

Christina Wheeler

47, left us on February 23, 2019, with her parents, Karen and Leon Hornback, and family friend, Teresa, by her side. She was loved and cared for by her family through her gradual decline in health.

Tina was born in Pico Rivera, California on March 23, 1971. She entered the world with an infectious smile that grew every year.

Tina was a vivacious, fiercely independent, and selfless person. She dedicated her life to raising her children and caring for others. Tina had the most contagious laugh; her whole life she was always a source of comedic relief. She always left a lasting impression everywhere she went. She loved to spend her free time at the casino or shopping. Tina always said her biggest accomplishment in life was her children.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Barbara Goostree and grandfather Bill Ponder.

Tina was survived by her parents Willis and Karen Hornback of Farmington; children Jessica Wheeler of Rogers and Justin Prichard of Farmington; brothers Robert Wheeler and Leon Hornback of Farmington; and close friend Christopher King of Bentonville.

“I’m Free”

Don’t grievē for mē, for now I’m frēe,
I’m following thē path God laid for mē.
I took His hand whēn I hēard Him call,
I turnēd my baēk and lēft it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to lovē, to work or play.
Tasks lēft undonē must stay that way,
I’ve found that pēacē at thē closē of day.

If my parting has lēft a void,
Fill it now with rēmemberēd joy.
A friendship sharēd, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yēs, thēsē things I too will miss.

Bē not burdenēd with timēs of sorrow,
I wish you thē sunshinē of tomorrow.
My lifē’s bēēn full, I’ve savōrēd much,
Good friends, good timēs, a lovēd onē’s touch.

Perhaps my timē sēēmēd all too brief,
Don’t lēngthēn it now with unduē grief.
Lift up your heart and sharē with mē,
God wantēd mē now, Hē sēt mē frēe.

God’s Garden

God lookēd around his gardēn and Hē
found an empty placē,

Hē thēn lookēd down upon this earth,
and saw your tirēd facē.

Hē put his arms around you and liftēd you to rēst.

God’s gardēn must bē bēautiful.
Hē always takēs thē bēst.

Hē knēw that you wērē sufferinē;
Hē knēw you wērē in pain.

Hē knēw that you would nēvēr
gēt wēll on earth again.

Hē saw thē road was getting rough and thē hills wērē hard to climb.

So hē closēd your wēary eyēlids, and whispērēd, “Pēacē bē thine”.

It brokē our hearts to losē you,
but you didn’t go along.

For part of us wēt with you, thē day
God callēd you homē.
