

Rose Lee Pense, also known by most as Sam. Rose was born on March 11th of 1960 to John and Evelyn Pense who has now gone to be with their Lord. She joins her Sister, Polly Ann Phelan in life Eternal and awaits the arrival of her Sister, Susie Perry of Prairie Grove Arkansas and Brother Ronnie Pense of Lincoln Arkansas.

Sam was a very special woman. In spite of her disabilities, she always took time to engage with those around her. She didn't complain when hardships came, which often they did, but rather wore a smile everywhere she went. She was always an active part in her siblings lives and shared in the raising of their children, rather setting with them for moments or playing outside with them until she was tuckered out. She loved her family with all of her heart.

Some of what Sam loved were the holidays together where she would often sneak the goodies while waiting on the Main course to get done in hopes that Noone would notice....although it was to be expected every year. Sam also loved to play with her dogs who were some of her best friends, watch Gibbs on TV, who was her favorite actor, and collect Elvis merchandise. She had many interest, but none that compared to spending time with her family. She was loved and will be missed by many.

The days passed by so quickly
It seems we knew you but a few
So many memories were captured
Of our moments spent with you

You always had a smile
You never showed your pain
Your whole life was a trial
But you never did complain.

You made sunshine from raindrops
Sky's of blue from shades of grey
You were a different kind of special
Perfect to us in every way

Now your life has changed forever
You're not deaf to anything
I can't imagine what it was like
When you first heard the angels sing

There's no more void of understanding
No more struggling to comprehend
No more worries of tomorrow
For tomorrow never ends...

One can only wonder about
The joy upon your face
When you saw the King of glory
And felt your families warm embrace

What it must have been like
As you entered that fair land
Talking to the savior
As He held you by the hand

So much celebrating
Is going on for you up there
And we're so happy for you
Though our grief we do bear

We will hold on to the memories
That you left behind
As we await the moment
When at last it is our time

And together we will join you
Around that great white throne
Evermore to rejoice
At last, we've made it home
