

Burkshed Cemetery

is a small historic cemetery located near Hindsville, Arkansas, in the northeastern corner of Washington County. It is situated on County Road 526, east of Highway 303, approximately 200 yards off the highway, near 23085 Fate Anderson Road, Hindsville, AR 72738, with coordinates around 36.21550, -93.91135.

The cemetery serves as a rural community burial ground for families in Hindsville and the Spring Valley-War Eagle area. It is referenced in genealogical and cemetery-listing sources, sometimes under alternate names like "Burkshed (Spring Valley-War Eagle) Cemetery."

A significant number of burials have been documented, including local family names and noted veterans. Records of interments can be found on platforms like Arkansas Gravestones and through local genealogical societies or cemetery transcription lists, which provide detailed information about graves and dates.
