of Cornelius Cranford and Sarah Bryant are:

- i. Lillie Cranford, born October 23, 1894; married Charles W. Hawley July 02, 1913.
- ii. John Cranford, born March 25, 1896; married Pearl.
- iii. Molly Cranford, born May 05, 1897; married John Dixon.
- iv. Della (Dollie) Cranford, born May 15, 1899.
- v. Leonard Cranford, born January 07, 1901.

Notes for Leonard Cranford:

- Leonard was shot and killed.
- vi. Lottie Cranford, born <restricted>; married (1) Roy Walter; married (2) George Dixon.
- vii. Ollie Cranford, born <restricted>; married Lloyd Hale.
- viii. Oscar Cranford, born <restricted>.

Notes for Oscar Cranford:

- Oscar Cranford took care of his mother, Sallie after his father, Cornelious died. They sold the home place and bought a place at Aball near Red Star, Arkansas. It had three houses on it and they lived in one of them and rented the others. Oscar went off to California and was killed by a hit-and-run driver. Sallie went to live with her daughter, Ora, until her death.
- 3 ix. Nettie Cranford, born October 01, 1908 in Newton County, Arkansas; died July 22, 1973 in Fayetteville, Washington County, AR * Buired Cave Mt. Cemetery Boxley, AR; married William Audie Fowler October 17, 1926 in Red Star, Newton County, Arkansas.
- x. Laura Cranford, born <restricted>.
- xi. Cora Cranford, <restricted>.
- xii. Ora Cranford, born August 16, 1917; died 1995; married Clifton Brown.

Notes for Ora Cranford:

- At the point of her retirement or shortly there after, Aunt "Orie" as we called her, got dementia and within a month she didn't know anyone. Her son put her in a rest home and she died sometime after Mother, (Dorothy D. Fowler Goldman) in about 1995.

Generation No. 4

8. William Calvin Fowler, born March 18, 1840 in McNairy County, Tennessee; died April 02, 1891 in Boxley, Newton County, Arkansas *Cave Mt. Cemetery. He was the son of 16. Joseph "Solomon" Fowler and 17. Elizabeth R. Low(e)ry. He married 9. Nancy Lucinda Field November 15, 1866 in McDonald County, Missouri.

9. Nancy Lucinda Field, born November 10, 1842 in McMinn County, Tennessee; died August 08, 1932 in Pawnee County, Oklahoma *Buried in the Maramec Cemetery.. She was the daughter of 18. Beeson Field and 19. Nancy Lankaster.

Notes for William Calvin Fowler:

- He built school's in Ryker, Arkansas and Sedan, Kansas named the "Fowler School". He was the first clerk in July 31, 1879 and his brother Bennett taught in 1881 through 1888 and was clerk in 1884 - 1886- 1887. W.C.'s children had to walk 8 miles to school before the Fowler school was built.
- W.C. went west to avoid the Civil War draft. He fought and hated Indians instead because they took his horse and left him afoot. Some say he was part Indian, but he didn't claim it.
- W.C. Also supplied the land for the school at Ryker. He was the first to be buried at the Cave Mountain
- "Boxley". His grave is located on the east side in the middle of the cemetery. After settling on the 1g hill in Boxley, Nancy said, "Like a butterfly fluttering from flower to flower, he landed on a pile of manure". She knew what she was talking about because after his death she had to raise her children on that hill.[fowler.ftw]
- One researcher says that William Calvin went west to avoid the civil war draft. (Allred says that he was a Civil war Veteran???) But he fought and hated Indians instead. They took his horse and left him on foot. He was suppose to be part Indian but he wouldn't claim it. "The only good Indian was a dead Indian in his book," according to Wilbur Robertson.
- William Calvin Fowler built a school in Ryker, AR. The land was donated to him. He was the first person to be buried in the Cave MT Cemetery at Boxley. His grave is on the east side in the middle of the cemetery. He built schools in Sedan, KS and Ryker, AR named "Fowler School" where he was the first clerk in July 31, 1879. Before he built the school his children were having to walk 8 miles to the nearest facility.

- Fowler, Solomon 1 male 20-30; 1 female up to 5; 1 female 15-20
- In the book "Old Folks Talking" by Jim Liles the Fowlers appear to have arrived in the Buffalo River region of the Arkansas Ozarks after the Civil War. William Calvin Fowler was listed on the 1870 census with a wife and three young children, living near the "Boston Post Office" in Newton County, Arkansas between the Buffalo and Kings Rivers, about 15 miles southwest of the Big Buffalo Valley. He had come to Arkansas from McDonald County, Missouri.[Vilines.ftw]

Notes for Nancy Lucinda Field:

- After W.C died she and the children applied for enrollment with the Cherokee Nation through the Guion Miller Rolls through her grandfather "Joseph Field" but they were ultimately rejected. All of them were living in Eufaula, Western District - Indian Territory at the time of their application on July 26, 1910. Research tells me that they simply filed too late.
- According to a personal interview with Bill Fowler December 11, 1995, in the family Bible of Bill and Nina Lee Fowler the Field's family in east Tennessee were related to John Sevier, the first Governor of Tennessee. *John Sevier was the uncle of Nancy (Lankaster)Lancaster, the wife of Beeson Fields.

12. Ambrose Cranford, born April 18, 1827 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina; died May 1862 in Civil War- 34th Reg. (Private -Co. K Confederate Army) North Carolina Troops. He was the son of 24. Richard Cranford and 25. Elizabeth " Betty ". He married 13. Caroline Hurley December 08, 1848 in Montgomery County, North Carolina.

13. Caroline Hurley, born 1827 in Martin County, North Carolina; died Abt. 1860 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina. She was the daughter of 26. Cornelious Hurley and 27. Elizabeth "Betsy" Beane.

Notes for Ambrose Cranford:

- * Also see as Lawrence Ambrose or possibly "Larry" A. Cranford. These may be two separate people.
- The 1860 Montgomery County Census lists Ambrose Cranford as age 33, his wife, Caroline, age 32.
- Ambrose fought and died in the Civil War as did some of his brothers. He enlisted September 9, 1861 at the age of 34 in Montgomery County, North Carolina. He was a Private in K Co. 34th Inf. Company K--Montgomery County--Captain, David R. Cochran. The regiment was organized at High Point, on 26 October, 1861
- Nettie Cranford Fowler told me when I was a child that of Ambrose and his brothers "One 'fit' for the North and the other 'fit' for the South,". There has been no evidence to date to prove that any of the Cranford's fought for the North. Ambrose is buried beside James and Ruth Riley Cranford. John Cranford, a brother, lies beside Ambrose.
- Clint Fowler said, Ambrose was 5' 8" tall and weighted 280 lbs. He was a farmer. The information that we have on the family and children comes from the 1860 Montgomery Co., Census Report. Harris Cranford had a son, Rex Cranford who has a daughter, Lucy, that still lives in Troy, North Carolina. The elder Cranford's are buried in the Lovejoy Cemetery and at the New Hope Cemetery near the "old Cranford home place" in Troy.

Note: Donald Cranford - researcher.

- Answer to confusion about Ambrose and the possible name of Larry or Lawrence as a first name of Ambrose. And who is that on the 1850 census in Montgomery County, NC in Richard Cranford's household that the writing looks like Larry or Sarry A. When all else fails look at the estate record:
- The story goes like this, in 1997 an acquaintance and descendant of Angus D. Cranford son of Richard that lives in the state of Wyoming asked me to copy for him my next trip to the NC Archives the complete estate record for Richard Cranford that died in Montgomery County, NC 1862. I did and mailed to him. Cost for mailing and copies was $22.00. He paid. I also copied a few of the petitions that indicated the heirs and kept for my records. Later he sent me a typed copy of one of the key petitions. I didn't have a copy of that particular petition but basically it appeared correct and had no reason to doubt it being an exact duplicate of the original. I've used it quite a bit, so I'm in a big mess if it's not right.

- An estate record can be used to verify a census and in most cases somewhere in there will be an accurate record of the children or heirs of the deceased. In the case of Richard's estate and 1850 census this may set the record straight:
 - In the Superior Court of
 - the State of North Carolina
 - in and for the County of Montgomery
 - P. C. Saunders
 - Administrator Debonis Non
 - of Richard Cranford deceased
 - Plaintiff
 - VS
 - Sarah Jane Cranford Beaman, deceased and heirs;
 - Angus Dunaha Cranford, deceased and heirs;
 - Ambrose Cranford, deceased and heirs
 - Laura Cranford Ballard ;
 - Eliza Cranford Morgan;
 - James Madison Cranford, deceased and heirs;
 - Joel T. Cranford;
 - John G. Cranford, deceased;
 - Martha E. Cranford, deceased;
 - Elvira Cranford;
 - Defendants
 - On the next page in part:
 - That said land descended to his children and heirs to-wit:
 - (1) the minor children of Jane Beaman, deceased to-wit: Hancel Beaman and Laura Beaman, [residing] in said county ages not known.
 - (3) the children of Ambrose Cranford, deceased, to-wit: Harris Cranford, now full of age, Eliza M. Cranford who intermarried with E. S. Saunders; Nancy A. Cranford and Neill Cranford, the last three being minors living in said county, ages not known; Also a guardian administrator was appointed by the court for the above children and the children of Angus D. Cranford.
 - Date of this petition was April 2, 1871.
 - Now look at the above list of defendants and compare to the below 1850 Richard census, looks like Sarah Jane Cranford is the one in question on the census. And I'm not sure I can accept that looking at the original census record. It is written over and underneath it looks as could be Sara A. or as Cathy said Larry A.

- But it's obvious on the estate record we're talking about Ambrose being Ambrose and Sara A or Larry indicated as a female really being the estate record child of Richard indicated as Sarah Jane Cranford Beaman in the title case and as Jane Beaman in most other indications on the estate. And I'll vote for that.
- There is a marriage record in Montgomery County, NC for Robert Beaman to Jane Cranford on Aug. 7, 1851.
- Don
- Mr. Edison Curtis, or similiar, who lives in Salisbury, NC.
- Mr. Curtis is directly related to the Ambrose Cranford line, as I am to James Madison Cranford, a brother of Ambrose. Mr. Curtis has done a bit of research on the Cranfords in the Civil War, and has a file in memory of Ambrose at the Rowan County Library in Salisbury, NC. Mr. Curtis also is a volunteer in the genealogy room there from time to time.

Notes for Caroline Hurley:

- Also see as Catherine Hurley.
- Oral history says that she died 3 days after Bud was born, and his grandmother raised him. BUT: Caroline is listed on the 1860 census with Ambrose Cranford on the Montgomery County, NC census. She could have died in child birthing but it would have been after 1860. And a Neil is on there at age four. That is our Cornelious. Also listed are Harris age 9, Elizabeth M. age 7 and Nancy age 5. There is an estate record on Ambrose and it just indicates the sale of land and Caroline the executrix, not the heirs. Other of the deceased sons are the same as I recall. I take it if your Neil was listed as an heir and there was money left after expenses and such then he did receive something. (Donald P. Cranford - researcher).
- Mrs. C. Olin Reeves of Troy, in Pike County, Alabama; and from Ed Hurley of Fern Park, Florida. Both of them; perhaps from the same source; indicated that Elias, William, Green and Winchop Hurley were sons of Cornelius Hurley (1795), of Montgomery County, North Carolina. Note: The author of this book believes that these boys were sons of "Accy Hurley", It appears that Accy was the father of at least seven children, and perhaps as many as ten.
- At the old Zoar Cemetery there is a Col. Aaron H. Sanders B. 1802 D. 1885 Married twice to Celia and Rebecca. Samuel Hurley B. 1809 D. 1872 Wife Elizabeth B. 1831 D. 1857 Daughter of Jerry Johnson.
- The only mention of Ambrose Cranford: In the Archives at Raleigh, there is a bond of George Coggins, administrator, dated July 5, 1863, with reference made to the dower rights of Prudence E. Hurley, the widow, and two minor children. The real estate is there described as 150 acres of land adjoining lands of Joshua Hurley, Ambrose Cranford, George Luther and William Burney.
- This folder file contains papers also as to the estate of a second Daniel Hurley, which should not be confused with this subject. That Daniel, born c. 1810/17, was a son of Stephen Hurley (1782). The files have been combined for no apparent reason, except the common name.
- From the records, it appears that the wife of our subject was Elizabeth Prudence Coggins, and that they had at least two children:
 - a. George L. Hurley, born 1861 to 1863
 - b. Mary Daniel Hurley, born May 12, 1863, died May 2, 1944 and married Dec. 16, 1883 to Robert Seth Zachary, born March 31, 1858, died Dec. 17, 1936. Both are buried at Wadeville Baptist Church. At the time, he was reported as being 25 years of age and she was 21.

Children:

(1) Robert Zachary

(2) Inez Zachary

(3) Ora Zachary

Children of Ambrose Cranford and Caroline Hurley are:

- i. Harris Crook Cranford, born October 10, 1850 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; died October 18, 1931 in Randolph County, North Carolina *Buried Lovejoy Methodist Church; married (1) Elizabeth Jane "Eliza" Saunders September 27, 1868 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina; married (2) Civila Cornealia 1887 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina.

Notes for Rachel Florence Lickliter:

- My Mother has been telling me for years that Grandmother Rachel was full Blood Indian and I found out the other day she was black Dutch. (Rachel was a healer in her tribe?) More investigation needed here.

- Then information I have is from a list my Aunt Francis compiled and of copies from a old family Bible. The family record list says that George Franklin Lickliter was born 6-28-1854. George married Sarah Feb 5 1874. Sarah (Bryant) was born April 27, 1853. Sarah died Aug 24, 1903. She had 8 children. Her 4th child was Rachel Louisa, born May 17, 1885. I understand Rachel could of been named after a previous relative. But no one knows for sure. The Mays name is familiar to me, only because I remember my Grandmother Lissie speaking about a relative named Mays. My Aunt Roberta said when she was alive that she remembered stories about Great Aunt Rachel using her hands and her herbal knowledge to help people. My father remembers Grandmother talking about this too. He remembers stories that she was known for healing burns. My Aunt Francis's son Daryl has done a more extensive search and supposedly has more info. I am currently awaiting that info. Will forward that to you if and when I receive it. Most of the information I have heard over the years has been in oral stories. If you have anything to add to this info or would like copies of the few pages I have, just send me your address and I will mail them on to you. But have patience with me, life is Hectic here. viii. Manerva M. Bryant, born February 19, 1880; died 1974; married James F. Cowan.

Generation No. 5

16. Joseph "Solomon" Fowler, born May 09, 1806 in Alabama; died January 11, 1888 in Chautauqua Springs, Kansas. He was the son of 32. Hiram Fowler and 33. Elizabeth. He married 17. Elizabeth R. Low(e)ry Bet. 1828 - 1829 in Bedford County (?), Tennessee.

17. Elizabeth R. Low(e)ry, born May 10, 1810 in Bedford County, Tennessee; died August 18, 1892 in Tryon, Lincoln County, OK *Buried in the City Cemetery. She was the daughter of 34. Capt. Adam Lowry and 35. Elizabeth.

Notes for Joseph "Solomon" Fowler:

- Speculation: Solomon was named after his Uncle Joseph Fowler who lived in Hardeman County near Bolivar and built a ferry on the river in the early 1820's. Hiram must have moved to McNairy for some reason. (Possibly remarriage?) Solomon and Hiram are quite a bit older (in their 20's) than Sevier (who was only 6 years old in 1830).
- Solomon Fowler and Elizabeth Lowery left Tennessee, went to Arkansas, moved to Texas, and then to Kansas. According to information received in May 1973, a narrative history of the Fowler's from Zora Gladys (Fowler) Schmahl of Oklahoma City, OK. Her father, Bennett Webster Fowler, son of Solomon & Elizabeth, as told to her by her father in the summer of 1940 when he was 90 years old.
- Gladys states that, "Grandfather (Hiram Fowler) was a blacksmith in Bolivar, Tennessee. The family came from South Carolina to Mississippi, and to Tennessee. Solomon moved to Arkansas about 1847 where Bennett Webster and John Madison Fowler were born.
- They were in Pope County, Arkansas 1850 census dated 10/21/1850, page 506 or 254, family 191.
- (The census states that Solomon was 44, Elizabeth was 40, Teresa L. was 15, Martha M. was 11, William C. was 9, Mary E. was 6, John M. was 3, Bennet W. was 3 and 1/2. It also says that Solomon was from South Carolina and that Elizabeth was from Tennessee. No township listed. On this same census Sevier C. Fowler is listed as being age 26, Catherine 19, John 2, and Mary 2/12. Sevier is listed as being from Alabama and Catherine is listed as being from Tennessee. They are in King's River Twp in Madison County. The other Fowler listed twice in Pope County is James P. Fowler age 25 from SC. Listed once with wife, Emeline age 22 from North Carolina, Second James P. is listed with Mary E. age 22 from North Carolina (no Twp listed).
- The family then moved to Dallas County, Texas in 1852. At that time, Birdsville and Dallas were fussing over which would be the county seat. Afterwards they moved to Tarrant County, about 20 miles NW of present day Ft. Worth. The family lived on the west fork of the Trinity River on Walnut Creek. This land, 320 Acres, was taken away from them by the courts of Texas on the grounds that it was an old Spanish claim. Bennett Webster believed that the court held against them because his father, Solomon was a UNION sympathizer in the Civil War. She wrote that from what her father told her, "The family lived in Texas until about 1865 and that they lived in Missouri from about 1865 until 1870".
- Allred: " I have heard both my father and Aunt Jane talk about the war in Texas. They said that they moved to Denison, Texas to Ft Smith, Arkansas and from there to McDonald County, Missouri. They lived in Missouri from 1870 to 1873 and then went to Prairie City, in what was the Cherokee Nation. It was located 20 miles NW of Vinita, 15 miles SW of Seneca, Missouri, and about 20 miles SE of Baxter Springs, Kansas. There Solomon farmed, blacksmithed, and raised cattle. He leased lots of land from the Indians. His last move was to near Sedan, Kansas where he died. Solomon willed the bulk of his estate (160 acres) to his son Marion Park Fowler".

- Jim Allred did some more homework on why Solomon gave this land to Marion Park Fowler. "I ran across a note that Solomon had land in Oklahoma that he had sold. It was customary under the 1862 Homestead Act for the father to apply for land for dependent males. The Homestead Act gives 160 acres of western land free to any US citizen. It could be quite possible that it was Marion Park Fowler's land. He was only 6 years old when the Act passed. This may be why John Madison and Bennett Webster had land in Oklahoma as well. John Madison was a witness to the writing of Solomon's will."
- The 1880 census of Chautauqua County, Bellville, Kansas (page 7, Ed66, Sup Dr#2-296, family 65-line 40) finds them living with daughter Miranda Jane Wood and her son Andrew S. Wood age 12, Andrew's father born in Georgia). Solomon was 74 and Elizabeth was 69 then. Marion Park Fowler, age 24, was living with them. Solomon indicates that he was born in South Carolina and his father was born in North Carolina and his mother was born in Virginia. Elizabeth Lowery Fowler indicates that she was born in Tennessee and that her father was born in Tennessee and her mother was born in South Carolina. Andrew S. Wood said that he was born in Georgia.
- Some of the family have recently replaced Solomon's headstone and changed the year of the date of his death. There is some investigation as to why this date was changed.

Notes for Elizabeth R. Low(e)ry:

- 1820 Bedford County Census:
 - Rebecca Fowler # 8: 2m(16-18), 2m(16-26), 1m(26-45) 1m(over 45), 2f(16-26).
 - Samuel Fowler #17: 2m(under 10), 1m(26-45), 1f(under 10),1f(10-16, 1f(25-45).
 - William Fowler #14: 3m(under 10), 2m(10-16),3m(16-26), 1m(over 45).
 - Joseph Lowry #13: 2m(under 10), 1m(16-18), 1m)26-45), 2f(under 10), 1f(16-26).
- Elizabeth's mother lived until she was 105 and her father was said to have been a Captain in the War of 1812. Elizabeth was living with her son, John Madison Fowler, when she passed away. She is not mentioned in her husband, Solomon's Last Will and Testament. All that he had went to their youngest son, Park. The other's received one dollar each.
- Elizabeth Lowery's sister, Matilda married Bennett Burluson of Denton, Texas. Bennett Webster is named for him. She came from east Tennessee.
- Elizabeth is buried on the old John Madison Fowler home place in Tyron, Oklahoma.
- In 1835 Cherokee Census compiled by Homer A. Walker (Chicago Library), there were several Lowery's listed. Solly and Arch are named in Hamilton County, Tennessee. In a book "Fowler's Arithmetic - Tennessee Cousins" by Worth S. Ray, Genealogical Publishing Co. 1960 (found in Pineville, MO Library - Ray County, Missouri settled by Cocke County - Tennessee families), mentions that on February 27, 1819, the Hiwassee Purchase was signed by Cherokee Chieftains, one of whom was George Lowery. It also mentions that from Monroe County Josiah Fowler, brother of Abijah Fowler moved to Texas before the Civil War. Also in Hardeman County, it mentions that during the 1820 Joseph Solomon Fowler built a cabin and ferry about 16 miles south of where Bolivar was afterwards located. It was named "Lowery's Ferry". (It was changed to Niles whenever the book was written in the 1800s in Monroe County, Tennessee.) It also mentions that Abijah Fowler, son of Dr. Thorn Fowler "school teacher" married Elizabeth Curtian, daughter of Richard Curtian and they lived in Cocke County (Older Son 1842 William).
- One of the biggest frustrations is that many ancestors eventually dropped their first names and went by their middle name...and every brother and sister named their children after their brother's and sister's.
- The "Fowler Arithmetic" also has a note from White County, Tennessee, that John Lowery would have been Governor of Texas had he not been in poor health. Jim Lowry was a prominent newspaper man in Texas. Both were son's of Alexander Lowery who laid out the town of Sparta in western Tennessee. Also in Henry County, TN indicated that on Feb. 28, 1848, Arthur Lowery married Nancy A. Coleman and on the same page 781, William J. Fowler married C.H. Duncan on August 1, 1856. The first Governor's of Tennessee was named John Sevier, who married a full-blooded Cherokee Indian named Elizabeth Lowry. Gladys indicated that in "Anserchin News", Vol. 1-9 marriage bonds on page 77 showed Shelby County, Tenn. Vol. 1 Isaac Lowery to Susan W. Lowery Dec. 16, 1841. John R. Lowry, Sec., Vol. 2 to Mary Wilcox, Feb. 1, 1824. Joseph Rhea, Sec. , A.B. Carr., J.P. Page 97, Bedford County, TN Tax List 1812 shows Greenbury Lowry #43, Captain's Company - John Roberts.

- Gladys also found where an Elizabeth Lowry transferred or sold 70 acres of land to Thomas Cummings in 1834 or 36. (This would have been about the time the Elizabeth was marrying Solomon. She inherited this land from her father, David Lowry who made the Will in 1814. James B. Lowry bought 126 acres in 1839 in the same area and a joining her land. The Lowry's were storekeepers and lawyers in east Tennessee.

Notes for John Madison Fowler:

- In 1870 Census of Eureka, Greenwood, Kansas, page 2, line 16 dated July 15, 1870, shows John M. Fowler as the 9th family listed. He was age 23 and Catherine was 21. Family #11 was Joshua Kinnamon age 53 born in Virginia, and wife Susan A. age 53 born in Tennessee. Family #12 was Byron Kinnamon, age 22, born in Illinois, wife Melissa, age 21, Ella, age 2, and James 1/2 both born in Kansas.
- John Madison Fowler served in the Kansas Volunteer Infantry. They were Baptists for a while and then joined the Church of Christ; some member's of the family were member's of the Disciples of Christ. After the war ended and after Catherine lost her health and died, John married Miss Effie Ellen Smith. Effie was several years younger than John and they started a second family.

- Web made the land run of 89 around Arcadia.

- viii. Marion Park Fowler, born August 03, 1856 in Texas; married Harriett.

Notes for Marion Park Fowler:

- Park was the only child to receive any part of his father, Solomon's estate. The other's received one dollar. Elizabeth went to live with Bennett and on occasion, her son John. Zora sent a copy of a receipt where Park Fowler paid twenty dollars for one "set of labor slaves" for S. Fowler from J. W. Pershall dated October 26, 1887. (Note: Not sure what this means? This was along time after "slaves" were bought and sold. They could have been referred to that, but I figure they were more like migrant workers.) Supposedly, when the family left Texas, Park first moved to Kansas, Oklahoma where he stayed several years and ran a hotel.

I also have a Jones ancestor. Nancy Jones daughter of William Jones married Howell Bryant in 1822 at Whitley County.

- I think we have another Nathan running loose that is being confused with Nathan Jr. It could be possible that a brother to Nathan Sr might have named a son Nathan that was born before Nathan Jr and he might have been referred to as Nathan Jr to separate the two. The way this family named children after another family member, this would be possible.
- Can you elaborate any more on your discovery of Sarah's Indian name. Have the rolls ever been checked for her?
- I started looking at some census listings for IN. I noticed that there were some other WARDs in Owen Co IN on the 1830 as well as some others that those with Grayson Co connections as well as some of mine were.

- Here is what Jeff had to say about the Grayson Co VA WARDS ---
- I am a descendant of the Ward family of Grayson Co., VA, and the given names are similar
.My ever so great-grandmother was a lady named Abigail Ward Barton, B. 12/1/1759 in Chesterfield Co. and Died 3/11/1859 in Grayson Co. (Grayson Co. death register). This register states that she was the daughter of Wells Ward and Rebecca. It appears that Wells Ward was from Henrico County, Va and was probably born ca. 1725-30.Apparently all of the Grayson County Wards are descendants of Wells Ward, Sr., and there is quite a flock of them, mostly living in the west-central portion of the county. I have quite a bit in tid-bits here and tads there where they connect with other families closer to the top of my gene pool, but have never done a comprehensive study of the clan.
- Nathan, Wells (probably Jr.), and James Ward were on the 1783 militia list for Capt. Enoch Osborne's company. The 1815 Grayson Co. Tax list shows Nathan Ward living on Saddle Creek with 236 acres, a house 24' x 18', valued at $350, Stephen Ward, living on Saddle Creek, with 50 acres, and having one "cabben", Thomas Ward (living in what is now Carroll Co. -- connection unknown). and Wells Ward, (jr) on Saddle Creek, with 50 acres and "cabben" and inferior grist mill, valued at $100.
- Nathan (B. ca. 1761-D. 1803+) was one of the sons of Wells Ward, Sr., His children were named: Benjamin, Zachariah, Eleanor, Lewis, William, Enoch, Wells, and Nathan, Jr. Wells of this group migrated to Indiana and Nathan, Jr. moved to TN in 1822..
- So you can see that Benjamin was a name used in this family, and they migrated to places you are interested in.
- Alice Cox Phillips of Poquoson, VA, did a bit of work on the Ward folks in 1988, but she stopped at Nathan, and does not state that his father was Wells Ward, although I am convinced of it. I would reconstruct this family as follows, with the possibility of numerous errors.:

Wells Ward, Sr. (1730)

- 1. Abigail Ward (1759-1859) Md. Isaac Barton
- 2. Nathan Ward (1761-1803+) Md. Sarah _____(thought to be Cherokee)
- 3. Wells Ward, Jr.
- 4. James Ward
- 5. Stephen Ward
- 6. Daughter Ward Md. Nathan Blevins (TLW: Ron BLEVINS said this should be Elizabeth m James BLEVINS Jr)
- 7. Benjamin Ward (who went to Watauga Co.)
- Probably others.
- I suppose if a fellow spent enough time in the Fincastle/Montgomery/Grayson
- Records, one could come up with a pretty good reconstruction on this family.

- Mary Ann SUTPHIN from VA sent me this--
- According to "Carroll, The Settlements, 1765-1815, Nathan Ward in Montgomery County. A Wells Ward and James Ward taxed in Botetourt Co Va 1771 and 1773 Nathan and Zachariah Ward taxed. All were probably in Grayson/Carroll area. Nathan settled on Coal Creek, now preent day Carroll Co., this from Fincastle records. Nathan died 1803. Grayson Co Will Book 1-25. left life estate to wife, with it to pass at her death to sons nathan and enoch. His original tract willed to sons William and Wells. Other records show her name was Sarah. Nathan Ward Jr married Ann Williams, Grayson Co 1809. and moved to Hawkins Co TN. where he was living 1822 when he sold his inheritance. Son Enoch moved to Rutherford Co NC, he sold out there in 1822. Sarah was living with Enoch. Wells Ward sold out 1807 and seems to have moved away. William Ward became one of the wealthiest men on the community.. A little more to the sketch, but this is all the children records name. J P Alderman, the author thinks there were daughters.
- These folks were quite close to Franklin Co VA where Daniel WARD was.

- Tom,
- I checked Stephen Broyles's book on Tax List Summary, 1819-1850. A Nathan Ward is listed in 1836, 1840, 1845, and 1850. In 1845 he had two school age children and in 1850 he had four school age children.
- He lived in the Spruce Creek area, which is the same area as my fourth great grandfather, John E. Ward.

Children of Nathan Ward and Ellander Jones are:

- i. Jackson Ward, born March 29, 1834 in Whitley County, Kentucky; died January 01, 1925; married (1) Nancy Radford; married (2) Julian (Juley) Ann Edwards June 16, 1868 in Whitley County, Kentucky.
- ii. Nelson Ward, born 1837 in Whitley County, Kentucky.

- iii. Silas Ward, born 1840 in Whitley County, Kentucky.
- iv. Mary Ward, born 1842 in Whitley County, Kentucky.
- v. Martin Ward, born 1844 in Whitley County, Kentucky; married Maranda.
- vi. Simson Ward, born December 16, 1845 in Whitley County, Kentucky; died December 16, 1935 in Newton County, Arkansas *Buried at Cave MT. Cemetery.

- 11 ix. Sophina Ward, born March 21, 1856 in Whitley County, Kentucky; died December 29, 1937 in Newton County, Arkansas *Buried Cave MT Cemetery; married William Stanton "Stant" Wyatt.

24. Richard Cranford, born 1805 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; died 1862 in Montgomery County, North Carolina. He was the son of 48. John (Jackie) Cranford and 49. Lydia. He married 25. Elizabeth " Betty " Abt. 1823 in Montgomery County, North Carolina.

25. Elizabeth " Betty ", born 1804; died in Montgomery County, North Carolina.

Notes for Richard Cranford:

- According to Richard Cranford, researcher:
- " Richard and Elizabeth Cranford settled along the waters of Barnes Creek near Ophir, in Montgomery County (just at the Randolph County line).
- Richard Cranford contracted Typhoid Fever that John Griffin brought home from the Civil War. They both died as a result.
- A John and Leonard Cranford appear on the Montgomery County, North Carolina Census in 1810. The Cranford's had a plantation there, and some of the family still live there. There is a Cranford family cemetery near Troy. Lovejoy Cemetery?
- Take a look at the estate record for Richard Cranford. One of the documents in the numerous amount of them in the record is a petition to sell Real Estate dated April 1871 in Montgomery County, NC.
- Richard Cranford father of Ambrose died in 1862. The records I have from the estate record are the ones that indicate heirs. Since all the sons but Joel Titus Cranford died in the war for Southern Independence there is a long list of heirs that include grand children, some in other states. One group of records are dated 1868 and the others 1871. Starting on the second page of this petition where it begins with Harris Cranford, Eliza M. who intermarried with E. S. Saunders and Nancy A. and Neil Cranford (the last three) heirs of Ambrose Cranford, Decd. Lunda Cranford and Joel Cranford minor heirs of James M. Cranford decd.
- The Joel Cranford brother of Lunda is not to be confused with Joel Cranford son of Richard who was Joel Titus Cranford. Joel brother of Lunda has been indicated on some records as Joel Cranford, Jr. and is a nephew of Joel Titus and son of James M. Cranford."

Here is what is in the 1850 census for the household of Richard.

- 642 644
- Richard Cranford, age 46 male, farmer, real estate val. 400, born NC, can't read or write, box is checked for whether, deaf, and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper or convict.
- Elizabeth, age 46 female, born in NC, can't read or write, box is checked as well like Richard's for the whether, deaf, and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper or convict.

- Larry A. (most likely Lawrence Ambrose, like you said) age 24 listed as female, born in NC.
- Laura I. age 20 female, born NC, attended school within the year.
- Eliza age 16 female born NC, attended school in last year.
- James M. age 11 male, born NC, attended school in last year.
- Joel age 10 male, born NC, attended school in last year.
- John G. age 9 male, born NC attended school in last year.
- Martha E. age 6 female born NC.
- Elivra age 2 female, born NC.
- Cathy

Children of Richard Cranford and Elizabeth " are:

- i. Sarah Jane Cranford, born 1825; married Robert Beaman August 07, 1851 in Montgomery County, North Carolina.
- ii. Angus Donahue Cranford, born 1826 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; died 1863 in a New York Yankee Prison Camp.; married Linna Ann Hulin.

Notes for Angus Donahue Cranford:

- 4th Inf. Company F - North Carolina Confederate Army (A.D. Cranford) They went to Indiana with Riley Cranford and his family.
- In discussion's with descendants of Angus Donahue Cranford a brother of Ambrose that died in a New York Yankee Prison Camp. They indicated that descendants of Angus on part of the land sales didn't receive anything as he had been given land before the war and this was deducted. The widow and children of Angus left these parts and moved to Indiana after 1865 I've been told. Though I'm not acquainted with the facts, I do recall that one other son of Richard rec'd land prior to the war and his heirs didn't get anything from the sale of that land, but from sale of other land. I have no details of this as this mostly related to me from verbal contacts. Donald P. Cranford - genealogist and researcher.

Notes for Linna Ann Hulin:

- The 1860 Montgomery County, NC census shows 5 children. Linna Ann Hulin's family were Quakers and may have been what got her into trouble with the Cranford succession (after Angus D Cranford was killed in the Civil War) and this cost her the farm. Her mother in law (Elizabeth) took all of their possessions. Linna's brother's wouldn't fight for the Confederacy and hid out until two of them were hung. Linna Ann was dispossessed and gathered up her brood and headed for Cumberland Gap and the ferry boat to Indiana. One account says, the Hulin brothers who refused to fight in the War and were shot. The home guard did the deed and these brothers are buried in Lovejoy in Montgomery County North Carolina.
- 12 iii. Ambrose Cranford, born April 18, 1827 in Troy, Montgomery County, North Carolina; died May 1862 in Civil War- 34th Reg. (Private -Co. K Confederate Army) North Carolina Troops; married (1) Caroline Hurley December 08, 1848 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; met (2) Ann Abt. 1860.
- iv. Laura I. Cranford, born 1830; married Isaiah Ballard.
- v. James Madison Cranford, born 1839; died July 1862 in Randolph County, North Carolina; married Laura Ann Williams November 19, 1859 in Montgomery County, North Carolina.
- vi. Joel Titus Cranford, born August 20, 1840; died May 16, 1906 in Troy, Montgomery Co., North Carolina *Buried at High Pines Randolph; married Ann Eliza (Lewis) "Mandy" Hall.

Notes for Joel Titus Cranford:

- Joel Ttius enlisted in the Confederate Army on September 9, 1861 the same day as his brother Ambrose Cranford. Joel came back from the Civil War minus an arm and Ambrose didn't come back at all. He served in the North Carolina K Co., 34th Inf. Reg. - Co. Reg. RC Confederate Army.
- vii. Eliza Ann Cranford, born 1841; died 1917; married Henry Clay (Sandy) Morgan.

Notes for Eliza Ann Cranford:

- One Eliza Cranford also married a James Hulin.
- viii. John Griffin Cranford, born 1841; died 1863 in during Civil War- He brought Typhoid Fever home with him. Age 19..

Notes for John Griffin Cranford:

- Served in the Civil War 44th Inf. Company F Confederate Army.
- ix. Martha E. Cranford, born 1844; died 1863.
- x. Elvira Cranford, born 1848; married Craven.

26. Cornelious Hurley, born 1796 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; died 1855. He was the son of 52. Daniel Hurley and 53. Mary Worrell. He married 27. Elizabeth "Betsy" Beane June 25, 1818 in Rowan County, North Carolina.

27. Elizabeth "Betsy" Beane.

Notes for Cornelious Hurley:

- Cornelious (Neil) Hurley lived in the upper northwest section of the county, was not a robust man, and died of what was then called consumption. He appears as head of household in the census records of 1830, 1840, and 1850 for Montgomery County, with various members of his family. The 1850 census, the first to do so, gives the names and attained ages of Cornelius, his wife Elizabeth, and eight of their children.
- Three of the children were not living at home during the taking of the 1850 census, but are known to us, and will be reported further.
- The family of Cornelius is perhaps more accurately documented from recent knowledge. He was the father of as many as thirteen children, all of them born in Montgomery, N. C., based on census and other information:
 - 1. William Beane Hurley, born c 1821.
 - 2. Davison Hurley, born c. 1823 in Martin County, N.C.
 - 3. Celia Hurley, born between 1820 and 1825, and married May 8, 1848 to Joseph Spencer Moore.
 - 4. Armistead Hurley, born c 1826 and died c.1879. Married April 20, 1850 to Mary Ann Beaman.
 - 5. Catherine Hurley, born c. 1827 in Martin County, N. C. (could this is your Caroline)??
 - 6. Cornelius Hurley, II, born 1830
 - 7. Mary Hurley, born c. 1830, and married a German named Wilhelm Rommell, known in the family as "Uncle John Brown"
 - 8. Polly A. Hurley, born c. 1830 according to Census records.
 - 9. Beya Hurley, born c. 1832
 - 10 Amanda Hurley, born c 1835/40; married Ralph Mason

- 11. Daniel W. Hurley II, born c. 1836; married November 26, 1859 to Elizabeth P. Coggins.
- 12. Nathan Hurley, born c. 1838 and killed at the battle of Cold Harbor on June 30, 1862.
- 13. Barbara Elizabeth Hurley, born c. 1842 Taken from "Huley Families in America by William Neal Hurley.
- "The Alabama families state that their Daniel was called "Shad". Strangely enough, our records indicate that one of "our" Daniel's sons, Joshua, was nicknamed "Shad"! They list one of his sons as being Freeman Hurley, who moved to Alabama. One of our Daniel's sons, Daniel Wade (1810), WHO could have been one of the brothers of Freeman, named one of his own sons West Freeman Hurley (1842); FOR HIS BROTHER, perhaps?
- There is a problem, though, with the rest of the information received from Alabama, relative to the reported children of Cornelius Hurley and Daniel Hurley. They report a son Tom born to Daniel Wade,
- and we are not aware of one by that name. As to Cornelius, they report sons Elias, William, Green and Winchop. Our Cornelius had no such sons that we know of.
- However, in the records of Chatham County, N. C. we have found the family of Accy Hurley, born 1794 to 1802, about the same time frame as Cornelius (1796), son of Daniel (1771). Accy Hurley was a son of Amos Hurley (1755) and had four sons: Elias Wesley, Greene, and Winship. It appears probable that a mistake has been made by our Alabama cousins in assigning the sons of Accy Hurley to Cornelius. We believe then, that Daniel and his wife Mary Worrell were parents of the following children:
 - 1. William H. Hurley, know as "cripple Billy" born 1794-1800. He married Mary , May 16, 1815.
 - 2. Cornelius Hurley, born c. 1796
 - 3. Mary Hurley, or Polly born c. 1799, and married to John Cranford. They had at least one son and a daughter:
 - a. Joshua Cranford, born Aug. 21, 1834 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died July 4, 1897 near Troy. He was married July 8, 1865 to Mary Elizabeth Davis, who was born Sept. 22, 1836 and died July 3, 1915. They had four children:
 - (1) An unknown daughter
 - (2) William Ivey Cranford
 - (3) Wade Cranford, married Vernia Zachary. Two sons:
 - (a) Daniel W. Cranford
 - (b) Robert Cranford
 - (4) Civilla Christian Cranford, born Dec. 24, 1872 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died Aug. 9, 1923 in Ridgeway, S. C. Married Oct. 16, 1895 to John William Hoyle, who was born June 21, 1868 in Cleveland County, N. C., and died June 21, 1962 in Durham, N. C. At least one daughter
 - (a) Elizabeth Self Hoyle, born Aug. 7, 1901 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died March 19, 1972 at Durham. Married May 23, 1930 to Willis Brodie Jeffreys, son of Brodie E. Jeffreys (1855-1929) and Lucy Frances Jones Jeffreys.
 - b. Margaret Cranford, reported to me by Jeanne Laurel Suggs Gildes (1951) of Waukegan, Illinois. Margaret married Jacob Reynolds and had at least one daughter:
 - (1) Annette J. Reynolds, born April 20, 1859. She was married on Feb. 24, 1876 to Jesse Suggs, son of Isaac and Jane Suggs.
 - No children.

- 4. Nancy Hurley, born Aug. 29, 1800
- 5. Freeman Hurley, born c. 1804
- 6. Noah Hurley, born c. 1808
- 7. Daniel Wade Hurley, born c. 1810
- 8. Joshua Hurley, born April 11, 1812 and died June 14, 1896. Buried at Sharon Cemetery, Mt. Gilead in Montgomery County, N. C. He was nicknamed "Shad" and was married first to Lydia, born 1820, who appears with him in the 1850 Census, with two of his children. Married second Nov. 28, 1875 to Margaret A. Strider, born c. 1834. Only four of his children are known:
 - a. Disa Hurley, born c. 1845. Married April 27, 1871 John C. Yarbrough, son of John and Temperance Yarbrough
 - b. Noah R. Hurley, born June, 1849. His wife Elizabeth Jane. Married 1866. There were twelve or thirteen children. We now can identify only four of the children:
 - (1) Frances Hurley, born c. 1874
 - (2) Mary F. Hurley, born c. 1879
 - (3) Ervin B. Hurley, born Jan. 1883. Married to Analiza McCallum, her second marriage
 - (4) Susan R. Hurley, born March, 1890
 - c. Sarah E. Hurley, born c. 1859 and married Nov. 1, 1879 to Levi W. Hamilton
 - d. Mary Hurley, born c. 1862
- The only mention of Ambrose Cranford: In the Archives at Raleigh, there is a bond of George Coggins, administrator, dated July 5, 1863, with reference made to the dower rights of Prudence E. Hurley, the widow, and two minor children. The real estate is there described as 150 acres of land adjoining lands of Joshua Hurley, Ambrose Cranford, George Luther and William Burney. This folder file contains papers also as to the estate of a second Daniel Hurley, which should not be confused with this subject. That Daniel, born c. 1810/17, was a son of Stephen Hurley (1782). The files have been combined for no apparent reason, except the common name. From the records, it appears that the wife of our subject was Elizabeth Prudence Coggins, and that they had at least two children:
 - a. George L. Hurley, born 1861 to 1863
 - b. Mary Daniel Hurley, born May 12, 1863, died May 2, 1944 and married Dec. 16, 1883 to Robert Seth Zachary, born March 31, 1858, died Dec. 17, 1936. Both are buried at Wadeville Baptist Church. At the time, he was reported as being 25 years of age and she was 21.

Children:

- (1) Robert Zachary
- (2) Inez Zachary
- (3) Ora Zachary
- (4) Vernia Zachary, married to Wade Cranford, a distant cousin, and had children:

(a) Daniel W. Cranford

(b) Robert Cranford

- Then information I have is from a list my Aunt Francis compiled and of copies from a old family Bible. The family record list says that George Franklin Licklitter was born 6-28-1854. George married Sarah Feb 5 1874. Sarah (Bryant) was born April 27, 1853. Sarah died Aug 24, 1903. She had 8 children. Her 4th child was Rachel Louisa, born May 17, 1885. I understand Rachel could of been named after a previous relative. But no one knows for sure. The Mays name is familiar to me, only because I remember my Grandmother Lissie speaking about a relative named Mays. My Aunt Roberta said when she was alive that she remembered stories about Great Aunt Rachel using her hands and her herbal knowledge to help people. My father remembers Grandmother talking about this too. He remembers stories that she was known for healing burns. My Aunt Francis's son Daryl has done a more extensive search and supposedly has more info. I am currently awaiting that info. Will forward that to you if and when I receive it. Most of the information I have heard over the years has been in oral stories. If you have anything to add to this info or would like copies of the few pages I have, just send me your address and I will mail them on to you. But have patience with me, life is Hectic here. Notes for Sevier Clark Fowler:

- We believe that Sevier Fowler, was a brother to Solomon. The two became estranged over the Civil War and Solomon never heard from him again. Sevier Fowler went to Madison County, Arkansas where he raised a very large family. Certainly, there were other Fowler family member's in the surrounding counties in Arkansas. Many of William Calvin's family were in Newton County, Arkansas. Joseph Solomon Fowler was all over the map. Because of their age difference Sevier and Solomon may have had different mothers. ??? The online family tree maker shows that Sevier's father was Hiram. Oral history tells us that Solomon's father was Hiram Fowler from Bolivar, Tennessee.
- pg 279 census Madison County, Arkansas 1850.
- iv. Gertrude Fowler, born Abt. 1828.

34. Capt. Adam Lowry, born in Tennessee. He was the son of 68. Adams Lowry. He married 35. Elizabeth.

35. Elizabeth, born in South Carolina.

Notes for Capt. Adam Lowry:

- Captain in the War of 1812. Lowry households, McNairy County, Tennessee, one Adams Lowry with 98 acres and the other was John D. Lowry with 25 acres, both in the 9th District, Range 3, and Section 6. Sixty years later, this land became part of Chester County.
- An inquiry I made for McNairy County regarding Occupant/Revolutionary War Land Grants came up with two Lowery/Lowry names there:
- Adams Lowry 98 acres in 9th district 3rd range and 6th section John D. Lowry 25 acres in 9th district range 3 and section 6.

- When I asked where the 9th district was, I was told that it was all of McNairy County. When I asked where the 3rd range and 6th section was, I was told that it might be part of Chester County now. In 1882 Chester County was formed out of Henderson, McNairy, Hardeman Counties.
- During the 1830, "Lowry's" listed were Robert (age 20-25), Robert B.(age 60-70), and Adam (40-50). Based on the children and ages listed with each, I have concluded that Adam Lowry is the most likely father of my line. Males: 2 (up to 5); 2 (10-15); 1 (40-50); Females: 1 (5 to 10); 1 (10 to 15); 1 (15 to 20)[most likely Matilda]; 1 (30 to 40). Since this is a recent conclusion, I have yet to verify this.
- Jim Allred's Research - cowboy2@inreach.com
- After running across information last night, 1830 Census of McNairy County, TN
- <ftp://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/tn/mcnairy/census/1830/pg00117.txt> McNairy county, TN 1830 Federal Census and then plugging the Lowery names, Amelia, into the LDS search site, and one of the links led me to who I believe to(see RobertBerryLowery.txt attached) be an uncle of my Elizabeth Lowery. A researcher of the Robert Berry "Lowrie" line is: Lucy Lowrie <lowrie@glade.net>
- Why do I think this to be an uncle and not a father? Although this Robert Berry Lowery in McNairy indicates an Elizabeth "Lowrie" b. 1809 (we have ours born 1810), verbal history indicates the brothers and sisters do not match exactly. The brothers & sisters for the Elizabeth in the attached text file: Nancy, Robert G., Samuel, George Rockford, Alexander Hays, John Berry, and Alfred Patrick. Verbal history indicates that my Elizabeth's brothers and sister were: Carroll, Green (or Greenberry), John, Mark, and Matilda. Also, verbal history indicated that Elizabeth's mother lived to be 100 years old and her father was a captain in the War of 1812. (no names for father or mother).
- Elizabeth and Joseph "Solomon Fowler", my gggrandfather, married about 1828/1829. They are listed in the 1830 McNairy Census with a daughter "up to 5". Matilda Lowery married Bennett Musgrove Burleson (son of Moses Burleson) about 1831. Their first (1832) and second son (1836) was born in McNairy before they moved to Franklin County/Marion County Alabama prior to 1838. They remained in Alabama until about 1851 when they moved to Denton, TX where Matilda died in 15 February 1856 in Sanger, Denton County, TX, probably during childbirth. Buried in Duck Creek Cemetery west of Sanger. Rex McLarin, rexmcldr@door.net posted Bennett & Matilda's family on the Internet [<http://www.myged.com/db/page/mclaurin/07325>] but the link is no longer active. There is another link: <http://www.members.home.net/ajboyd/buDesc12.htm#163> but there appears to be a lot of errors on names and dates as well as to whom Bennett married first and then second.
- Elizabeth and Solomon FOWLER moved from TN to Pope County Ark (1847 until 1851) and then to Tarrant County TX (1852-1865), to McDonald County, MO (1865-1870) to Prairie City, Cherokee Nation (OK) 1870 to Chautauqua Springs, KS around mid 1870s. Elizabeth died in Tryon, Lincoln County, OK in 1892.
- An inquiry I made for McNairy County regarding Occupant/Revolutionary War Land Grants came up with two Lowery/Lowry names there:
 - Adams Lowry 98 acres in 9th district 3rd range and 6th section John D. Lowry 25 acres in 9th district range 3 and section 6. When I asked where the 9th district was, I was told that it was all of McNairy County. When I asked where the 3rd range and 6th section was, I was told that it might be part of Chester County now. - I would appreciate any help/leads you may have. Thanks.

Notes for John Cranford:

- Kathy Daitch; Edward Jasper Poe, Jr. 1898 m Kathleen Sievern Woodley; Mary Ann Cranford 1866 m Edward Jasper Poe, Sr; Joshua Alston Cranford 1834 m Mary Elizabeth Davis; John Cranford m Mary Ann Hurley; John Cranford m Winnie Griffin.
- Here goes what I found out on that J. M. Cranford: From NC Troops, Volume that contains records on 14th Regiment, Co. G- J. M. Cranford, Private- resided in Montgomery County and enlisted in Wake County at age 22, July 16, 1862, for the war. Captured in Fredrick Maryland Sept. 11, 1862. Confined at Fort Delaware, Delaware and was exchanged at City Point, Virginia, Dec. 18, 1862. Rejoined the Company prior to March 1, 1863. Wounded in the arm in Chancellorsville Virginia May 1-3, 1863. Died in Montgomery County on June 12, 1863 of wounds. An addendum to the record was a newspaper article in the Fayetteville Observer(Semiweekly) of May 14, 1863, one of his legs was amputated as a result of wounds received at Chancellorsville, Va. April 30-May 4, 1863.
- From Old Zoar Cemetery listing in Montgomery County, NC: Row 7, #20, a, John W. s/o John and Polly Cranford b. 8 May 1840, d. 12 June 1863. b and care graves of John and Polly Hurley Cranford. Listing was 8 June 1991 by Peggy R. Palmer and Dewey L. Snider. I've been there and the W. could as well be an M. Talked to Peggy Palmer around 1995 and got the same opinion.
- The 1850 census in Montgomery County, NC for John and Polly Hurley Cranford lists a son John M. age 11, enumerated Sept. 19, 1850. Being born May 8, 1840, when he enlisted July 16, 1862 he would have been 22 as the above record states. And I believe the same person as the J. M. Cranford record above.
- What else is there: record in the Montgomery Heritage Book II, #108 the Cranford's of Montgomery County mentions (1) Milton died in the Civil War. That's all that's said. Believe this J. M., John M. or W. is John Milton Cranford s/o John and Polly Hurley Cranford.
- What makes your delima very perplexing is your James (M)Madison Cranford was age 11 on the 1850 census and so was John (M)Milton Cranford age 11. I also think I would suspect the J. M. could be James Madison Cranford and that's why I did this research years ago as numerous people were asking about that. When I looked at the 1862 estate record for James Madison Cranford that made it all fall in place.

Notes for Mary Ann "Polly" Hurley:

- Taken from "Huley Families in America by William Neal Hurley.

- "The Alabama families state that their Daniel was called "Shad". Strangely enough, our records indicate that one of "our" Daniel's sons, Joshua, was nicknamed "Shad"! They list one of his sons as being Freeman Hurley, who moved to Alabama. One of our Daniel's sons, Daniel Wade (1810), WHO could have been one of the brothers of Freeman, named one of his own sons West Freeman Hurley (1842); FOR HIS BROTHER, perhaps?
- There is a problem, though, with the rest of the information received from Alabama, relative to the reported children of Cornelius Hurley and Daniel Hurley. They report a son Tom born to Daniel Wade, and we are not aware of one by that name. As to Cornelius, they report sons Elias, William, Green and Winchop. Our Cornelius had no such sons that we know of.
- However, in the records of Chatham County, N. C. we have found the family of Accy Hurley, born 1794 to 1802, about the same time frame as Cornelius (1796), son of Daniel (1771). Accy Hurley was a son of Amos Hurley (1755) and had four sons: Elias Wesley, Greene, and Winship. It appears probable that a mistake has been made by our Alabama cousins, assigning the sons of Accy Hurley to Cornelius. We believe then, that Daniel and his wife Mary Worrell were parents of the following children:
 - 1. William H. Hurley, know as "cripple Billy" born 1794-1800. He married Mary , May 16, 1815.
 - 2. Cornelius Hurley, born c. 1796
 - 3. Mary Hurley, or Polly born c. 1799, and married to John Cranford.
 - They had at least one son and a daughter:
 - a. Joshua Cranford, born Aug. 21, 1834 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died July 4, 1897 near Troy. He was married July 8, 1865 to Mary Elizabeth Davis, who was born Sept. 22, 1836 and died July 3,1915. They had four children:
 - (1) An unknown daughter
 - (2) William Ivey Cranford
 - (3) Wade Cranford, married Vernia Zachary. Two sons:
 - (a) Daniel W. Cranford
 - (b) Robert Cranford
 - (4) Civilla Christian Cranford, born Dec. 24, 1872 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died Aug. 9, 1923 in Ridgeway, S. C. Married Oct. 16, 1895 to John William Hoyle, who was born June 21, 1868 in Cleveland County, N. C., and died June 21, 1962 in Durham, N. C. At least one daughter
 - (a Elizabeth Self Hoyle, born Aug. 7, 1901 in Montgomery County, N. C. and died March 19, 1972 at Durham. Married May 23, 1930 to Willis Brodie Jeffreys, son of Brodie E. Jeffreys (1855-1929) and Lucy Frances Jones Jeffreys.
 - b. Margaret Cranford, reported to me by Jeanne Laurel Suggs Gildes (1951) of Waukegan, Illinois. Margaret married Jacob Reynolds and had at least one daughter:
 - (1) Annette J. Reynolds, born April 20, 1859. She was married on Feb. 24, 1876 to Jesse Suggs, son of Isaac and Jane Suggs.
 - No children.
 - 4. Nancy Hurley, born Aug. 29, 1800
 - 5. Freeman Hurley, born c. 1804

- 6. Noah Hurley, born c. 1808
- 7. Daniel Wade Hurley, born c. 1810
- 8. Joshua Hurley, born April 11, 1812 and died June 14, 1896. Buried at Sharon Cemetery, Mt. Gilead in Montgomery County, N. C. He was nicknamed "Shad" and was married first to Lydia, born 1820, who appears with him in the 1850 Census, with two of his children. Married second Nov. 28, 1875 to Margaret A. Strider, born c. 1834. Only four of his children are known:
 - a. Disa Hurley, born c. 1845. Married April 27, 1871 John C. Yarbrough, son of John and Temperance Yarbrough
 - b. Noah R. Hurley, born June, 1849. His wife Elizabeth Jane. Married 1866. There were twelve or thirteen children. We now can identify only four of the children:
 - (1) Frances Hurley, born c. 1874
 - (2) Mary F. Hurley, born c. 1879
 - (3) Ervin B. Hurley, born Jan. 1883. Married to Analiza McCallum, her second marriage
 - (4) Susan R. Hurley, born March, 1890
 - c. Sarah E. Hurley, born c. 1859 and married Nov. 1, 1879 to Levi W. Hamilton
 - d. Mary Hurley, born c. 1862

52. Daniel Hurley, born 1771. He was the son of 104. Amos Hurley. He married 53. Mary Worrell.

53. Mary Worrell.

Children of Daniel Hurley and Mary Worrell are:

- 26 i. Cornelious Hurley, born 1796 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; died 1855; married Elizabeth "Betsy" Beane June 25, 1818 in Rowan County, North Carolina.
- ii. Mary Ann "Polly" Hurley, born May 13, 1805; died January 17, 1892 in Old Zoar Methodist Cemetery, Montgomery County, NC; married John Cranford.

- This folder file contains papers also as to the estate of a second Daniel Hurley, which should not be confused with this subject. That Daniel, born c. 1810/17, was a son of Stephen Hurley (1782). The files have been combined for no apparent reason, except the common name.

61. Magdalena, born Abt. 1783 in Grainger, Claiborn County, Tennessee.

Notes for Johan Peter Licklitter (Leichliter):

- The Licklitters were of Germanic origin. I say Germanic because their language was German but they were more than likely Tyrolian. The Tyrol is in current day Austria, with a little bit in northern Italy.
- Peter was probably born in Nockamixon Township, Bucks Co, PA. There was a Peter Leichleiter whose birth and baptism was recorded in Tohickon Union (Reformed) Church, Bedminster Township, Bucks Co. This Peter was a son of Jacob Leichliter who was born prior to 1733 and married Catherine Margaret Loch. Catherine was a daughter of Hannah Sibylla Loch. Jacob and Catherine had several children whose births were recorded in the same church. Whether or not this is our Peter, remains to be proven. The age is certainly right.

- The information I have on Rachel and William is primarily from the census records of KY and AR, with a few marriages thrown in here and there.

91. Ollie, born 1720. She was the daughter of 182. Chief Oconostota and 183. Woman of the Paint Clan.

Notes for Attakullakulla "Little Carpenter":

- Ata -gul kalu :
- A noted Cherokee chief, recognized by the British government as the head chief or "Emperor" of the Nation, about 1760 and later, and commonly known to the whites as the Little Carpenter (Little Cornplanter, by mistake, in Haywood). The name is frequently spelled Atta-kulla-kulla, Ata-kullakulla or Ata-culculla. It may be rendered "Leaning wood," from ata , "Wood" and gul kalu, a verb implying that something long is leaning, without sufficient support, against some other object; it has no first person form. Bartram describes him as "A man of remarkably small stature, slender and of a delicate frame, the only instance I saw in the Nation; but he is a man of superior abilities."
- Three of seven young Cherokees, who were escorted by Sir Alexander Cuming to England in 1730 to meet King George II. The Cherokees signed articles of friendship and commerce with representatives of the British Crown. One of the Cherokees was Oukanaekah, later named Attakullaculla or the Little Carpenter.

More About ATTAKULLAKULLA:

- Attended: 1730, Delegation to King George II
- Blood: 1/2 Cherokee, 1/2 Algonquin(?)
- Clan: Wolf Clan (Quatsy)
- Signer: March 1775, Henderson's Treaty, Sycamore Shoals

Notes for Ollie:

- Little is known of Attacullaculla's immediate family. His wife appears only rarely in the documentary record. In 1758 Attakullaculla wrote Littleton, "I desire that you would send me a cloak for my wife," and once he tried to exchange two prisoners for two Negro slaves to help her. In November, 1774 she accompanied him to North Carolina. In Bethabara husband and wife listened to the peal of the organ. He had heard many organs but she insisted that the lid be removed for she feared a child was trapped inside. In a letter dated 1766 she is mentioned, but nothing more. (Journal of Cherokee Studies, Vol. III, No. 1, Winter, 1978 p. 27)

Children of Attakullakulla Carpenter" and Ollie are:

- Tsi yi-gunsi ni
- Tsu-gun-sini

- Cheucunsene
- Kunnesee
- the Savage Napoleon
- Tsi yi-gunsi ni :
 - "He is dragging a canoe," from tsi yu, canoe (cf. Tsi yu) otter, and gunsi ni, "he is dragging it." "Dragging Canoe," a prominent leader of the hostile Cherokee in the Revolution. The name appears in documents as Cheucunsene and Kunnesee. (Starr also lists him as Chuconsene)
 - As a 12-14 year old boy he was told he couldn't go with the war party unless he could drag the fully loaded war log canoe on land into the water. His enthusiasm and endeavors earned him the name Tsi'ui-Gunsin'ni "Dragging Canoe". This was circa 1750 when his father Atakullakulla led war parties against the French & their Native allies, including Shawnee, in the Ohio Valley.
- - Chief Dragging Canoe, Chickamauga Tsalagi (Cherokee) 1775
 - "Whole Indian Nations have melted away like snowballs in the sun before the white man's advance. They leave scarcely a name of our people except those wrongly recorded by their destroyers. Where are the Delawares? They have been reduced to a mere shadow of their former greatness. We had hoped that the white men would not be willing to travel beyond the mountains. Now that hope is gone. They have passed the mountains, and have settled upon Tsalagi (Cherokee) land. They wish to have that usurpation sanctioned by treaty. When that is gained, the same encroaching spirit will lead them upon other land of the Tsalagi (Cherokees). New cessions will be asked. Finally the whole country, which the Tsalagi (Cherokees) and their fathers have so long occupied, will be demanded, and the remnant of the Ani Yvwiya, The Real People, once so great and formidable, will be compelled to seek refuge in some distant wilderness. There they will be permitted to stay only a short while, until they again behold the advancing banners of the same greedy host. Not being able to point out any further retreat for the miserable Tsalagi (Cherokees), the extinction of the whole race will be proclaimed. Should we not therefore run all risks, and incur all consequences, rather than to submit to further loss of our country? Such treaties may be alright for men who are too old to hunt or fight. As for me, I have my young warriors about me. We will hold our land."
 - [The Indigenous Peoples: "Indians" in North America before the European Invasion through the 19th century.] Subsequently the Henderson Purchase was repudiated and negated by both British and American governments. individuals were not allowed to make land purchases. that right was withheld by centralized european governments dealing with tribes as nation-to-nation.
 - 1792 February 17; Chickamauga Chief Glass and Dragging Canoe's brother, Turtle At Home, waylaid the John Collingsworth family near Nashville, killing the father, mother, and a daughter, and capturing an eight-year-old girl. Returning to Lookout Town (near Trenton, Georgia), they held a scalp dance, grinding one of the scalps in his teeth as he performed. Dragging Canoe, recently returned from Mississippi after meeting with Choctaws, celebrated the occasion so strenuously that he died the following morning, age ±54.

- John Watts of Will's Town (near Fort Payne, Alabama), became the new Chickamauga leader of the united war effort. Cherokee resistance continued - led a big campaign against settlements in Nashville (Buchanan Station 1793) and in upper east Tennessee led the combined Cherokee-Creek attack at Cavett's Station in 1793 in which there were no white survivors.

- Old Frontiers, pg 5

- "Tsu-gun-sini, Dragging Canoe, son of Attakullakulla, was chief of Amo-yeli-egwa, Great Island, one of the smaller Cherokee towns."
- March 1775]

- Old Frontiers, pg 161

- [1776, Dragging Canoe] "With his followers, he seceded from the Cherokee Nation and withdrew a hundred miles down the Tennessee River where he organized a new tribe. Those Cherokees who met in treaty with the Americans, he denounced as "rogues," or worse, as "Virginians." His own followers called themselves, proudly, "Ani-Yunwiya," the Real People.

ii. Tah-Chee "Dutch", born 1736; died Aft. 1828; married (2) Aisley; married (3) Susannah Catherine.

Notes for Tah-Chee "Dutch":

Notes for TAH-CHEE:

- Tatsi :
- "Dutch," also written Tahchee, a western Cherokee chief about 1830.
- Cherokees in Texas TSALAGIYI NVDAGI P O Box 492 Troup, Texas 75789 (903)842-3329
- Tah-chee or "Dutch" was a Western Cherokee chief who refused to move from Arkansas to the Indian Territory and took his group to settle in east Texas. The Texas Cherokees were forced to move to Indian Territory after a bloody battle with the army of the Republic of Texas in the 1840's.
- A large number of Cherokee refused to move to the Indian Territory and elected to join Duwali in Texas which was under Mexican jurisdiction. Among those moving to Texas was the noted chief Tahchee, or Dutch, who had been one of the earliest emigrants to Arkansas. Tahchee continued to raid Osage settlements in the area of Cantonment Gibson from his home along the Red River. After several years in Texas, he moved to the Indian Territory where he continued raids against the Osage.
- While the Cherokees were in Mexico, The Imperial Mexican Government of Iturbide was overthrown. In June 1823, the new government informed the Cherokees to return to Texas and no more Cherokees would be allowed to migrate to Mexico. To mollify the Indians, Chief Diwali was made a Lieutenant Colonel in the Mexican Army and appointed as Administrator for all of the Indians in East Texas. Peter Ellis Bean was appointed by the Mexican Government to be Indian Agent for East Texas.

- Upon Fields' return to Texas, he started making an alliance with all Indian tribes in East Texas, urging those in the United States to join him. This excited the Mexican Government on the intentions of the Cherokees, and the government tried to counter the Cherokee influence with other Indians. A great Cherokee War Chief Tahchee, also known as Dutch, left the Cherokees in Arkansas and crossed the Red River into Texas in 1827. Tahchee and his warriors lived for fighting - anyone, but preferably the Osage Indians.

Notes for NANCY:

- As compiled here, Nancy would be of the Paint clan but so would her husband, the Badger. This would be forbidden under the Cherokee customs of the day. The clan association on Nancy's side is assumed through her "sister" Wurteh (Paint clan) but Wurteh may have been a half-sister; this would allow Nancy to have a different clan association.

- Attached will be an article to appear in the Montgomery County NC Heritage Book III to be published the end of this year or the first of next, you are getting a preview. Cousin George and myself wrote the article and it Farly well answers your question. With all the records available I think you could guess Old Leonard could have been married 3 times. But we've never located a record that says the name of the wife. His obituary indicates leaving a wife and 5 young children and he died at the age of 80-90. Then the 100 year old Mary Cranford found in Montgomery County in 1850 and believed to be his wife by a lot of people may have been the only one he had. She could fit the case. This more than likely Mary Hopkins. But one branch of the family, Sarah Cranford that Samuel Tolbert indicates a Mary Hill. This could be as there is a Mary Hill daughter of a Rachel Hopkins Hill that we have never found who this Mary Hill married. This Rachel Hopkins and Mary Hopkins believed to be descendants of Gerard and Margaret Johns Hopkins. A Quaker family from Maryland. Also a hundred or so years later their descendant was Johns Hopkins connected to that famous Baltimore hospital and in that family there must have been 20 Johns Hopkins in different branches of the family. Try and figure that out.
- In short there are enough incomplete records to really confuse the issue. And not enough of other records to sort the fact from fiction. I tend to lean to the one wife named Mary Hopkins belief but have never found a document that says that.

For those that are interested:

- Recent postings regarding Fayetteville Observer Death Date for Leonard Cranford that died in Montgomery County, NC 1830 may be confusing as to the month of death as indicated. Have had a couple of private e-mails that indicated the month of death they had was April 1830. The info in the Fayetteville Observer as appeared in the book under the May 13th 1830 issue of that paper and on page 43 of the book and indicated old Leonard died on the 13th; this could be interpreted as he died on May 13, 1830.
- Also other newspaper indications of this death notice do this. The original information came from the May 4th 1830 issue of the Western Carolinian published in Salisbury, Rowan Co., NC:
- Died In Montgomery county, near the narrows, on the 13th ult. after an illness of nearly two years duration, Mr. Leonard Cranford, between 80 and 90 years of age, leaving a wife and five small children.
- Since the 13th had not yet passed when this issue of the paper published then the month of death had to be April and I have recorded as the death date for this Leonard Cranford April 13, 1830 and this Western Carolinian death notice as the source. This also establish's his about birth year as 1740-1750. What we have done is split the difference and is indicated as born about 1745 and this notice is also used as the source.
- The place of birth is not indicated here and comes from family info sources and is believed to be Maryland. Leonard is first found in NC on the 1779 tax list in Randolph County. Later on the 1790 census is found in Montgomery County, NC.
- This Leonard Cranford is my 4gt grand-dad and this is to set the record straight as to his birth and death dates.

Notes for Jonas Cranford:

- From family info and from other descendants of old Leonard Cranford, the father of Leonard Cranford that died near the narrows in Montgomery County NC was Jonas Cranford. There are records that indicate an older and a younger Jonas in Fredrick County, MD on several census records plus a Revolutionary Patriots list. They came to NC from the area of Fredrick MD. Leonard is found on the Randolph County NC 1779 tax list. The first listing of him in NC that I'm aware. Then later in Montgomery County. Have never seen other records from the MD area. If there are county land, estate or other records there for Jonas they could tell who some of his children are. This would answer a lot of questions regarding the older Cranfords in early NC records.

"It is true that Willenawah and the Little Carpenter are my nephews, but I do not know how they would behave.
