

Clarence Leon Wilson peacefully left this earth and went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, April 27th, 2021 at the age of 82.

Clarence was born August 29, 1938 in Tishomingo, Oklahoma, the son of George Melvin and Oleta (Gray) Wilson. After the passing of his father, Clarence's mother married Carl West. Carl was a good man and a loving father who treated all of the kids as though they were his own. Carl and Oleta raised their large family of nine children on their dairy farm in Tishomingo.

In 1960, Clarence worked as the Store Manager for C.R. Anthony Company in Amarillo, Texas. It was in Amarillo that Clarence met the love of his life, Shirley Jean Young who worked at a nearby store. The two were married the following year on January 21, 1961.

In 1964 after the birth of their son, Billy Wayne Wilson, the two moved their new family to Fayetteville, Arkansas to be closer to loved ones. It was there the Wilson family planted roots.

Clarence was a hard working provider with careers in multiple fields. As a young father Clarence worked as the Men's Department Manager of Montgomery Ward's in Fayetteville. Then in 1971, Clarence got a job with Frito Lay as a Route Manager where he enjoyed a career spanning over twenty five years.

Clarence was a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Fayetteville for fifty years. He held an unwavering faith in God which he shared with those around him by being a living example of Christ's Love. As a devout Christian and family man, Clarence led a full life of love, continuously surrounded by friends and family.

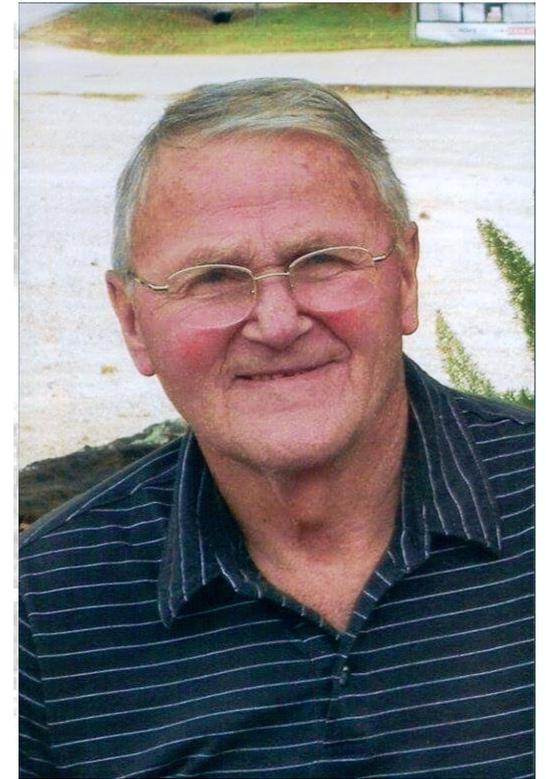

Clarence was unendingly proud of his family and always did his best to support them. Anyone who knew Clarence knew that he was the most loving father, husband and grandfather a family could ask for.

He was a caring and patient man willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He was always positive and cheerful. Anyone who would ask him how he was doing would be met with his trademark phrase, "Super Good and Getting Better!"

Clarence was preceded in death by his father, George Melvin Wilson, his mother Oleta West, his step-father, Carl West, his brothers Billy Raymond Wilson and Robert Carl Wilson, his sisters Doris King and Roberta Walton and his son, Jimmy Leon Wilson.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us of our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
