

William "Bill" Clark Griscom
85, a lifetime resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away Wednesday, October 26, 2022 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born April 7, 1937 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, the son of Clark Harlan and Margaret Frances (Pitts) Griscom.

Bill was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Lincoln, Arkansas, where he served as an Elder. He had been a Gideon, a member of the American Legion, the Ozarks Cattleman's Association and Telephone Pioneers Partner. Bill was a carpenter in his early years and was an apple and cattle farmer.

Bill was one of the last "old" apple growers from Lincoln. The Griscom family had apple orchards in the Lincoln area for nearly 100 years. Bill loved raising cattle and probably loved talking about raising cattle even more. Bill had never met a stranger.

He was preceded in death by his father Clark Griscom, his mother Margaret P. Griscom Barkman, and step-father Carl Barkman, and one sister Shirley Griscom Reeves.

Survivors include his loving wife of 33 years Barbara Louise Griscom; three nieces Debbie Kimes and her husband Steve, Sarah Bock and her husband Dan, and Suzanne Brooks and her husband Nat; and several great nieces and nephews.

Perhaps Today

Perhaps at cool of morning when
The day is breaking light;
Perhaps at noontide's hour, or
'Midst gathering shades of night

I'll see a burst of glory, and
The angel's voice I'll hear;
The trumpet's golden throat will sound
The summons loud and clear!

Then suddenly - I'll see the Lord!
I'll meet Him face to face...
The Lord of all the universe
The Lord of truth and grace!

My cup of bliss will overflow;
I'll see Him as He is!
What joy to place my hand within
That nail-scarred hand of His!

Perhaps today will be the day
I'll hear His welcomed voice!
Perhaps today I'll see the Lord
And evermore rejoice!

Precious Memories

Precious memories unseen angels, sent from somewhere to my soul;
How they linger ever near me, And the sacred past unfold.
Precious memories, how they linger, how they
ever flood my soul;
In the stillness of the midnight, Precious
sacred scenes unfold.

Precious Father, loving mother, Fly across
the lonely years;
And old home scenes of my childhood, In fond memory appears Precious memories, how they linger, how they
ever flood my soul;
In the stillness of the midnight, Precious
sacred scenes unfold.

As I travel on life's pathway, Know not what the years may hold;
As I ponder hope grows fonder, Precious memories flood my soul.
Precious memories, how they linger, how they
ever flood my soul;
In the stillness of the midnight, Precious
sacred scenes unfold
