

Cindy Pharr

Age 65, a resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, January 23, 2020 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born March 1, 1954 in Fairbanks, Alaska, the daughter of John R. Collins Jr. and Dorothea (Jean) Collins.

Cindy graduated from the University of Arkansas with an Animal Science degree. She worked as a poultry hatchery manager for over 20 years. After she stopped working, she continued to pour her love and life into her daughter Jennifer, driving her to the horse barn every day for lessons and taking her to horse shows. One of Cindy's greatest joys was serving for over 40 years as the Treasurer of the Association of Northwest Arkansas Riding Clubs (ANWARC), as well as announcing their horse shows. She also loved going to Trace Adkins concerts with her friends. Cindy was a devoted wife, Mom, and Grammy to her grandsons Titus and Jax, whom she adored.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Survivors include her husband of 43 years Gene Pharr; one daughter Dr. Jennifer Cheatham and her husband Brad; two grandchildren Titus and Jax Cheatham; her mother-in-law Betty Pharr; one sister-in-law Joyce Bradley and her husband Edward.

now I can run on the wind my skin like a velvet shiver on the breeze my hoofs passing over the grass in leaps too great to be measured my mane tumbling like the boiling clouds you will feel my breath in the warmth of summer you will hear my heart beat in the sounds of the sky now I can run in these great wide rolling hills of time I am truly free here in the spaces of your heart

THE LORDS PRAYER

Our father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

May Memories Comfort You

One who has lived
Never truly dies,
But crosses a bridge into the next life where all is beautiful and peaceful,
and the breeze
always whispers of lasting love.

May it ease your sadness a bit to know that your precious memories will always be a bridge between this world and the next,
between your loved ones and you.
