

Coy Gerald McKee

86, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away April 20th, 2020 at his home. He was born February 25th, 1934 in Prairie Grove, Arkansas, the son of Garland and Florence (Kilgore) McKee.

Coy was a veteran who served in Germany from 1955-1957. He returned home to his beautiful wife Della and achieved his degree at Okmulgee Tech and pursued his career as an electrician. He was a master electrician and member IBEW, local 700 for 50 years. He also was a devoted cattle and chicken farmer. He always saw the good in everyone and was a leader in the community. Including Illinois Chapel Church, where he served as deacon, Sunday school and music leader. He loved the Lord Jesus Christ and studied the scripture diligently. He was an amazing husband, father, grandfather and brother.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother Jerry McKee and two sisters Willene Self and Helen Littleton.

Survivors include his wife of 64 years Della (Smith) McKee; one son Dewain McKee and his wife Leann of Farmington, Arkansas; one daughter Karla Gray and her husband Bill of Bryant, Arkansas; one sister Maralea Eames of Jenks, Oklahoma; five Grandchildren: Travis McKee, Whitney (Marcus) McCash, Brooke (Clint) Bagley, Matthew (Sara) Gray, Megan (Seth) Alkire, and 7 great grandchildren.

“THE MEANING OF TRUE LOVE”

It is sharing & caring,
Giving & forgiving,
Loving & being loved,
Walking hand in hand,
Talking heart to heart,
Seeing through each others eyes,
Laughing together,
Weeping together,
Praying together,
and always trusting and believing and thanking God
for each other.
For love that is shared is a beautiful thing.

Love on our anniversary
Della

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
