Generation No. 1

1. JOHANN GEORGE3 GOLDMAN (CONRAD2, CONRAD1) was born Bet. 1712 - 1722 in Schoharie Valley, New York *Probably in the refuge camp., and died Aft. 1830 in Knox County, Indiana *Age 108. He married (1) MARTIN. He married (2) UNKNOWN Abt. 1750 in Tulpehocken, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for JOHANN GEORGE GOLDMAN:

According to Mrs Leroy Sanders - Berks County Historical Society of Pennsylvania Johan George Goldman settled in the Tulpehocken region in 1728. Rev. Richards wrote: "There were constant accessions to the number of the first feeble band in 1723. By 1728, other families left Schoharie, and settled (in Tulpehocken). She also stated that in the same book is a list of the members of the German Reformed Church were Conrad Goldman, Jr. was a member between 1735 and 1755.

Johann George Goldman was a member of the congregation that laid the cornerstone of the Evangelical Lutheran "Christ Church" on May 12, 1743 according to the Historical Society Womelsdorf, PA.

*Johann George Goldman appears on the membership lists of the Evangelical Lutheran Church - 1743 -46 Tulpehocken, Pennsylvania. The first settlers in Tulpehocken were Lutherans and German reformed. Tobias Wagoner was the first pastor of the Lutheran congregation. (See Rupp's History of Berks County, PA.)

Notes on The Meaning of Tulpehocken: Sources: Dick Creps, Judy Thayer, and Dave Becker Tulpehocken...which means "Land where the turtle sang and wooed"...also the name of a Creek in Eastern Berks County.

The Swatara, a tributary of the Susquehanna, led to the Tulpehocken Creek, which "fed" into Lancaster Co. Now, a distinct area of research within Berks and Lancaster Counties, and into an even larger area. When the Palatinates went to New York, and got fed up with the British attitudes toward them, Weiser, and others began to look for other better places to settle. Apparently, Wm. Penn's folks had contacted them, offering land in the western part of Pennsylvania. Seemingly, the ulterior motive for the Penns was to provide themselves (in Eastern Penn) with a westerly buffer against the Indians. The PA authorities didn't throw down so many roadblocks against German Settlement, as did the British (who allowed only 10 acres per family and was not sufficient for adequate farming). The story of the Palatinates migration is mythical. SEE: Earl W. Ibach's "Map".

Conrad Weiser (father and son) knew about the Tulpehocken area of Berks County through numerous contacts with the Indian peoples of that area, and trips made to the region. It is unknown how long the negotiations took, but the decision was finally made to make the move to the Tulpehocken area. A petition exists which names those original migrants. This migration took place in 1723, when 33 families left New York upon the invitation of Governor William Keith of Penn. And settled in the Tulpehocken area. The following petition to Governor Keith from these Palatinates who would eventually settle along the Tulpehocken Creek in Eastern Berks County. "To his excellency, William Keith, Baronet, Governor of Pennsylvania...The Honorable Council...The petition to us, the subscribers, being thirty-three families in number, at present inhabiting Tulpehocken Creek, Humbly Sheweth that your petitioners being natives of Germany about 15 years ago were by the great goodness and royal bounty of her late Majesty, Queen Anne, relieved from the hardships which they then suffered in Europe, and were transported into the colony of new York, where they settled. But the families increasing, being in that Government confined to the scanty allowance of ten acres of land to each family were on they could not well subsist. Your petitioners being informed of the kind reception which their countrymen usually meet with in the Province of Pennsylvania, and hoping they might, with what substance they had, acquire larger settlements in that Province, did last year (in the Spring of 1723) leave their settlements in that Province, and came with their families into this Province, where upon their arrival they applied themselves to his excellency the Governor, who, of his great goodness, permitted them to inhabit upon Tulpahaca Creek, on condition that they should make full satisfaction to the proprietor of his agents for such lands as should be allotted to them, when they were ready to receive the same. And now, your petitioners, understanding that some gentlemen, agents of the proprietor, have ample power to dispose of lands in this province. An we, your petitioners, being willing and ready to purchase do, humbly beseech your Excellency and Council to recommend us to the favorable usage of the proprietors agents, that upon paying the usual prices for lands at such distance from Philadelphia, we may have sufficient rights and titles made to us for such lands as we shall have occasion to buy, that our children may have some settlement to depend on hereafter, and that by your authority we may be freed from the demands of the Indians of that part of the country, who pretend a right thereto. And we humbly beg leave to inform your Excellency and Council, that there are fifty families more who, if they may be admitted upon the same conditions, are desirous to come and settle with us. We hope for your favorable answer to this our humble request, and as in duty bound shall ever pray. JOHANNES YANS, JOHANNES CLAES SHAVER, PETER RITT, JO. HAMELAR RITT, CONRAD SCHITA, ANTONIS SHARB, PALTUS UNSF, JOHANN PETER PACTH TORITINE, SERBO JOCHAM, MICHAEL CRICHT, JOSAP SAB, EBASTIAN PISAS, JORGE RITT, ANDREW FALBORN, GODFREYT FILLER The above, as well as the portion to follow, is taken from "The German Emigration from New York Province into Pennsylvania: Part V of a narrative prepared at the request of the Pennsylvania German Society," by Reverend Henry Richards, D.D. and presented in 1899.

This next section deals with the long journey from New York to Pennsylvania, which these original settlers made: "Guided by the Indians, and not under the leadership of either the elder Weiser, or his gifted son, as some suppose, both of whom came later, the pioneers of 1723, with much toil and labor, cut their way through the forest, after which, with their wives, little ones, and animals, they followed, by day, the scanty track they had made in the woods and slept at the foot of it's trees, wooed to slumber by it's ceaseless noises, during the night, until the forty or fifty miles, which separated them from the (Susquehanna) river had been traversed. Then came the building and launching of heavy rafts, to contain their domestic utensils, and of the light and speedy canoes for themselves, on which they were to continue their long journey to the haven of rest, accompanied slowly by their cattle, driven along the river's banks. As forest and open space, trees, rocks, and sandy beach, succeeded in each other, with tiresome monotony, and as camp-fire at the close of day, they little reckoned that they had swept by the spots where the flourishing towns of Binghamton and Oswega were, later, to stand. As they rounded the curve where the Lackawanna joins the Susquehanna at Pittston, who was the wizard of their number whose divining rod would point to the priceless diamonds beneath them and tell them that their dumb animals were treading underfoot riches of far greater value to mankind than all the pears and rubies for which the world was striving? Whose fancy amongst them all would have pictured or imagined the beautiful city of Wilkes-Barre, and the cola breakers everywhere rearing their heads into the air as though they were indeed giants issuing from their long slumber in the bowels of the earth? As they exchanged greetings with the Indians, in their village of Shamokin, can it be that there rose up before any one of them a picture of the hideous scenes of their near future, or any foresight of their murdered sons, and daughters and the blackened ruins of the homes towards which they were hastening, or did the troubled dreams of any other reveal to him the fort at Sunbury, no longer Shamokin, filled with it's soldiers, and sound into his astonished ears the booming to it's guns? Down the Grand Stream, which was bearing them, they slowly floated until their watchful eyes caught sight of a long log cabin on its shores, where now stands the capitol city of Pennsylvania, (Harrisburg) and as they looked upon the home of John Harris, it is altogether probable they saw, for the first time in all their journey, the dwelling of a white man. Cheered by the sight on they went, until they came to where the Swatara Creek joined it's waters with those of its mighty brother, and at the spot where Middletown now stands, our wanderers at last changed course and entered the stream which told them they were drawing near the goal towards which they had been hastening for so many weary days. To reach this goal, was to endure a few more hardships and trials, and when, in the lovely Tulpehocken (which means "land where the turtle sang and wooed.") region, nestling at the foot of the Blue Mountains and wavered by its numerous streams, they pitched their camp for the last time, it was HOME. Outside of the surrounding Indian villages, we have no record of previous settlements, so that, in very truth, they had taken up "vacant lands." Thus is the connection of the Tulpehocken Settlement with the region of Schoharie, New York.

Later in the same paper, Rev. Richards wrote: "There were constant accessions to the number of the first feeble band. In 1728, other families left Schoharie, and settled (in Tulpehocken), amongst whom were: Leonard Anspach Caspar Hohn George Schmidt George Zeh Johannes Noecker Johann Jacob Holsteiner Michael Lauer Anreas Kapp Jacob Werner Johann Philip Schneider Jacob Katterman Jacob Lowengut Heinrich Six Philip Theis Conrad Scharf And in an even later work, Rev. Richards writes: "Before the erection of Berks County, in 1752, the township of Tulpehocken was a recognized division, being a part of Lancaster County in 1729. Because of its great size, in 1734, another township was laid off from it and erected, called "Heidelberg" to commemorate that part of the fatherland from whence many of the settlers came. The early inhabitants, therefore, of the old Townships of Heidelberg and Tulpehocken, were composed, mainly (though not entirely) of the immigrants from New York Province. Rupp names the following as amongst the first settlers: John Adam Diffebach, Peter Lebo, Christian Lower, Jacob Fisher, Peter Ansbach, John Soller, Michael Reid, Jacob Sorbet, Herman Walborn, Francis Wenrich, Frederick Reed, Ulrich Schwartz. Evidence or residence in North Carolina Old Rowan County, 1753. Notes: from Sandy Speight

Peter Goldman is at the beginning of the south fork of the CRANE river 2 miles south of the granite quarry. That is the quarry that I told you about and George and Martin had land south of there. This means that this Peter Goldman is a son and grandson of our George and Martin. He must of inherited this land because I can't find the sale to Peter in my records. Daniel Boones house is 20 miles North, Northwest of Peters between Hunting and Dutchman's Creek (this would of been Davie County after 1836). John Goldman had land more west than this. But then again he sales 121 acres of land in October 1800 to Lemuel Saunders on the shore of Anderson creek and A CORNER OF "THE FURNACE" LAND. Peter Goldman inherited land for his father or grandfather George, or Martin. And we now know where our Goldmans had land in North Carolina. Squire Boone owned land west of Daniel on the other side of Bear River no more than ten miles away. He got it by a Granville grant. I don't know when he sold it but 200 hundred acres changed hands in 1784.

1768 - Rowan County Tax List of John Ford shows "Martin Goldman".

1771 - John Goldman (First Chain bearer) Tyron County original land survey index. Note: "A chain bearer is considered significant because such a person is therefore known to have been present at a certain location on a given day. Sometimes an individual will appear as a chain bearer but in no other public record of that time and place. The waterway's were indexed because it is frequently useful to know other landowner's in a given area." Katherine Sullivan - Dellinger researcher.

Note: Katherine Sullivan (researcher in Charlotte, North Carolina) thinks that "Big Jacob Dellinger" may be doing this for his grandchildren. "Hannah Dellinger" may must have ben married to a Goldman man first. Her Goldman children (John and Hannah) are not listed in the bastardy records. This research continues on the Dellinger/Goldman links.

Note: William Dellinger (possibly Hannah Dellinger "Goldman" King's brother) also went to Knox County, Indiana as well as John Helderman and Adam Like -(were in Indiana by 1817), and Louis Reel was in Indiana by 1802 as well as the Myer's. All of them were neighbors on Leeper's Creek in Lincoln Co., North Carolina. Like's son's were David, John, Elias, Jacob, and Moses. The Wehunt's, Like's, Dellinger's, and Link's all have family associations. (Jacob Goldman married Catherine Wehunt, Martin Goldman Jr. married Sally Link, and Sarah Goldman married Jacob Like). The Likes go back to Virginia.

The Goldman's were landowners, but never were called for jury duty. This suggests a religious rejection of the necessity to swear an oath when serving on a jury. The court "did" respect those religious beliefs. In Knox County, Indiana the Dellinger's and Goldman's were both Lutheran.

According to researcher Elaine Rowland, George Goldman was living with his son Martin Sr. when he died at 108 in Knox County, Indiana in 1820. 1810 Kentucky Census reads:

(MARTIN4, JOHANN GEORGE3, CONRAD2, CONRAD1) was born Bet. 1775 - 1783 in Jefferson County (?), Kentucky, and died May 05, 1852 in Patoka Township - Crawford County, Indiana *Buried in Mount Edens. He married SARAH "SALLY" LINK January 07, 1805 in Tyron, Lincoln County, North Carolina by Lemuel Saunders, Jr, daughter of JOHN LINK and MARGARET.

Notes for MARTIN GOLDMAN, JR.:

Notes for SARAH SALLY LINK:

Notes for SARAH "SALLY" LINK:

1 The family of John Link were taken captive when British and Native Americans attacked Ruddell's Station, Kentucky District, Virginia, June 24, 1780. They were released at Ticonderoga, New York, July 18, 1783. Family consisted of John Link, age 34, Margaret Link, age 36, John Link Jr. , age 10, Caty (Catherine) Link, age 10, Molly (Polly) Link , age 8 and Sarah Link, age 6.

1 A John Link married Mary Fulbright then later married her sister, Margaret Fulbright Crites. I think Mary is buried here in Lincoln County, NC and Margaret is buried with John in Missouri. I have him as the son of John Adam who is the son of Hans Adam. My source on this has not proven to be the most reliable. Everything that I sought to confirm when I first got the info (about ten years ago) checked out great. Mostly what I was able to confirm was in Missouri, but I also had the opportunity to confirm some info as far back as 1762 while I was visiting in PA. In the last year or so, with online access I have found some of the information to be wrong, and I am systematically verifying everything now.

I will email you with a full generation report. John Link estate file (box 47, file 905) from the microfilm. His wife at the time of his death WAS Margaret, although I could not confirm her maiden surname. His children were: Daniel Link, John Link, Aaron Link, Elizabeth Miller (wife of John L.?), Margaret Mayfield (wife of Stephen), Catherine Helderman (deceased before her father, wife of John), Mary Helderman (wife of Conrad), and Lavina Link (later married Hosea Welty). I would like to transcribe this entire file over the next few weeks, so if anyone wants a copy as an attached file, just let me know.

1 Tryon and Lincoln Co., NC court records confirm that John Link was a son of Jacob and Barbara Link. These records were abstracted by Brent Holcomb, and are available in many larger genealogical libraries. There is so much incorrect information out on this family that you had just as well trust ONLY primary sources. The Hans Adam story is from my uncle's book, "The Eddleman-Fulbright Families". This man did exist, but there is no evidence he was part of this Link family. The will of Mary and Margaret Fulbright's father, Johann Wilhelm (William) Fulbright, mentions Mary Link and Margaret Crites. I have yet to see the evidence that Margaret married John Link, although I am told it exists. In any event, nearly all of John Link's children were born prior to the 1805 date of William Fulbright's will, so Mary would have been their mother. Might I also ask where you got the middle initial "A" for John Link? All the records I have only mention him as John Link.

1 Katherine Link INKS that married Peter Jump in 1790 Kentucky. Mary Katherine Link b. Feb 1 1727/28-which could possibly be her mother or grandmother.

1 Frederick Link who was born in Lincoln County, NC <1770. He married Catherine ??? and moved to Burke County, NC. Frederick's known siblings are Henry (died in Lincoln County, NC in 1864 with no will), Catherine (married Adam Hoppes, Jr.), and Elizabeth (married George Hodson Triplett). Moyers / Mayers / Myers who married a Jacob Link and was living in Lincoln Co. NC about 1770. Her parents were Elias Moyers (1735?-1802)& Elizabeth ?. Her brothers were Elias Myers, Jr. (1760-1833), John Myers (1762-1822), & Frederick Myers (1770-1839).

1 Elias Myers, Jr. m. Dolly Fulbright in NC and moved to Daviess Co., IN with their 8 children in 1816. One of Dolly's sisters married a Killian. Another married a Bollinger?

1 Frederick Myers m. Elizabeth ? & moved to Knox Co. IN in 1817. One of his eight children was Mary (Polly) Dellinger. A Nancy Myers married a Martin Goldman also in Knox County, Indiana.

1 John Myers m. Catherine ? & stayed in NC, but some of his children moved to Knox Co. IN about 1834.

1 Adam Link appears in The Link Family: Antecedents and Descendants of John Jacob Link 1417 - 1951 by Paxson Link (on pages 229-230 and 273. He was the son of Phillip Link and Charlotte Bayley (Bailey) born January 2, 1820 in Augusta County, Virginia. He married Lucy Alemeth Bagley April 16, 1844 in Ohio. Lucy was the daughter of Russia Bagley and was born December 19, 1824 in Cleveland, Ohio. Lucy died January 21, 1881 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Adam died July 15, 1890 in Beechville, Illinois. Children: Emily Elizabeth, Frances Jane, Helen Josephine, William Bailey, Allen Rutherford, John T., Adam Russia, and Lucy May (Jessie).

1 The Link Book traces Phillip's family back to John Jacob Link who traveled to Philadelphia on the Ship Hope 1733 from Germany. Adam Link is a descendant of John Jacob Link's son Matthias. My family line goes through John Jacob Link's son John Adam Link. There is a lot of information in the book on Phillip.

1 Cindy Jones Nicewarner snice@erols.com

1 Mary Vollbrecht, (Fulbright) c.1751-____, who married John Link and they are believed to have moved to Missouri prior to her death.

1 The will of Jacob Link who married C. Rudisill is on file at the Lincoln County courthouse. Jacob Link

1 his father was Hans Adam Lin(c)k and his mother was Anna Madeline Nerwirth. Catherine Rudisill Link's father was Johann Micheal Rudisill and her mother was Eve (Eva) Catherine Dellinger. Jacob had a brother Aaron who married Elizabeth Cole Phifer. Their daughter Anna Catherine married Leander Houck.

1 Jacob married Catherine Rudisill on 15 June 1789, Lincoln Co., N.C. Their son Jacob Link, Jr. married 5 Feb 1819 to Sarah Elizabeth Shuford.

1 Jacob & Sarah Link's son:

1 Ephraim Michael Link married 28 Sept 1850 to Eliza Filecta Smyre.

1 JACOB LINK/CATHERINE RUDISILL. I have 8 children listed for them . Notes list JACOB b. 1 Apr. 1783; MICHAEL b. 3 Mar 1795; JOHN, b. 1799; AARON, b. 1804 (my ancestor); DAVID T. b. 14 Feb 1806; HENRY WILLIAM b. 6 July 1808; MOSES; ANN.

1 It is correct that Henry Dellinger of Lincoln Co., NC was married to Anna Johanna "Hannah" Rudisill. It is correct that Henry Dellinger had an Ordinary [tavern/inn]. It is correct that at one time he operated out of the Town of Lincolnton on the corner later referred to as the Robinson corner.

1 HOWEVER, the old account of the Battle of Ramsauer's Mill written by Wallace Reinhardt quite a few years ago and quoted by historian Alfred Nixon was later corrected by Mr. Nixon. The references to the troops stopping at Dellinger's Tavern are incorrect. It is true that Henry and Hannah (Rudisill) Dellinger had a son named Jacob. HOWEVER, Jacob was not married to Sally. Henry's son Jacob was married to Fronica Wills and they lived in the Buffalo Creek section

He married SARAH ANN MORRIS April 23, 1864 in Crawford County, Indiana, daughter of WILLIAM MORRIS and SARAH RILEY.

Notes for MARTIN JAMES (POLK) GOLDMAN:

1 Grandpa "Polk" (Martin James Goldman) was a small framed man that walked almost everywhere he went. He passed away after a walk from Lincoln, Arkansas to Evansville in bad weather. He was on his way to see his son Lum (Martin Columbus Goldman) when he fell into a creek, became ill with pneumonia, and essentially from the exposure. Sometimes he rode with the mail carrier to his destination. It is said among those who knew him that he wrote and spoke fluent German as well a English. He read from his German Bible everyday.

Notes for SARAH ANN MORRIS:

1 Sarah Morris was considered to be a hard women. She traveled from Indiana to Arkansas pregnant with her husband and 4 boys. According to Ethel Goldman's diary she lost the baby girl along the way . The four boys walked the whole way from Indiana. The oldest son William Moses herded cattle on the trip. Polk made the boys hats out of wheat straw to wear on their journey.

1 Sarah once chased off a suitor of her youngest child Dolly with a frying pan. She was known for whipping her grandchildren Linnie and Chad if they didn't play favor to her youngest child Dolly. All these children were about the same age.

1 Sarah was a tall, stout, Irish woman. In her picture's she appears to be trying to shorten herself to appear less tall beside her short husband Martin James "Polk". She obviously liked hat's and had her picture made often with she and the girl's (Dolly and Bertha) wearing them.

1 The story goesAs a child she was sitting on a flat rock watching her mother, Sarah, do the wash. She was butted by a billy goat and injured her head. She was never the same and considered "slow". In the photographs that exist of her, she looks like she may have had "Downs Syndrome", but there is also evidence of a neck injury. Sarah would have been 38 when she gave birth to her which indicated that she was not to old.

1 Dolly had one suitor which Sarah chased off with a frying pan. She died at the age of 34.

"William Moses (Bill) married 6 times. The last wife, Opal Henman, almost killed him the same way she attempted to kill his brothr Lum (Martin Columbus Goldman), with arsenic. His daughter in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico came to Arkansas and took him back to New Mexico where he died.

His wifes where:

Mary F. Sparkman
Sarah Rowan McClain
Rebecca Isabell Brown(had children with William)
Myrtle Shannon Collins
Opal Herman
Margaret Elizabeth Burrows (had children with William)

Source: Freda (great-granddaughter-in-law)

(I was just doing some research on a very distant collateral relative who, apparently, was the last wife of Wm. Goldman, who is buried in Liberty Cem., Crawford Co., AR.

I found it interesting to see that you said she tried to poison him. That being what it may, I just wanted to make a correction.

The correct name is Opal Walker. She was the dau. of David James Walker & Effie Killough. Edward Hinman was her step-father but she didn't take his name in any documents that I have found.

All 3 of them are listed as being buried in Academy Cem. in Evansville, Washington Co., AR.[Thank you Shelley in California for the information]

His obit said he died in Texas, family said he died in New Mexico.

My name is Dwight D 'Butch' Goldman. I am one of the Goldman's from Evansville, Arkansas.

I was reading part of something you were talking about on a posting on Find A Grave about Opal N Walker.

I wanted to pass along to you something that was told to me by the doctor that treated William Moses 'Bill' Goldman as well as Martin Columbus 'Lum' Goldman. The doctor was Dr. Jeff Baggett who was a doctor in Prairie Grove, Arkansas. He was also the doctor that delivered me at birth.

In the mid 70's I was working for the Prairie Grove Police Department and Dr Baggett, who had retired from medicine, came by the Police station and was talking to me when he noticed my name badge. He asked me how I was related to the Evansville Goldman's and after that told me about treating Bill. Bill had gone to him complaining about stomach problems. After running test, Dr Baggett, concluded that his wife Opal was trying to poison him. Dr Baggett thought that was a funny story.

Long after that when I started doing my own work in family history it caused me to wonder if maybe she had also tried the same thing when she was married to Lum? No way of knowing for sure now but since Dr Baggett told me face to face about Bill and Opal, I figure that is about as good as any of us will ever get into that story

The Life & Times of Edna Bacon Willingham

Sources: 1. My Great Grandmother (referred to as Grandmama in the Story)Johnny Edna (Bacon) (Willingham) Kelly (on my mother's side)

2. My Grandmother (her eldest daughter) Nancy Ann (Willingham) Stidham

Johnny Edna (Bacon) (Willingham) Kelly, my Great Grandmother, whom I call Grandmama and shall refer to her as , herein. Grandmama was born in 1920 in the City of Clovis, New Mexico. Her mothers name was Ona Kindness (Goldman) Bacon. Ona was born October 20,1901. Grandmama's father's name was John Adosia Bacon, born June 20,1897. Both of Grandmama's parents were born in Evansville, Arkansas. Her parents grew up together in the same area and they attended the same schools.

John and Ona Bacon were married December 19,1917. They had four daughters. Grandmama was the oldest Of their daughters. In the following order after Grandmama was her sister Mary Belle (Bacon) Wesson, whom is called and shall be referred to as Belle. Belle was born October 2,1924. Ruth Adosia (Bacon) Sanders was born October 10,1927. The youngest sister's name is Betty Faye (Bacon) Jones. Betty was born April 22,1930.

While speaking with Grandmama, she shared with me her earliest childhood memory which was at the age of four years old. This was the age she recalled her sister Belle was born. Her dad worked on the railroad. Sadly, during her age of just four years old she became a very sick little girl. Because of her illness her parents felt it best that she live with her grandparents on their ranch. The ranch was located near the Pecos River in De Baca County, New Mexico. Grandmama recalled the smell of the food, so vividly, of when she had first arrived at her grandparents ranch. This was probably due to the strict diet the doctor had put her on. Her diet consisted of crackers and buttermilk. This was all the food she was able to keep down. Grandmama remembered that she did have a piece of watermelon. This piece of watermelon caused her mother to get very upset because her mother just knew that the piece of watermelon could have killed her.

In the 1920's Grandmama's grandparents owned several sections of land where their ranch was located. After a few months of living with her grandparent son their ranch, her parents leased a house from her dad's parents and moved about a mile away from the main ranch. The section of land her parents leased, she recalled, was reasonably priced and referred to as the School Section. The house had just two rooms and had what was called then, a dugout. Half of the house was considered normal, but where the kitchen began it was simply dug into the earth. The purpose of this was to keep the house cooler.

During Grandmama's early years her family was considered to be well to do. Grandmama's grandparents owned their ranch, and owned Bacon General Store. They also owned the Post Office. To have money in the bank and savings as her grandparents in Taiban, New Mexico also, was considered very good.

Grandmama's grandpa lost several thousands of dollars in 1926 in the Taiban Bank. That same year he also became very ill and passed away a very short time later. Before he passed away he had sold the general store and the post office. He set that money aside for his children. Grandmama's parents moved into the main ranch house with her grandmother.

School was always a favorite place for Grandmama. She enjoyed reading books. She loved to learn, so very much. She recalled her and her sister riding a horse to school because it was too far to walk alone. When the school teacher lived with them at times, the teacher would walk with them to school. When the teacher was not living with them and they were supposed to ride their horse to school, most often they would still have to walk alone. What would happen, alone the way to school their cousins would take their horse away from them and leave them to walk alone.

At the age of seven years old, Grandmama said she received her first store bought item. Her dad had bought her and her sisters a coat when he was in Fort Worth, Texas. He was in Fort Worth, Texas because he was selling a load of cattle. Grandmama said, " I will never forget my store-bought coat. The coat was plaid with brown, and red, and tan colors". Her father also brought home with him from this cattle selling trip a new 1927 Model A car.

Grandmama's mother was a mid-wife to many woman around the area where they lived. Most woman never saw a doctor before, during, or after child birth. If a mother did not have enough breast milk to feed their infants they would feed them horses milk. They believed that horses milk was better for an infant than cows milk. A mother would use any kind of bottle they could find to use to feed their child. A nipple would be made for the bottle by sewing an inner tube over it.

Most people did not see a doctor, even if they were dying. Home remedies and medicines were used. Some basic necessities were coal oil, turpentine, greases, kerosene, cloverine salve, quinine and black draw tea. (All remedies except the salve and tea was for sore throats and croup, the salve was used for burns cuts and scrape, quinine was used for malaria and chills. The tea was used for constipation.)

In 1930 Grandmama's dad decided to sell his part of the ranch and move to a farm in Floyd, New Mexico. This was a big adjustment for Grandmama. Grandmama had been use to a one room school house that combined kindergarten through eighth grades. The school had about fifteen kids in all. Attending Floyd School now, there were about thirty five students in her class alone.

Grandmama began telling me a story about Christmas time one year. How she had really wanted a doll. No one in her family had toys. Grandmama remembered the closest thing she ever had as a toy to her was a pet lizard. She had this lizard for several weeks. Christmas was celebrated around the community Christmas tree. All of the towns people would join in on the festivities. The tree was decorated with colorful little dolls and were later given out to the children. She recalled when there were only two dolls left on the tree, she prayed that her two sisters would get them, but that did not happen. Grandmama's father did not believe that children should have Christmas or receive presents, she said.

When Grandmama was fifteen years old she started dating Rollie Guy Willingham. He was twenty five years old. There dates consisted of only attending church on Sundays, and that was it. Grandmama's dad did not like the age difference and so he told her to stop seeing him and he would take to church instead. Her dad knew she loved to go to church and did not want her to walk alone. She and her father went together, but it only lasted about a month. So she began to see Rollie Guy Willingham again. Her dad became furious at her and said she could not see him anymore. Grandmama said, she did not say another word about it.

Rollie Guy Willingham, called and known as Guy, but to me he was Grandad and I shall refer to him as Grandad herein. Grandad and Grandmama became married on February 9,1935. Grandmama's family was un ware of them getting married, only one block from where they were standing in the court house. Just being fifteen years old, my grandmother told the clerk a different story in order to get their marriage license. After they got married, they immediately caught a train out of town Ad spent the night on this train. The following morning they caught another train returning home the next day.

Grandmama's dad was very furious when he had found out that she and Grandad had married. He went to the clerks office to verify what he had heard. Two years later their first child was born. John Thomas Willingham was born in Portales, New Mexico. That same year, he was born, the crops were so bad The cotton had to be left in the field for the cattle to be turned in on it.

In 1938 many people everywhere had to let their fields go and move to town. Grandad had to move his family into Portales, New Mexico. In that same year Nancy Ann (Willingham) Stidham was born. Two years later Barbara Joyce (Willingham) Charlton was born. In 1941, this same year, Grandad started working for the railroad. The family had to move again. They moved to Clovis, New Mexico.

In 1945 my grandparents had their fourth child. Linda Sue (Willingham) Page. Grandmama said that was about all they had, four children when they moved to Brawley, California to work in the fields. Grandad had a heat stroke, and after only six months in Brawley, they moved to Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. Two more children were born. Charles Wayne Willingham was born in 1950 and David Lee Willingham was born in 1952. They then decided to give California another try and moved back to Brawley. Grandad worked in the cotton fields and was in charge of a crew. Grandmama also helped out in the fields whenever she was needed.

Grandad went into the Hay Contraction business in the year of 1954. He also built and began a church, know as the Full Gospel Church still today, in Brawley. Grandmama ran a bailer to help them conserve money and good help was unreliable. In 1955 Margaret Carol (Willingham) Parks was born. Two years later passed, their eighth and final child was born, Janice Kay (Willingham) Luallin.

In 1972 Grandad sold his hay contracting business to his son-in-law, Carl Stidham. Carl is married to his eldest daughter, Nancy Ann. Grandad passed away while he was preaching his Sunday evening sermon. This was a very devastating time not only for the family but for the church also. Tom Charlton, the husband of his daughter Barbara Charlton, then assistant pastor became the pastor, and continues to pastor the Full Gospel today. Grandmama kept herself busy raising her children. She wrote and still writes today beautiful poems, and short stories. She writes tons of letters and loves to talk to anyone about the Lord. She always makes quilts, Afghans, pot holders, and so many pretty hand made items.

In 1986 Grandmama married pastor, Ray Kelly. Grandmama has know Ray for thirty-eight years through his evangelistic ministry. They both live in Brawley and have lots of love in their hearts of gold.

LIDDY BARTHENIA BELL⁹ GOLDMAN (MARTIN COLUMBUS (LUM)⁸, MARTIN JAMES (POLK)⁷, MOSES (GOOLMAN)⁶, MARTIN⁵, MARTIN⁴, JOHANN GEORGE³, CONRAD², CONRAD¹) was born March 30, 1894 in Liberty Hill, Washington County, Arkansas, and died February 03, 1998 in Lincoln, Washington County, Arkansas *Buried at Academy Cemetery. She married ALEXANDER PRESTON DUNN April 03, 1912 in Stilwell, Adair County, Oklahoma, son of ALEXANDER DUNN and LUCINDA CHANDLER.

Notes for LIDDY BARTHENIA BELL GOLDMAN:

1 Linnie became the post mistress at the Evansville, Arkansas Post Office after her husband, Preston was moved to Fort Smith.

1 Aunt Linnie is our wild woman of the family because she ran a nudist colony at Evansville. I think that this was after Pres died. She pushed the limits on everything. It took the Arkansas State Legislature to close her nudist colony down. Once she needed more water for the camp and no one would help her so she through a stick of dynamite down the well and knocked out water all over the mountain. I think that she had several husbands in her lifetime and was a very wealthy woman. It is said that she had money in every bank around northwest Arkansas and owned loads of real estate around Fort Smith and Lincoln, AR.

1 When St Elmo's body was brought back after he was killed in WWII she pried open the casket to make sure it was him.

1 Preston's wife, Lowrence O'Keefe, refused to allow Linnie to bury him at Evansville at the Academy Cemetery even though the headstone says that he's buried there. He's buried at the National Cemetery at Fayetteville, Arkansas

1 Linnie died just 8 weeks before her 104th birthday. She had suffered two strokes and was unable to speak above a whisper or swallow. Her daughter, Lelah, said that she only weighed 54 lbs the day she died and was very literally skin and bone. I saw her the week before she died and she smiled at me with what appeared to be recognition.

MARTIN³, MARTIN² SR.GOLDMAN, JOHANN GEORGE¹ GOLDMAN) was born December 29, 1895 in Liberty Hill, Crawford County, Natural Dam, Arkansas, and died January 24, 1976 in Fayetteville, Washington County, Arkansas. He married (1) ALTA EPPERSON. She was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He married (2) RUBY JANE FORSYTH March 11, 1919 in Garland County, Arkansas, daughter of JAMES FORSYTH and MARY CLARK. She was born June 19, 1901 in Dalby Springs, Bowie County, Texas, and died March 14, 1948 in Fayetteville, Washington County, Arkansas.

Notes for CHARLES TOLBERT "CHAD" GOLDMAN:

CHARLES TOLBERT (CHAD)⁹ GOLDMAN (MARTIN COLUMBUS (LUM)⁸, MARTIN JAMES (POLK)⁷, MOSES (GOOLMAN)⁶, MARTIN⁵, MARTIN⁴, JOHANN GEORGE³, CONRAD², CONRAD¹)¹ was born December 29, 1895 in Liberty Hill, Washington County, Arkansas, and died January 24, 1976 in Fayetteville, Washington County, Arkansas - *Buried Academy Cemetery. He married (1) RUBY JANE FORSYTH¹ March 11, 1919 in Garland County, Arkansas, daughter of JAMES FORSYTH and MARY CLARK. He married (2) ALTA EPPERSON 1950 in Stilwell, Adair County, Oklahoma.

Notes for CHARLES TOLBERT (CHAD) GOLDMAN:

1 Grandpa Chad was a tall, blue eyed, gray headed older man before I ever knew him. I've since found out that he enlisted in the Army during WWI and was in Little Rock training when there was a large TB outbreak and he came down with the illness. The army sent him to Hot Springs to recover. That's about the time that he met and married Ruby Forsyth in Hot Springs. After Grandma Ruby passed away with cancer, he married Alta Epperson, who was waitressing in a restaurant near Evansville, Arkansas. She had children and grandchildren of her own in Oklahoma City. The grandson died in a car wreck. She also had a granddaughter that would visit some in the summer month's.

1 Chad had a substantial farm with a dairy and for a period of time he owned and operated a grocery store in Evansville, Arkansas. He had also sold cars in Stilwell with the Carson's and sold some real estate in the area. His best friend was suppose to be Buck Eads from over around Bell in Stilwell, OK.

1 He was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Cane Hill, Arkansas.

1 Grandpa Chad died with emphysema in the Veteran's Hospital in Fayetteville, Arkansas and is buried beside his first wife, Ruby "Forsyth" Goldman in the Academy Cemetery in Evansville.

Notes for RUBY JANE FORSYTH:

Notes for RUBY JANE FORSYTH:

1 According to the Buckner Orphanage records: The Forsyth girls were placed in the orphanage in Dallas, Texas after the death of her father James B. Forsyth in November 1905. Ruby would only have been 5 years old at the time. Her mother, Belle Clark Forsyth (in very poor health with heart and kidney problems) was on March 2, 1906 advised by the Baptist minister named J.M. Mizzell in Naples, Texas that the Buckner Orphanage was a place that could care for the children. On April 20, 1906 the final application papers were completed and sent to Dallas along with the statement of Dr J.M. Walls as to the physical condition of Belle Forsyth dated April 19, 1906. (NOTE: The letterhead on the doctor's statement says that "Walls and Smith" were druggists "not doctors".) Someone in Naples other than Belle took Clara, Myrtle, Ruby, and Maybelle to Dallas and turned them over to the founder and general manager R. C. Buckner on May 4, 1906. Apparently the founder of the orphanage was not there much of the time, but he was out soliciting funds (charity) to keep the orphanage open.

1 It didn't take long for Belle to miss the girls very much and she wrote to the Buckner Baptist Orphanage on May 8, 1906 appealing for work at the home so that she might be nearer the girls. She reiterated in her letter that she was not attempting to interfere in the workings of the orphanage, but that the children were her "last treasures" in life. She wanted to be near unless one of them became ill.

1 Belle stated in another letter on July 9th that if she could just be near the children she and her baby Opal could stop grieving so about the girls. She said she was poor and had to work no matter where she was living. It didn't matter whether she was in Dallas or Naples.

1 Buckner wrote back on July 23, 1906 that she could come and stay for a week and they would see if there might be some way that she could do some light work for her keep and become part of the "family" there. Clara, who would have been in the fourth grade at this time, had written to her mother pleading that she come and work in the sewing room at the orphanage so she could see the way they were being treated. On July 29th Belle sent another letter that stated she was quickly making preparations to come to Dallas and be with the girls at the orphanage.

1 When Belle got to Dallas she stayed only 3 days and left according to a note written on her letter in the file. The next letter that came dated on August 26, 1906 and to the attention of Buckner stated that she was coming back to take her girls out because they were not being properly cared for and that it was a mess at the orphanage. In her pitiful letter she assured Buckner that if he didn't want everyone to know what was going on in that home that he'd better let the children go back with her. She threatened to go to the law and to sue him if necessary. She gave Buckner 10 days to get her children cured of all disease.

1 Evidently, it made Minister Mizzell anxious and he wrote to the founder of the home on September 4, 1906 saying, "No one will take seriously the slanderous words of this widow," but that they should just let her have the girls back because she was their mother. He felt that because people "like to talk" that some would make much of her complaint. He added that he was sorry he had ever involved himself in the affair. The "blank" forms were completed and Mizzell saw to it that money was provided for the train fare to and from Dallas. He did however suggest that there would be a representative to investigate the home to clear up any disputes. Mizzell was planning to leave Naples for a new position in New Boston and invited Buckner to come and solicit funds for the home there.

1 Clara's eyes were so infected that she would crawl under her bed because the light hurt her so badly. She said the children didn't have regular meals and were told to "pray" for their food. They were covered with lice. Belle came on the train and took the girls out of the home without incident on September 6, 1906. She left Dallas on the same day. One of the girls had such bad sores on her legs that her stockings had to be soaked off after they got back to Naples.

1 The Buckner Orphanage is still in existence today, but it's called the Buckner Baptist Benevolences and is under the administration of Norman L. Lockett.

R.C Cambell is the President. Mr. Lockett was very helpful in providing our family with the documentation of all correspondence and records in their files in Dallas. Address: 5200 S. Buckner - Dallas, Texas 75227 Phone: (214) 328-3141

1 After Belle had placed Ruby in two different orphanages in Texas and Arkansas, she farmed her out to a family named "Mineer who lived in or near Hot Springs where she became a companion to their retarded son. Her sisters all went to other families. I don't know how much connection they had with each other at this time.

1 Those who knew Ruby said that, "There never was a better woman." According to Linnie's daughter, she was a "city girl" and had to learn everything about being a farm wife from scratch including cooking. She was a very small built woman with tiny feet (size 4), brown hair with red highlight's, and brown eyes.

He married DOROTHY DEAN FOWLER^{3,4} November 20, 1949 in Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas, daughter of WILLIAM FOWLER and NETTIE CRANFORD.

Notes for CHARLES RAY GOLDMAN: (by Butch) Charles was born in the early 20's and I wish I could tell you about his early years but I never heard him or his brother say anything about their early childhood. Growing up in the 30's was not the best of times in American to grow up but from all indications his father provided adequately for his family during this period. It would appear that Charles developed a strong sense of humor during this period from what other remember of him in his younger years. In the late 30's he joined the army and was sent to Washington state for his military training. In army he was trained in electronics supply field. Towards the end of his first enlistment World War II was declared and he ended up in England prior to the evasion of France. Once the evasion started he went across France and Germany with the support units. After the war he was discharged and was sent home to Evansville. Within a year he had reenlisted in the army and was sent to Japan. While in Japan his mother died and he was give leave to come home. Here he meet Dorothy Dean Fowler who he would later marry and have 7 children with. After coming back from Japan and marrying Dorothy, they moved to Fayetteville, Arkansas. Until his retirement in the early 60's he was stationed in Augsburg, Germany, Ft Chaffee Arkansas, Ft Leonard Wood Missouri, Ft Sam Huston Texas. He was very good at what he did in the army. He had been around army electronics from the early days and had become an expert in the field. After a year of trying to be a farmer and a period of time as a salesman for Jim Walter Homes, TRW roofing materials, he went into business for himself. He built a small service station on the state line of Arkansas Oklahoma. He added groceries and then a garage onto the business. It was a mom and pop type of business and everyone chipped in. He also build a quarter horse race track which did very well for a period of time. By the late 60's Charles and Dorothy's marriage ended. Charles turned the garage part of his business into a Beer Club. He also sold packaged beer out of the old service station. In the early 70's a fire destroyed the Club and he ran another Club outside of Lincoln, Arkansas for a short period of time. He then settled back into life at Evansville selling beer until he was in his early 60's. In retirement he made an attempt at writing and had a book of short humors stories published. He loved to fish and could catch more fish with his spin cast real than his father-in-law could eat, which was no easy feat. He also love baseball, especially St Louis Cardinal baseball. In his mid 70's his health started to decline. He passed away after a short illness from complications with his lungs.

Notes for DOROTHY DEAN FOWLER:

Notes for DOROTHY DEAN FOWLER: (by Butch) Dorothy was a very attractive woman and she was involved in a number of activities in school such as basketball. Her younger years were spent moving around with her parents. They lived in northern California and Kansas City among other places. After World War II her family settled in Evansville, Arkansas. It was there that she meet Charles Ray Goldman while he was on emergency leave from Japan because of the death of his mother. In 1949 they married. The first couple of years of married life was spent living in Fayetteville, Arkansas where Charles was an army advisor to the local Army Reserve unit. By the time she was in her early 20's she took herself and her three young children to Germany where Charles had been transferred. She indicated that she enjoyed the life of an army wife. In the early 60's Charles retired from the army and the family had now grown to 5 children. After a year of farming Charles decided that he would try running a business. Dorothy worked in the grocery store most of the day. Most of the house work by that time was being done by the daughters. Two more daughter were born during this period. In the late 60's she took employment in Stilwell, Oklahoma working in the one of the newly formed war on poverty agencies as a bookkeeper/contract specialist. In 1969 her father passed away and a few months later she left Charles. She took care of her mother who's health started to decline almost immediately after the death of her husband. After her mother passed away, she moved to Lincoln, Arkansas. She also took a position at the Watts, Oklahoma Public Schools as a bookkeeper and kept that job until she retired due to illness just prior to her own death. Dorothy loved politics and was a strong supporter of the Democratic party and all it's candidates. She also liked Arkansas Razorback football and basketball games.
