Beyond the Sunset

Should you go first, and I remain,
to walk the road alone.

I'll Live in memories garden,
dear, with happy days known.

In spring I'll wait for roses
red, when faded, the lilacs blue.

In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first, and I remain,
for battles to be fought.

Each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot.

I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho blindly I may grope.

The memory of your helping hand
will bouy me on with hope.

Should you go first, and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do.

Walk slowly down that long,
long, path, for soon I'll follow you.

I want to know each step you take, so I may take the same.

For some day down that lonely
road, you'll hear me call your name.
