

Weston Leeroy Fitts

21, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away Tuesday, May 22, 2018 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born September 15, 1996 in Rogers, Arkansas, the son of Cliff and April (McCall) Fitts.

Weston graduated from Prairie Grove High School where he was active in football and basketball. He graduated top of his class from Northwest Technical Institute. He loved hanging out with his friends and family, coyote hunting, shooting skeet, playing horseshoes, four wheeling, floating rivers and just hanging out on an ole dirt road. He loved to wrench on anything from four-wheelers, street bikes to old farm tractors. He was an avid welder and loved the sound of a cummins rollin' coal and riding wheelies at mach speed.

Weston was just a hard working good ole' country boy that just enjoyed life. Loved what he was doin' and doin' what he loved.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Sherall Dean McCall and one uncle Coy Fitts.

Survivors include his father Cliff Fitts; his mother April McCall; one brother Justin Fitts; one sister Haylee Fitts all of Prairie Grove; Grandparents Roy and Vera Fitts of Farmington and Mary McCall of Bethel Heights.
