

Elizabeth Ann Waldrop

Age 66 went to her heavenly home on June 29, 2022 in Springdale, Arkansas. She was born on July 24, 1955 in Whiteface, Texas to Wid and Louise Imelda Seward.

Elizabeth was a loving wife and mother. She was married to the love of her life (Dale Waldrop) for 51 years. She was very involved in the church and ministering to lives she came in contact with. She was a Sunday school teacher, a missionette leader, & also a counselor at Grace Place in Lincoln, Ar. for many years. She never met a stranger.

She loved to minister inside and outside the church. She always loved working in the garden and taking care of her flowers, she created handmade quilts for friends & family. But one of her favorite quilts to make were baby blankets for the new little ones. Her doors were always opened to whoever came over.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her parents Wid Seward (Father), Louise Imelda Seward (Mother), Her brothers and sister, Wid Seward Jr., Frank Seward, Allena Seward Hudgins, Robert Seward, Lloyd Seward.

She was survived by her husband Dale Waldrop, Daughter- Kim Igo (Paul), Kristy Young (Lynn), Jeanie Ann Cain (Ben), Son- Jake Waldrop (Beth), eight grandchildren Jesse Igo (Kelsey), Joseph Igo, Hannah Thomas-Igo (Joshua Thomas), Rebekah Ann Igo, Jordan Igo, Brooke Harmon (Remy), William James Dale Cain, and Faith Elizabeth Cain & seven great grandchildren Gabriel, Izzy, Matthew, Ava, Jett, Adelaide, and Everest; four brothers James Seward, Henry Seward, Paul Seward and Tom Seward; two sisters Kathy Seward Snodgrass and Jane Seward Brady.

Celebrating
THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Elizabeth Ann Waldrop

Proverbs 31:10-31

The Virtuous Wife

Who[a] can find a [b]virtuous wife?
For her worth is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband safely trusts her;
So he will have no lack of gain.

She does him good and not evil
All the days of her life.

She seeks wool and flax,

And willingly works with her hands.

She is like the merchant ships,

She brings her food from afar.

She also rises while it is yet night,

And provides food for her household,

And a portion for her maidservants.

She considers a field and buys it;

From [e]her profits she plants a vineyard.

She girds herself with strength,

And strengthens her arms.

She perceives that her merchandise is good,

And her lamp does not go out by night.

She stretches out her hands to the distaff,

And her hand holds the spindle.

She extends her hand to the poor,

Yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of snow for her household,

For all her household is clothed with scarlet.

She makes tapestry for herself;

Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Her husband is known in the gates,

When he sits among the elders of the land.

She makes linen garments and sells them,

And supplies sashes for the merchants.

Strength and honor are her clothing;

She shall rejoice in time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom,

And on her tongue is the law of kindness.

She watches over the ways of her household,

And does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed;

Her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many daughters have done well,

But you excel them all."

Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing,

But a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands,

And let her own works praise her in the gates.

MOTHER LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.
