God's Garden

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place,

He then looked down upon this earth,
and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering;
He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and
the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

Postlude Music

We little knew that morning that God
was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you,

the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,

your love is still our guide;

and though we cannot see you,

you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

and nothing seems the same;

but as God calls us

one by one, the Chain

will link again.
