SO SEND I YOU

So send I you - to la-bor un-re-ward-ed, To serve un-paid, un-loved, un-sought, un-known, To bear re-buke, to suf-fer scorn and scoff-ing, so send I you - to toil for me a-lone.

"As the Fath-er hath sent me, So send I you."

So send I you - to bind the bruised and brok-en. O'er wand'ring souls to work, to weep, to wake, To bear the bur-dens of a world a-wea-ry, So send I you to suf-fer for my sake.

"As the Fath-er hath sent me, So send I you."

So send I you - to lone-li-nesss and long-ing With heart a-hung'ring for the loved and known, For-sak-ing home and kin-dred, friend and dear one, So send I you - to know My love a-lone.

"As the Fath-er hath sent me, So send I you."

So sent I you - to leave your life's am-bi-tion, To die to dear de-sire, self-will re-sign, To lab-or long and love where men re-vile you, So send I you - to lose your life in Mine.

"As the Fath-er hath sent me, So send I you."

So send I you - to hearts made hard by hat-red, To eyes made blind be-cause they will not see, To spend, tho' it be blood-to spend and spare not- So send I you - to taste of Cal-va-ry.

"As the Fath-er hath sent me, So send I you."
