GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place,

He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering;
He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned

And remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken;

Remember some good I have done.

Forget that I ever had heartaches

And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered

And sometimes fell by the way.

Remember I have fought some hard battles

And won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going.

I would not have you sad for a day.

But in summer just gather some flowers

And remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening

When the sun paints the sky in the west.

Stand for a few moments beside me

And remember only my best.
