God's Garden

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place,

He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering;
He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

The Rose Beyond The Wall

A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches,
straight and tall....

One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide --
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond
to the other side....

Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted — the rose blooms there --
Its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.
