

Celebrating a Legacy of Love

Jerry's journey began December 5, 1955.

He worked at the University of Arkansas for 41 years in Facilities Management.

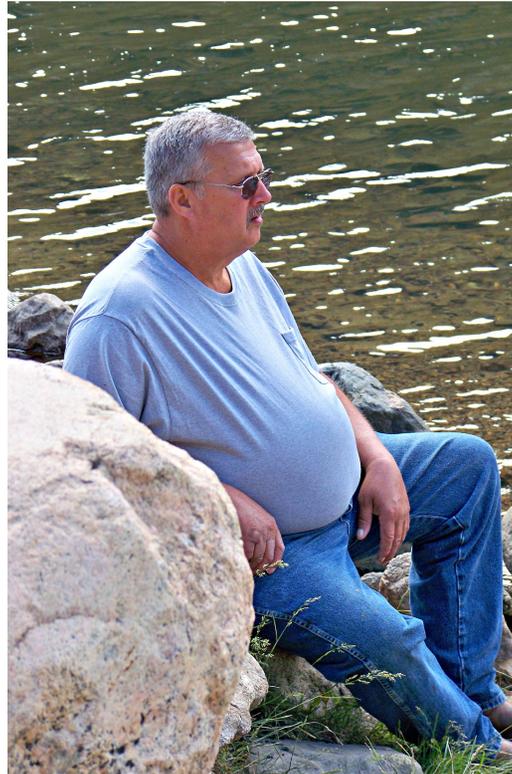

He married the love of his life, Marcia, in 1976. They began their family two years later and had four children, Jenniffer Johnson, Jerry Wayne, Jillian Foster, and Jonathan.

Over time they were given the titles of Papa and Nana by six grandchildren, Keegan, Jerron, Hannah, Kennedy, Hailey, and Kaden. Jerry will forever be adored by his grandkids.

He loved serving others, making people laugh, spending time with family, and "knocking around" the farm.

Jerry also enjoyed working with "the guys" in his shop at the University. He especially loved playing cards, hosting dinners, and playing pranks with them.

He went home to meet Jesus and those who preceded him in death: his momma, two sons, and one grandson, on July 3, 2017.

"Papa was always a funny guy. When we would listen to music he would make up new lyrics. I could always count on Papa to make me laugh when I was having a bad day."

~Hannah

"I can no longer see you with my eyes or touch you with my hands but I will feel you in my heart forever."

~Kennedy (a.k.a lil' bit)

"My papa was a strong man. Nothing could stop him. He touched so many lives and every one loved and honored him. He was a man of few words. Papa loved all of us kids and Nana."

~Hailey

"Papa always played with me and always took good care of us. I will miss him so much."

~Kaden

"Papa was a good man and a great mentor for me and several others. I will never forget the memories we made." "Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. Joshua 1:9"

~Keegan

"10-4 Backdoor, Over and Out"~ Papa

"I don't know, do you know"~Papa

Remember Me

Remember me when flowers bloom

Early in the spring

Remember me on sunny days

In the fun that summer brings

Remember me in the fall

As you walk through the leaves of gold

And in the wintertime-remember me

In the stories that are told

But most of all remember

Each day-right from the start

I will be forever near

For I live within your heart
