AMAZING GRACE

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His Word my hope secures;
He will my Shield and Portion be,
As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

A Celebration of the Life of

Glynn Elaine Brock
Nations

May 24, 1951 - March 7, 2019

The Nightingale
by Vivian Ross

My Mother,

Precious nightingale,
you are now free in Heaven
to sing and praise our Lord without a worldly care.

I hope that GOD in all His Might will in a dream let me see how He now in His arms holds and fills you with Eternal Joy and Peace.

To see you laugh
and hear you sing
in God's presence is my dream.

To My Sister...
By Allison Chambers Coxsey

I'm blessed to call you sister,

I also call you friend;

You've loved me unconditionally,
And stood through thick and thin.
You've shared my joys and sorrows,

My laughter and my tears.

You've been my inspiration,

As we grew up through the years.

When we were little children

We laughed and played together;

Then growing up you stood by me,

Through good and stormy weather.

There's something God has given us,

That's more than family;

He's placed a love for you, my

Sister,

Deep down in the heart of me
