

Imogene Hutchison Delap died June 6, 2018. She was born November 8, 1921 in Aledo, Oklahoma, the firstborn child of William McKinley Hutchison and Bertha Fred Hutchison. She was preceded in death by her parents, her two brothers, Curtis R. Hutchison and Dale O. Hutchison, and her husband of 62 years, Darwin D. Delap whom she married at the Prairie Grove Baptist Church in February, 1943.

For most of her adult life she was a homemaker and volunteered as a consultant with the Southern Baptist Convention's Sunday School Board teaching library science to prospective church librarians in Glorieta, New Mexico, and Ridgecrest, North Carolina. For many years during retirement she was the church librarian at First Baptist Church in Fayetteville.

She is survived by her daughter, Dale Delap Beals, her son, John, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.
