

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

These Hands

I'm proud of them - these hands of mine;
So many things they've done.
They've planted flowers, and pulled the weeds,
And worked out in the sun.

They've kneaded bread and cooked the meals
More times than I can say.
They've washed a ton of clothes, I guess,
And put them all away.

They've soothed a small child's fevered brow
And rubbed an aching head.
And when the evening shadows fell,
They put the brood to bed.

They've borne the bite of winter's cold
And felt the warmth of spring.
And on one finger long ago
Was put a wedding ring.

And when my journey here is o'er,
I still shall thankful be
That these old worn-worn hands of mine
Have done so much for me.
