

C.A. Strange

81, of West Fork, passed away on May 18, 2022, at Willard Walker Hospice in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born on January 18, 1941, in Memphis, Tennessee, the son and only surviving child of Curtis and Christine Strange of Osceola, Arkansas. Both of his parents preceded him in death.

C.A. is survived by his wife and love of 38 years, Diana McKee Strange; his youngest daughter Lonnie Strange of Jacksonville, Arkansas; his oldest daughter Stacy Dickson (Tony) of Paragould, Arkansas; and his son Curt Strange (Ember); and grandchildren Ava, Cole, and Mitch of Conway, Arkansas. He leaves behind many family members and friends who will miss him. C.A. also leaves behind two special furry friends, Boo Radley and Bobby Lee, who were his constant companions.

C.A. was a native of Osceola, Arkansas, and grew up in the Delta town, where he was a celebrated athlete. He graduated from Arkansas State University, where he played football and baseball for the ASU Indians. He played semi-professional baseball for the Osceola Indians for two years until, as he said, "life got in the way of my baseball." He worked for American Greetings Corporation in Osceola for 24 years, and in 1989 he retired and relocated with his family to West Fork. He worked for Fayetteville Public Schools for several years before he decided to enter full retirement. C.A. was a very private person who was devoted to his home and his family. He maintained close ties with the Arkansas Delta throughout his life and returned as often as possible to visit people and places he held dear. C.A. was of the Baptist faith and a veteran of the U.S. Air Force.

Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

C.A. Strange

January 18, 1941 - May 18, 2022

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the Boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place

The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
