

Mary Alice Storms

91, passed away July 28, 2018. She was the only child of Robert and Alice McManaway. She was born on July 1, 1927 in Kansas City, KS. Growing up there she was a child prodigy, playing the accordion on the radio and in several bands. She attended the Rosedale Congregational Church in Kansas City, that her grandfather helped build. She was also baptized there, married there and had her three sons baptized there. She married William (Bill) Henry Storms from Pleasant Hill, MO, on June 14, 1947. After several moves, in 1961 they bought a farm in the Greenland/Prairie Grove area. She lived on the farm until several years ago, when poor health required her to move in with her son in Siloam Springs, AR.

Mary Alice was noted for her zest for life. Nearly everyone who met her, instantly wanted to be adopted into our family. She was the center for our entire family. She was respectfully given the title of "Queen Mother". Her biggest passions were her three sons, seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. She also loved to travel, it did not matter where. She was always ready to go. Her talent for playing many instruments was amazing and her desire for playing music never left her. Even at 90, she still played a couple of songs with an accordion band.

Eventually, Mary Alice lost a long battle to stomach cancer. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband Bill Storms. She is survived by her three sons, Steven Storms, Tacoma, WA; Michael Storms, Springdale, AR; Patrick Storms, Siloam Springs, AR; her seven grandchildren, David Storms, Springdale; Dr. Darrin Storms, Springdale; Shannon Storms Provident, Covington, WA; Robert (Drew) Storms, Mill Creek, WA; Jarrod Storms, Siloam Springs; Daniel Storms, Fayetteville; Rob Storms, Springdale; great-grandchildren, Colin Provident, Covington, WA; Will Storms, Springdale; Jaxon Storms, Mill Creek, WA; Sarah Storms, Springdale; Austin (AJ) Storms, Mill Creek, WA; Whitley Storms, Springdale, Simon Storms, Fayetteville and a multitude of other family members and friends. She will be missed by many, but will join the many that preceded her.

APPRECIATION

Treasured Seasons

For everything
there is an appointed
season,
And a time for everything
under heaven -

A Time for sowing,
a time for reaping,
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
a time for giving,
A time for remembering,
a time for parting,
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything you do
remains forever.
