Celebrating

THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Ken Harvey

July 1, 1941 - October 14, 2022

Today I Went to Heaven

My heart is so full of joy today, that's because I'm in Heaven to stay,
Not just to visit or vacation you see,
but with Jesus for all eternity.
I know I fought hard to stay longer on earth but that was before I knew Heaven's real worth.

Oh my loved ones, if you only could see,
how happy it is up here for me,
you would never grieve or shed a tear, but only with that you were here.

The journey of death I somewhat did fear, but Jesus helped me and was always near.
There is no more sorrow or pain to bear, just happiness and joy to share.

Don't grieve or sorrow my loved ones dear,
I was not cheated of life as I feared.
Jesus has shown me eternal gain, for all of the sadness, heartache, and pain.

Praise GOD for Jesus that died on the tree, and made all this possible for you and for me.

It is not goodbye my loved ones dear, but only farewell till you get here.

You and My Old Guitar

I could never be lonely
I could never be blue
As I go through life if only I have my guitar and you

Why should I ever worry
Why should I be sad
We travel along in a hurry
Sharing the good and the bad

Whenever I'm up, you're near me Giving me happiness
And when I'm down, you cheer me
Nothing is better than this
