

Fred E Holden

81, a resident of West Fork, Arkansas, passed away Monday, February 11, 2019 at Willard Walker Hospice Home in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born May 7, 1937 in Woolsey, Arkansas, the son of Jasper Lee and Annie Bell (Byrum, Clark) Holden.

Fred served in the United States Air Force with over seas deployments in France and Germany.

After being discharged, Fred worked in the flooring trade with his brother Jason Holden. He went on to becoming a residential building contractor, and developed numerous properties around Northwest Arkansas. Fred and Naomi owned a sizeable farm on Cove Creek for 30 years. They were an integral part of the valley community, and could always be relied on to help neighbors, friends, and passing strangers in need. Fred was an avid outdoorsman, and taught members of two generations the skills of what he enjoyed so much.

Fred also mentored many men of various ages in the disciplines of building, quiet integrity, straight forward conduct, and not brag too much on what you caught or shot.

He was preceded in death by his wife Naomi Marie Hughes Holden, his parents, two sisters Viola Geneva (Jean) Chase and Bettie Faulkenberry, three brothers JD Clark, Kenneth Clark, and Jason Holden.

Survivors include his daughter Lori Toher and husband Joe of West Fork; chosen son Jason Reynolds of Eufaula, Oklahoma; two grandchildren; one brother Leon Allen Holden and wife Brandy of Texas; a large number of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Successful Man

“That man is a success –
who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children;
who has filled his niche
and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it;
who has never lacked appreciation of earth’s beauty
or failed to express it.;
who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had.”

What price for the promise,
For the flash of the fish
Sliding through the dark water
As it’s bent to your wish?

What price for the calm
Of the water’s restored
When the fish’s been caught
And you sit still once more?

What price for the rays
In the heat of the day
When old bones are warmed
And Children run and play?

What price for an evening
And the setting of sun,
When tired bones can rest
And the day’s work is done?

What price for the night
When all’s quiet and still,
With only the shrill call
Of a lonesome Whip O’ Will?

What price for the morn
When sleepers again arise,
To another day’s dawning
to get another sunrise?
