In Memoriam - :Thou shalt go to thy father in peace:

Thou shalt be buried in a good old age.”

It is with sadness we pen this tribute to the memory of one of our beloved dead. At the noontide of May 14, 1906, the angel of death came and released from toil and suffering Brother Rufus Seay. He had lived to a ripe old age, the exact year of his birth not being known on account of the family record having been destroyed during his early life. He was somewhere near 76 years old. Shortly after the war he was married to Miss Jennie Kimbrough and seven children blessed their union, five of whom are living. Uncle Rufe was a good friend, a kind neighbor and a loving husband and father. He was true to his country and faithful to his Lodge, having been a Mason some fifty years. As such we will ever remember him and assure Mrs. Seay that we will ever assist her and regard her as our sister and we pray that we may so live that when death comes to us we may be ready and all meet in that Celestial City where all is joy. His remains were tenderly and carefully laid to rest in the Dutch Mills cemetery by his brethren of the Masonic Order. Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call from the walks of men, by the angel of death, our beloved Brother, Rufus Seay, to a nobler and brighter world than this, therefore be it. Resolved, That we of the brotherhood of the Masonic fraternity of the Dutch Mills Lodge extend to the heart broken wife and children our sympathy and condolence in their sad bereavement, commending them to Him whose grace is sufficient in all hours of need, and a copy of this memorial be sent to them. Resolved further, That this brotherhood wear the usual badge of mourning and that a copy of these resolutions be published in the Prairie Grove Herald and a copy be spread in the minutes. (Signed) J.A. English, M.B. McCarty, J.R. Weber – Committee [Prairie Grove Herald 5/31/1906]
