

Jon S McKillop

75, a resident of Farmington, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, January 4, 2020 in Farmington, Arkansas. He was born September 5, 1944 in Des Moines, Iowa, the son of Warren Stowe and Florine (Riis) McKillop.

Jon McKillop began his working career as a radio disc jockey, for KDMI in Des Moines Ia., but quickly joined with the Union Pacific Railroad. His devoted 20 years to the Union Pacific starting out as a brakeman and quickly becoming an Engineer. He was proud to have driven the GW #75 engine for the movie Centennial going from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal to the movie set on the Platt River. He later moved back to Des Moines Ia. with his young family to become an entrepreneur with Green and Growing Tree Service. His attention to detail and love for his work quickly kept his business growing. He later retired in Farmington Arkansas where he lived and made his home.

Jon McKillop was an avid reader of history, politics and newspapers and loved being a Trump supporter. His true loves are his five children, his grandchildren and great grandchild. He will always be remembered and dearly missed.

He was preceded in death by one grandson Hunter McKillop.

Survivors include five children: Lindsay McKillop of Chicago, Illinois, Cyndi McKillop of Depew, Oklahoma, Jonathan McKillop and his wife Amber of Farmington, Arkansas, Richard S. McKillop and his wife Alicia of Evans Mills, New York, and Cory McKillop of Chicago, Illinois; eleven grandchildren Kayleigh, Presley, Braydon, Landon, Autumn, Summer, Warren, Parker, Sawyer and Archer McKillop; one great grandchild Kaiston Ludwig.

Reminiscing on the times we shared,
They seem to have all flown by.
Like the talks we had, and the stories you told,
The times we laughed, the times we cried.

I remember the jokes you told me,
And how every once in awhile,
Your eyes would sparkle brightly,
Lighting up the room with your smile.

Sometimes now I wish,
I could turn back the hands of time,
I would have spent much more time with you,
Would've been able to say goodbye.

It seems so unfair to me
That God would choose your time with us
to end,
When you were such a wonderful person,
A grandpa, a daddy, a friend.

But we do not know God's plans,
Why he does the things he does,
Why you are now in Heaven,
And not down here with us.

Without your presence in our lives,
Things will never be the same,
You won't be here by my side,
Won't answer when I call your name.

You are now with our Heavenly Father,
Which is the best place to ever be,
Your pain is gone, your problems healed,
Reunited with your family.

And even though your no longer with us,
In spirit you are still here.
Smiling, and watching over us,

As our guardian angel, seeing every laugh, every smile, every tear.

I Am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life
"Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God;
believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

John 14:1-5
