

These Hands

*I'm proud of them - these hands of mine;
So many things they've done.
They've planted flowers, and pulled the weeds,
And worked out in the sun.*

*They've kneaded bread and cooked the meals
More times than I can say.
They've washed a ton of clothes, I guess,
And put them all away.*

*They've soothed a small child's fevered brow
And rubbed an aching head.
And when the evening shadows fell,
They put the brood to bed.*

*They've borne the bite of winter's cold
And felt the warmth of spring.
And on one finger long ago
Was put a wedding ring.*

*And when my journey here is o'er,
I still shall thankful be
That these old worn-worn hands of mine
Have done so much for me.*
