Martha Guthrie

September 29, 1943 - May 31, 2020

She is clothed with strength and dignity;
 she can laugh at
 the days to come.
 She speaks with wisdom,
 and faithful instruction
 is on her tongue.
 She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
 Her children arise
 and call her blessed;
 her husband also,
 and he praises her:
 "Many women do noble things,
 but you surpass them all."
 Charm is deceptive,
 and beauty is fleeting;
 but a woman who
 fears the Lord is to be praised.
 Honor her for all that her hands have done,
 and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Proverbs 31:25-31

For Those I Love and Those who Love Me
 When I am gone, release me, let me go
 I have so many things to see and do.
 You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
 Be thankful for our beautiful years.
 I gave to you my love. You can only guess
 How much you gave to me in happiness.
 I thank you for the love each has shown,
 But it's time I traveled alone.
 So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
 Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
 It's only for a time we must part.
 So bless the memories within your heart.
 I won't be far away, for life goes on
 So if you need me, Call and I will come.
 Though you can't see or touch me,
 I'll be near.
 And if you listen with your heart,
 you'll hear
 All my love around you soft and clear.
 And then, when you must come this way along, I'll Greet you with a smile, and say

"Welcome Home"
