Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Patsy Ruth Kirby

July 21, 1939 - April 9, 2022

Suppertime

Come home, come home, it's suppertime
the shadows they lengthen fast.
Come home, come home, it's suppertime
We're going home at last.

You know, some of the fondest memories of my childhood were woven around suppertime.
When Mom would come to the back steps of the old home place and she'd say,
"Child, come on in, it's suppertime.

Oh my how I'd love to hear that once more, but you know, time has woven the realization of the truth that is even more thrilling and that's when the Lord comes to the Portals Of Glory and says to come on in, for it's suppertime.

And we'll be gathered around the table of the Lord himself and the greatest suppertime of them all.

In visions now I see her standing yonder and her familiar voice I hear once more.

the banquet table's ready up in Heaven.
Oh it's suppertime upon the Golden Shore.

We're going home at last!

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.
