The Rose Beyond The Wall

A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it sprang its branches,
straight and tall....

One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide -- The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side....

Now, you who deeply feel its loss, be comforted — the rose blooms there -- Its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the Boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place

The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
