These Hands

I'm proud of them - these hands of mine;
So many things they've done.
They've planted flowers, and pulled the weeds,
And worked out in the sun.

They've kneaded bread and cooked the meals
More times than I can say.
They've washed a ton of clothes, I guess,
And put them all away.

They've soothed a small child's fevered brow
And rubbed an aching head.
And when the evening shadows fell,
They put the brood to bed.

They've borne the bite of winter's cold
And felt the warmth of spring.
And on one finger long ago
Was put a wedding ring.

And when my journey here is o'er,
I still shall thankful be

That old worn-hands of
Have much for these worn mine done so me.
