

Bryan Hoyt Reed

On April 7, 1925, John Hoyt and Rosa Spinks Reed welcomed a son into their home. They named him Bryan Hoyt Reed. He was born in Cane Hill, Arkansas where he lived most of his life. Since his graduation, in 1943 from Cane Hill High School, now known as the historic Cane Hill College, where he was the oldest living graduate until his death.

Bryan was probably best known as the "Apple Man" in his red pickup truck. He had owned and operated apple orchards in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas and was the owner and operator of Apple Town Fruit Stand in Lincoln. Bryan was a farmer and had received awards for the farmer of the year and best turkey producer. He had served on the Lincoln School Board, Farmers Cooperative Board and was co founder of Today's Bank.

Bryan passed away October 21, 2019 at the age of 94. His big smile, loud voice and uncompromising honesty and integrity will be missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his first wife Ruth, one son Billy Joe Reed, one daughter Gloria Gibbs and one sister Billie Kidd.

Survivors include his wife Jane Waters Reed; two daughters Janice Martin of Prairie Grove and Carlita Drennan of Fredericksburg, Virginia; five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

THE LORDS PRAYER

Our father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in
green pastures:
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence
of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and
mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
