Dad,
Now That I'm Older ...

From the time that I was small,
I looked up to you.
And now that I've grown up,
You're the hero, I never outgrew.

From sitting atop giant shoulders,
To see above the crowd.
To swinging from strong arms,
And hanging upside down.

To running alongside my bike,
To teaching strength when I would fall.
To insisting I work hard in school,
To loving me through it all.

Growing up is often hard,
Dad, your presence lit my way.
You led me along life's path,
Beside me all the way.

I want to say I love you,
For all the years together
we have had.
In my heart you are my hero,
All my life you are my Dad.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
