

Dillon Clifford Dexter

Age 92, a resident of Prairie Grove, went to be with his Lord on Thursday, December 29, 2016 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville. He was born December 7, 1924 in Cohasset, Minnesota, the son of Warren and Hazel Dexter.

Dillon retired as Lieutenant Commander after 29 years of service in the United States Navy. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Prairie Grove. Although he grilled the best beef and pork imaginable, he was a friend to animals both wild and domesticated. He was also a devoted husband who nursed his wife through nearly ten years of Alzheimers in their home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Mary Lee Dexter and three brothers Eugene, Delbert and Dennis.

Survivors include his son, Greg Dexter of Fayetteville; sister-in-law Bobbie June Peters of Fayetteville; his good friends Kenny and Cheryl Collinge of Cohasset, Minnesota, and Dorothy Cox Hector of Fayetteville; several special nieces, nephews, neighbors and friends.

Dillon Dexter

December 7, 1924 - December 29, 2016

He will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth. Isaiah 25: 8

Call to Worship: Isaiah 40: 28-31

One: Have you not known? Have you not heard?

All: The Lord is the everlasting god, the Creator of the ends of the earth.

One: He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.

All: Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted;

One: but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings
like eagles,

All: they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Hymn #562 Eternal Father, Strong to Save (blue hymnal, PH 1990)

Pastoral Prayer & Lord's Prayer Traditional (blue p. 16):

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us of our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

First Reading: Job 1: 20-21
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15: 54-58

Remembering: you are invited to share your memories of Dillon.

Meditation Reverend John King

Gloria Patri: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end,
Amen, Amen.

Apostles Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

Hymn #276 Great Is Thy Faithfulness
(blue hymnal)

He Richards/Mullan, 1954

He can turn the tides and calm the angry sea.
He alone decides who writes a symphony.
He lights every star that makes our darkness bright.
He keeps watch all through each long and lonely night.
He still finds the time to hear a child's first prayer.
Saint or sinner call and always find Him there.
Though it makes him sad to see the way we live,
He'll always say, "I forgive."
