Israel's sacrilege reprov'd.

that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke ^{the} devourer for your sakes, and he shall not ^{destroy} the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be ^a delight-some land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ ^a Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 ^b Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept ^{his} ordinance, and that we have walked ^{mourningfully} before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now ^c we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness ^{are} set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they ^e that feared the LORD ^f spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it: and ^g a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And ^h they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my ⁱ jewels; and ^k I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

Elijah's coming and office

18 Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

CHAP. IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR behold, ^a the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all ^b the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be ^c stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall ^d leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that ^e fear my name, shall the ^f Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked: for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the ^h law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him ⁱ in Horeb for all Israel, with ^k the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you ^l Elijah the prophet ^m before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and ⁿ smite the earth with ^o a curse.

Feline Tips The Bottle

Midnight, feline pet of Katie Day, demonstrates his lactine lapping talents by swilling a baby-bottle full of milk in record time. Shortly after Midnight was weaned, Katie started feeding him with a small bottle and gradually taught him to hold the bottle himself when eating. Midnight's capacity is about three bottles a day. By R. L. W. M. C. Cook Franklin Tenn. From his cousin Mrs. E. D. Thorton of San Antonio Tex.

Jan 22. 1932.
This is the latest news of the estate and you can depend on it. It came from cousin Samuel Richardson through my son Max.

He says our checks for the first payment were made out in Dec. As they should have been. As the money has been on deposit and we were supposed to get it the first of Jan. But the big financial corporation of the bank and the trust Co. begged for an extension, so they could get some money to help them up. For if that which is now nearly a quarter billion dollars was to be taken out of the country it would ruin the country.

Then Hoover corresponds with cousin Samuel Richardson. And cousin Samuel has been to Washington. If you will read the papers about you will see where congress passed a bill for two billion dollars loan! That is to be used to back up the financial corps. That have to let the money go that belongs to us.

The six banks extension started the first of Jan.
So there is no reason why we should not have the money by 15 Feb.

For the bank will loan the money to the banks with some of the money from the larger nations, which all the time get the money a big part will be invested in in Government bonds. And in that way it will be going back where it came from.

Everything rock is done now. And all we have to do is wait for that bill to be signed by Pres. Hoover. Every thing is settled. And it will not be long now until the check will be sent out.

Just to show how sure this thing is there is an insurance man in Ft. Worth, Tex. representing some of the large companies in the East. He is all as a bond salesman. and has a lot of the time. He had never given out his name in the name of the company. He is a smart man until recently. And he had instructions from headquarters to get busy. And see all the things he could. They in forced him. It would be all right to talk and tell all he wanted to for it would be a very short time now until the money will be turned loose.

This came from J. M. Buchanan.

Dr. J. C. Ash

on the trip home.

He with his family moved to Lake Andes from Garden City, S. D., Jan. 1, 1933, and opened an office for the practice of medicine in the front room of the Skinner building, later buying and occupying the Caster residence in the northwest part of town, adding a commodious office building on an adjoining lot.

He has been a practicing physician in South Dakota for the past 40 years. His parents, Henry and Lorinda Ash came from Morocco, Ind., to Minnesota in the early 70's and settled near Butler, S. D., in 1882 where Dr. Ash grew to manhood and taught rural schools. He attended Madison normal and later the University of Tennessee where he met Miss Ona Morton. They were married in 1899. After his graduation they came to Garden City, S. D., where he practiced for many years. He sold out once and returned later to resume practice. In the meantime taking post graduate work in Chicago and an extended western trip. In 1927 to 1931 he was state representative from Clark county.

One of his hobbies which he developed to a state-wide reputation, was the writing of poetry and many of his verses were freely copied by newspapers and magazines. Particularly noteworthy were his stanzas: "To The Flag."

Dr. Ash was one of our country's noblemen — honest, sympathetic, patriotic and devoted to his friends. As a physician this writer can attest to his wisdom, ability and steadfastness. He spared neither time, patience nor labor in his care of us when we were bedfast and helpless on several occasions. He loved his work and most of all his desire to help the afflicted.

The people of Lake Andes were greatly surprised and grieved Wednesday afternoon when a telegram to J. J. Exon came from Rawlins, Wyo., announcing the sudden death of Dr. J. C. Ash, who with his wife and daughter Frances were enroute home from a three weeks tour of the west, particularly to a daughter and family in Files, and other cities in Idaho. Further particulars were not included in the message.

The latest word is that burial will be next Monday at the first home of the family in South Dakota on a homestead at Butler, near Webster, in Day county.

Besides the widow he leaves a son in Cloquet, Minn., one in Leavenworth, Kas., a daughter in Arkansas; one in Files, Idaho and Frances who was with her father

Aunt Ona Ash - Husband

Dr. James Clair of Lake Andes, S. D., aged 52, died from a sudden heart attack suffered at 12:30 p. m. yesterday while he was eating his noon meal in the Lurus Cafe in this city. With him at the time were his wife and daughter.

Prior to his death Dr. Ash had been in poor health and during the vacation trip which they were upon he had complained of feeling ill. Stricken in the middle of his meal, he suddenly collapsed and although taken out into the fresh air immediately, he died only a few minutes later.

The Ashes were on their way home from Twin Falls, Ida., where they had been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Tom Timbers, for the past two weeks. They had driven from Evanston, Wyo., yesterday morning en route to Lake Andes. The remains will be shipped to Bristol, S. D., for interment.

He was born in Morocco, Ind., and is now survived by his widow, two sons, Clair Ash of Cloquet, Minn., R. M. Ash of Leavenworth, Kan., three daughters, Mrs. Carl Hammer of Berryville, Ark., Mrs. Timbers of Twin Falls and Miss Frances Ash who was with them. Other survivors include nine grandchildren, four brothers and two sisters.

Arrangements for the shipment of the remains from here are under the direction of the Collins-McKelvey Mortuary.
