A Cowboy's Prayer

Oh Lord, I've never lived where churches grow.

I love creation better as it stood.

That day You finished it so long ago.

And looked upon your work and called it good.

Just let me live my life as I've begun.

And give me work that's open to the sky;

Make me a partner of the wind and sun,

And I won't ask a life that's soft or high.

Just keep an eye on all that's done and said

Just right me, sometimes, when I turn aside,

And guide me on the long,

dim trail ahead,

That stretches upward toward the Great Divide.

"Dear Lord, Keep Our Cowboys and Cowgirls"

Dear Lord, Keep all cowboys and cowgirls safe
As they travel the highways from place to place
Help them to smile when the going gets rough

When the loop doesn't catch and the cutting is tough

When you run through the poles and they all fall down

And the steer gets away when your feet hit the ground

When the broncs and the bulls never let you ride

The fall takes your breath and you get gouged in the side

When the goat gets up and you've blown your barrel run

And you team partner misses it takes away all the fun

Dear Lord, remember us parents, we need guidance, too

The judges and flaggers—all of the crew Let's not forget to encourage and also give praise

To our cowboys and cowgirls on their losing days

Winning is great when it happens to you But for every winner there's a loser, too

So when you show off that buckle with a smile and a grin

Pat that poor loser on the back—'cause he helped you win

Help us all to remember to take time to pray
And ask for your guidance and help every day

Again, Lord, keep our cowboys and cowgirls safe

As they travel the highways from place to place
