
Dalton (D.J.) "Superman" Lacey

20 a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, went to be with his Lord on Monday, October 11, 2010 at Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Arkansas. He was born on July 8, 1990 in Springdale, Arkansas, the son of Mitchell (Sonny) and Julie A. Carr Lacey.

D.J. graduated from Prairie Grove High School in 2009 and was currently a student at Arkansas Career Training Institute in Hot Springs, Arkansas. He adored his family and everyone at ACTI where he will be very missed and always loved accepted and remembered. He was a true fighting Tiger, he loved supporting the Prairie Grove football teams, cheering on his brothers. He loved NASCAR, monster trucks and fixing cars.

He was the oldest living Hypoplastic Left Heart patient at Children's Hospital, who took care of him for 20 years. He made such an impression on the nurses and doctors from 20 years ago that they still kept in touch with him. He was not only a pioneer in surviving heart defects, but a true gift from God. Hearts all over the world from Japan to Australia broken from his loss, but just as many from just as far away were healed because of what he allowed doctors to learn from his condition. People always told him he had an old soul in his eyes. He knew this day would come, he was only waiting for his body to catch up to his soul. D.J. walked with God so many times and this time could not leave God's side to come back to us. This journey is complete he is safe and healthy and happy with our Father in Heaven.

Survivors include his father and mother of the home; one sister, Tira Lacey Swafford of Springdale, Arkansas; two brothers, Braiden Lacey and Jacob Lacey both of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one niece, Chloe Mae Swafford of Springdale, Arkansas; grandparents, Mitchell and Joyce Lacey of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, Virginia Roberts of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Catherine and Joe Carlock of Rogers, Arkansas, Delmas and Christine Carr of Indiana, two great grandmothers, Bondola Lacey of Prairie Grove, Arkansas and Cassie Car of Virginia, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
