Recording the graves in Washington County cemeteries was the result of a state project of the County Home Demonstration Clubs (now known as Extension Homemakers). The records have been expanded and clarified in Washington County by Miss Bernice Karnes and other devoted volunteers of the Washington County Historical Society.

We wish we could guarantee the accuracy and completeness of the following lists, but the passage of time, vandalism in the cemeteries, the erosion of weather, and human error make such guarantees impossible.

Corrections and additions to these lists will be appreciated.

ACADEMY

One of the most beautiful burial sites in the county is the Academy Cemetery, located about a mile east of Evansville on top of a hill. It is named for the historic Evansville Academy which once shared the hilltop. It may have been, originally, the family graveyard of the Latta family.

THE ABE ALLEN CEMETERY
(Sometimes called the Pettigrew Cemetery)

In the middle of a field, one-half mile west of Farmington, is a small family graveyard (it contains fewer than 50 burials) that is well over a hundred years old. It is the burial place of Pettigrews, Smiths and Allens, three families related by marriage. There have been no burials here for the last 50 years and the fallen gravestones indicate neglect. Yet here sleep some of the early comers to Washington County. It is enclosed in a chain link fence.

A tall marble shaft, now fallen off its base, marks the last resting place of the patriarch of the Pettigrew clan (George A.), and other early members of that family.

One of our county's most beautiful gravestones, a 6-foot carved and deeply engraved marble slab, marks the burial place of William C. Smith, a pioneer and a victim of Civil War lawlessness. His tombstone says: "In memory of William C. Smith, born August 8, 1816. Led a devoted life and was maliciously murdered March 11, 1865. He leaves a bereaved family and many friends to mourn, but what is their loss is his infinite gain."

There is a row of five identical carved sandstone markers, evidently the Allen children. Inscriptions on two of them are legible: Carmelia (or Cornelia) Frances Allen and Zebulon Montgomery Allen.

ANTIOCH

This cemetery is four miles south of Morrow, Arkansas, atop Antioch Mountain which lies between Skylight Mountain on the east and Hale Mountain on the west.

One plot of sandstones mark graves thought by some early settlers to have been burials as early as the Civil War but no one knows who the burials are. The earliest known burials were members of the Collins and Hubbard families who were related: Sada Hubbard, 1880, Peter Hubbard and Walter Hubbard, 1883, Mary L. Collins, 1884 and Louisa Ann Collins Hubbard, 1885.

The cemetery was made a public burying ground when the land was purchased from I. A. and M. E. McCaleb for the sum of $10 on March 26, 1904 by J. C. Glidewell, I. L. Carte, T. Holcroft and Jake Baugh. This is a well-kept cemetery across the road from the little church.

BAPTIST FORD

The Baptist Ford cemetery, on Highway 71, one mile south of Greenland, occupies a beautiful site on the West Fork of the White river. It is an old cemetery, probably older than Evergreen cemetery in Fayetteville. It already had a hundred or more graves when the first engraved tombstone was erected there in 1846. The old sandstone markers at Baptist Ford are different from the field stones found in most other country graveyards. These are mostly massive stones, often 12 inches thick and three or four feet tall. Some of them originally bore name and date, but the inscriptions have weathered off during the century.

Well-preserved old sandstone markers which are good examples of the craftsmanship of the early tombstone makers are those over the graves of Henry Wakefield, Ralph Skelton and Reding Putman. The oldest tombstone is an oddly-lettered sandstone marker over the grave of John Calvin, son of W. R. and I. Thomas. He died on November 21, 1846, which makes this the oldest dated burial in this cemetery.

Reding Putman has two monuments, one a quaint old-time stone and the other modern. Buried beside him is his wife Phebe. Ralph Skelton has a fine old gravestone, as have Rachel Privett and Henry Wakefield. The Wakefield monument is an upright sandstone slab cut coffin-shape and neatly lettered.

On the Carlile lot are the graves of seven children in a row, the oldest being Washington L. Carlile who died in 1859. The seven stones are uniform in size and design. The cemetery contains a great many tombstones of the 80s and 90s made by Atchison & Young, and later by Atchison & Dorman of Fayetteville.

BEAN CEMETERY

In a cornfield at Parks Corner, near the intersection of Highways 45 and 62, east of Lincoln, is the grave of Mark Bean, early trader with the Indians, pioneer miller, salt manufacturer, member of the Arkansas Territorial Legislature, and a picturesque figure of the frontier before there was a Washington County. Bean conquered the wilderness, but it is doubtful if he can conquer the cornfield in which he sleeps.

There are other graves here, but few of the stones carry inscriptions.

BEATY CEMETERY (one of Two)

This cemetery is located on the H. L. Gilbreath farm, two and one-half miles east of Old Union Cemetery at Cincinnati, Arkansas.

BEATY (One of Two)

The Beaty Cemetery, four miles northwest of Lincoln, contains graves of members of such pioneer families as Beaty, Vawter, Holt, Collins, Yeager, Vandever, Writsman, Rich, Lawson, Bunnell, Smyth, Brown and others. There are 150 fieldstone markers without inscriptions, probably dating back a hundred years. There is also a group of five stone burial vaults, and four graves covered with massive slabs of stone. These nine early burials bear no names or dates, but old-timers at Lincoln say they are the dust of pioneer Holts.

The Beaty clan is headed by the patriarch, Alexander Beaty who in the 1830's settled on the farm where he now sleeps. Beside him lies his wife, Emily.

There are a number of fine old marble gravestones in this burial ground, among them a beautiful piece of sculpture over the grave of the infant daughter (Delpha) of F. M. and Mary J. Beaty; another over the graves of two children of Scott and Amanda Vawter; and a marble headstone made by A. H. Morley's Joplin Marble Works over the grave of Prudy Knight.

BLUFF CEMETERY

It is not possible to say when Springdale's Bluff Cemetery was first used as a burying ground. There were burials here before the Civil War. Later, when the graveyard at the Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church was abandoned, the burials were removed to the Bluff Cemetery. It is now one of the county's largest cemeteries and contains the graves of many of the county's pioneers, among them the founder of Springdale, Rev. John Holcombe (1797-1876) and his wife Dorothy (1808-1874). Earlier burials (mostly persons born prior to 1870) are listed individually, later burials by family name only).

BOONE CEMETERY

On Arkansas State Highway 16, one and a half miles south of Elkins, the Boone Cemetery is located on the family homestead. It contains graves of nine family members who were direct descendants of Daniel Boone, the pioneer.

The first grave is that of Benjamin Franklin Boone, a lieutenant in the Confederate Army who died from a wound received in the Battle of Prairie Grove. His widow raised their family to maturity and outlived all but one. Since her death in 1906, no other burials have been made. The plot is about 100 yards off the highway to the east and is cared for by descendants of the Boone family.

CARNAHAN CEMETERY

This little cemetery is on the Henry Henson farm, south of Lincoln. The graves are enclosed within a rock wall.

Here lies the Rev. John Carnahan and his wife, Aunt Lame Polly Carnahan. Also Major Jacob Pyeatte and his wife.

There are several graves outside the enclosure, including that of John Billingsley, whose death was the first among the early settlers, the very night they arrived here in 1827.

There are several other graves here, without markers.

CARREL CEMETERY

This small cemetery is located on Highway 68, east of Springdale, between the White River bridge and Sonora, Arkansas. Starting at the bridge and traveling west, it is on the left side of the road at the top of the first hill. It is small, about 30x30 feet.

The fence is rusty and the plot overgrown with briars. The gate is on the north side and bears the word "Carrel".

Edna F. Carrel, March 1, 1856
J. W. Carrel, Aug. 26, 1851-Aug. 20, 1904
Ed Carrel, July 27, 1885, Jan. 25, 1922

At the foot of the grave, the marker reads "EFC".

CATHOLIC CEMETERY

This cemetery, on Highway 45 four miles east of Fayetteville, is said to have been used as a cemetery before the Civil War. The number of fieldstone markers seems to bear this out. The Irish who settled in the White River valley had some sort of a log church at this location. The cemetery probably grew up around the church.

CEMETERY HILL

Cemetery Hill is located two miles south of Farmington and one mile east, off Highway 170, in Washington County. When Henry and Eliza Browne Tollett moved with their family from Homestead County in Arkansas in 1829 and soon after lost a little son, Edward E. Tollett, in 1831, they gave two acres of land for a burial ground. The infant's grave is the oldest in the cemetery.

When the land was surveyed later, it was found that the two acres was on land belonging to Henry's brother-in-law and wife, Joseph and Mary Browne Lewis, whose land joined the Tolletts'. Tollett then traded Lewis two acres elsewhere in replacement for the two acres taken for the burial plot.

CLOER CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on Mayfield Road, about one-quarter mile east of Pony Vaughan farm. Turn south and go across one 40-acre field and through a cedar grove into the next forty. The cemetery has recently been cleared by Cloer descendants. Approximately 100 people buried here; there were 48 rocks counted.

Bowerman, William L., July 28, 1885-Jan. 11, 1919

Cloer, Calvin Jessee ("The Deaf Mute"), Jan. 13, 1859-Nov. 23, 1890

Cloer, George, son of James and R. A. Cloer, July 6, 1862-June 30, 1889

Cloer, Lee Roy, son of H. and M. Cloer, May 21, 1895-Feb. 17, 1899. His mother, Mirah Smith Cloer, wife of Henry, was the daughter of Joseph Beaty Smith and Matilda Ellen Trammell.)

Cloer, Millie Delilah, died Aug. 31, 1946, age 88 years, 2 months, 2 days. (Sister to Cade Johnson. Millie married Elisha L. Cloer, son of James and Rhoda Ann Smith Cloer.)

Cloer, Rosya, July 30, 1882-Nov. 17, 1886. Daughter of H. & M. Cloer.

Cloer, Van H., May 14, 1889-Mar. 21, 1893. Son of H. & M. Cloer.

Clour, James, May 3, 182? (1829)-May 16, 1863. He is believed to have been the son of Elisha L. Cloer and his first wife, Lucetia.

Clour, Liza A., May 19, 1862 (census indicates she was born in 1854)-Feb. 2, 1863.

Clour, Rhoda Ann, Jan. 13, 1829-Jan. 12, 1916. She was the daughter of Henry Smith who died in Washington County, Arkansas in 1839 and may be buried in an unmarked grave at Son's Chapel. Henry Smith is known to have been survived by one sister, Emeline, and one brother named Joseph, according to the Washington County Probate Book for April 9, 1839. James Brandon was appointed guardian of minor heirs of Henry Smith. This guardianship was taken away from James Brandon and given to John McGarrah. Isaac Briscoe was appointed guardian of Emeline Smith who was of unsound mind, and Thomas Briscoe was his security. George McGarrah was administrator of Henry Smith's estate. It is possible that Henry Smith's wife was a McGarrah girl, daughter of James McGarrah, and a sister to William, John and Thomas McGarrah. The children of James and Rhoda Ann Smith Clour (Cloer) were:

Mary Jane, born 1852, died 1934, married Jasper McCoy

Liza A., born about 1854, died 1863

Sarah E., born June 13, 1855-7, died Nov. 15, 1926; married (1) Francis M. Johnson and (2) Macajah "Cade" Johnson. Francis M. Johnson was the son of John T. Johnson. Sarah is buried in Johnson family plot near Highway 68 East White River bridge.

Elisha L., born May 16, 1858; married July 19, 1879 to (Millie) Delilah Johnson; died April 12, 1945; buried in Cloer Cemetery, no stone.

Henry G., born Mar. 14, 1860. Married Mirah J. Smith Dec. 16, 1880. Went to Arizona to live.
George W., born July 6, 1862; married Willis Sharp May 25, 1880; died 1889.

Gayer, Clarence, Jan. 3, 1901-May 15, 1927
Gayer, Samuel L. (brother to Clarence), Dec. 2, 1894. 38 Co. 10 Reg B. N., 162 Depot Brigade, Camp Pike, Arkansas Oct. 10, 1918

McCoy, Jasper, Dec. 25, 1840-Jan. 29, 1922, husband of Mary Jane Cloer
McCoy, Mary Jane, Sept. 3, 1849-Aug. 6, 1934, daughter of Rhoda Ann Smith and James Cloer. Her birthdate on stone is wrong. James and Rhoda were married Dec. 21, 1849 and 1850 census shows them with no children. The 1860 census shows Mary Jane born 1852. Jasper and Mary Jane Cloer McCoy had three children: Nick McCoy, single man; Sarah McCoy, married Bill Bowerman; and Rhoda McCoy, married Jarrett Garrett, who was the son of Nancy Johnson and John Garrett. John Garrett died and Nancy married Thomas Overton. Nancy and Thomas Overton are buried in Joyce Cemetery. Nancy, Millie Delilah and Cade Johnson are believed to be the children of Isaac and Sussanah Todd Johnson.

Oxford, Elizabeth, Mary 15, 1843-Oct. 28, 1919.
(Mrs. Nancy Vaughan, wife of Pony Vaughan, and daughter of Rhoda McCoy and Jarrett Garrett, told that there were some Whites and other Oxfords buried in this cemetery.)

Other information on the Cloer family:

Elisha L. Cloer, born 1807 in North Carolina, died Sept. 30, 1859 (Shiloh Church death date). His wife Lucetia joined the church 1840-46, spelling the name Cloure then, and her death date was listed as March 29, 1847. Their known children were:
Jacob, born Apr. 22, 1830, died April 10, 1927, buried in Joyce Cemetery, married Apr. 11, 1850 to Martha E. Rogers.
Sarah (Elizabeth Ann), born 1834-36, died 1855, buried in Joyce Cemetery, married Sept. 24, 1854 to Jeremiah Combs.
John H., born 1838 in Alabama
Henry, born 1840 in Arkansas
Other children (mother not certain) were:
James Cloer, born 1829, married Rhoda Ann Smith; named their son Elisha Lane Cloer.
Rebecca, born 1827 in Alabama, married Feb. 4, 1849 to James A. Taylor
William, born 1822 in Alabama, married Adaline.

On Feb. 3, 1848, in Washington County, Arkansas, Elisha L. Cloer (born 1807) married Susannah Stone, born 1830 in Missouri. She was the daughter of John S. Stone and Isbel Elizabeth Wright Stone. They had two children that we know of: Thomas Cloer, born 1848; and Susannah, born 1850. On Nov. 27, 1870, Susannah married Isaac Newton Harp, and they were the parents of Philip Alva Harp who married Rose Mae Boyd, the daughter of Ezekiel and Nancy Jane Gist Boyd. Philip and Rose Mae Boyd Harp are the grandparents of a number of Springdale residents: David Gay, Mrs. Richard Smith, Don Harp, Gerald Harp, Reland Harp, Mrs. Juday VanHoose, Mrs. Colleen Watson of Huntsville, Mrs. Barbara Graham Harmon, Ted Graham, and Jr. Graham, Mrs. Della Mae Cate William, Mrs. Delois Cate Huntley, and Dale Cate, Joe Murphy and Mrs. Natalie Murphy Stafford.

Elisha Lane Cloer, born in 1858, the son of James and Rhoda Ann Smith Cloer, married Millie Delilah Johnson, had John Henry Cloer, born 1881, who married Sarah Isabelle Graham, the daughter of Charles and Martha Jane Goff Graham. Sarah and John Henry Cloer had the following children:

John Vernon, born Sept. 3, 1902, married Georgia Lee Bowerman.
Theodore Roosevelt "Rose", born Feb. 8, 1905, married Claudia Mae Alstott.
Mamie, born Mar. 19, 1907, married Vivian Cloer, son of Bradford Cloer.
Charles, born Sept. 1, 1909, married Josephine McGarrah, daughter of Frank McGarrah.
Amy Otis, born Oct. 16, 1912, married Fay Johnson, son of Sam Johnson.
Elisha, born Oct. 16, 1913, married Vivian Johnston, son of Joy Johnston.
Gustie, born June 25, 1920, married Ivan Reynolds.

Everett Johnson, born Dec. 13, 1898, was a half-brother to those listed above, son of Sarah Graham and Samuel H. Johnson.

THE COLLEGE CEMETERY

The College Cemetery, as it was called, was at the northwest corner of West Maple street and Garland avenue. It was a burial ground started for students in the 1870s. There was a long row of graves in front, running north to south and scattered graves besides. A neat plank fence surrounded the grounds, and the gate was at the southeast towards town. It was a rustic place, rather untended, but not altogether unattractive, for the sun set beautifully over it, and wild flowers grew in the poor soil.

J. H. Menard, a brilliant pupil from Desha County, died on January 11, 1879, and was buried here the next day. Then there was a Mr. Evans Treadwell, whose betrothed came up from Alma clad in heavy mourning to his funeral. And a Miss Mills, who either lived or boarded at the Prentiss home (site of the present post office). A Mr. Wainwright, whose parents lived in Fayetteville. And Mr. Waggoner. There was the grave of Mabel McNeill, child of Prof. J. F. McNeill; Mr. Vaulx conducted her funeral. Also, Miss Emily Read, eldest daughter of Dr. J. S. Read of Fayetteville, was buried there. About Commencement time of the year 1902 a music teacher at the University named Graber died rather suddently (of appendicitis) and was buried in the College Cemtery.

The cemetery was a necessity provided by the A. I. U. authorities before trains, buses--or planes--reached Fayetteville. Students died, most of them from typhoid fever in the summer and pneumonia in the winter, and embalming was still a new practice in the town.

Eventually the cemetery was abandoned and in the early 1920s the University removed the burials to other cemeteries and built an athletic field (now a parking lot) on the site.

COLLIER CEMETERY
(Also known as BOSTON or YOES)

This cemetery is located four miles west of Winslow. It is sometimes called Boston Cemetery or Yoes Cemetery.

COMBS CEMETERY

There are 87 unknown graves in this cemetery which is located on City Lake Road in Fayetteville, one and one-half miles to the right off Morningside Drive. The land was deeded for a public cemetery by S. L. Sutton in 1862. However, several burials of earlier dates are recorded. A marker was erected by Marion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to Revolutionary War Soldiers from 1775-1783.

The lists for this cemetery illustrate vividly the difficulties of collecting and maintaining accurate lists. The above, done by a Home Demonstration Group of Washington County, differs markedly from an article published in the FLASHBACK for July of 1954. The spelling varies a good deal; for example, Mary E. Hart on the above list is Mary E. Hurt in the earlier publication. And the FLASHBACK article shows all but E. D. Edmondson as spelling their name "Edmonsond" and makes a point of it. Also, there are several names included in the 1954 article which do not appear in the list above:

Bond, Sylvester M., 1831-1910
Brooks, Lucy, 1834-1905
Cardwell, W. J., 1842-1882
Cline, Elizabeth, 1797-1878
Dotson
Edmonsond, A. R. (1853-1893)
Evans
Fincher, Kiziah Margaret, 1842-1881
Fleming, Delily Adeline, 1861-1889
Hudson
Perry, R. H., 1825-1914
Rutherford
Watrous, Horace, 1811-1858
Wilks, James A., 1861-1943
Wilks, Robert, 1848-1896
Wilks, Sarah, 1852-1911

One wonders, too, whether Mr. Charles Q. Woolsey was really 120 when he died, or whether his birthdate should have been 1878.

COX CEMETERY

Cox Cemetery is located about three miles east of Morrow and four miles south of Cane Hill. The plot is part of the farm homesteaded by William Rogers in 1836. It was first known as Rogers Cemetery.

CRAWFORD CEMETERY
(One of Two)

Mrs. Maurice Cruse visited this small family cemetery on May 20, 1957 and writes the history of it. It is located just off the Greasy Valley road, off Highway 62. It is enclosed with a rock wall in a good state of preservations.

"Inside the enclosure at the Crawford graveyard are six graves.

Bates, Little Mellie, son of J. F. and Margaret J. Bates, Feb. 18, 1865-Apr. 4, 1866. Mrs. Bates was a Crawford.

Crawford, James, Jan. 25, 1803-June 3, 1880
Crawford, Luvicy Buchanan, Dec. 10, 1801-Mar. 11, 1877, wife of James.

Three other graves have only fieldstone markers, but we believe two of these are Uncle Billy and Aunt Betsey Crawford. The other is unknown. Then there are about eight graves on the outside, probably slave graves.

"James Crawford was the son of John and Margaret Buchanan Crawford. He was the brother of Andrew Crawford. Andrew first married Minerva Buchanan. She was murdered by her negro slave Caroline, who killed her with an axe. She was murdered at the Mike Nail Place south of Prairie Grove, now owned by Guy Skelton. Her small child Robert played over her dead body all day until found by her husband. Andrew Crawford then married Rachel Tinnon, the grandmother of the Cruse children.

"This slave Caroline who murdered Mrs. Crawford was chained in the old log school house or church house known as the 'White Church'. At her trial she confessed that Mrs. Crawford was the fourth mistress she had murdered. At an appointed time she was driven in an ox cart to a large tree on the Delap place. When the rope was in place and the team started up to be driven from under her, she jumped just as far as she could and let out an unearthly scream. My grandfather, J. P. Carnahan, was just a small boy and he saw her hung. This was told to me by my grandfather."

CRAWFORD FAMILY CEMETERY
(One of Two)

This old burial ground of the pioneer Crawford family is located a mile north of Rhea's Mill on the Lake Wedington Road. The earliest dated burial is 1841, but rough fieldstones and fallen tombstones indicate earlier burials--about 50 unidentifiable graves.

DOWELL MEMORIAL CEMETERY

Dowell Memorial Cemetery is located on Old Wire Road South, in Fayetteville. Captain W. F. Dowell gave the land for the cemetery in 1875 and helped build Dowell Chapel there. There are a few graves dating back to the 1890s and it is possible that some of the fieldstone markers go back to a still earlier date.

DRAKE CEMETERY

This little family cemetery is located just south of Lincoln, in Bush Valley. It was once the location of a little church called Sardis. The cemetery has only 13 markers and is enclosed in a wall of rock. The earliest graves are those of the children of James Drake. Some graves are outside the wall.

DRIPPING SPRINGS CEMETERY

This abandoned graveyard, about eight miles south of Prairie Grove, is near the site of the old Dripping Springs church and school house. The church has vanished and the schoolhouse is a ruin. The cemetery is in the middle of a field, a half mile from the road, but there are traces of an old road that once brought mourners to the site. There are some 50 or 60 graves, most of them with fieldstone markers.

Two pioneers who have inscribed marble gravestones are:

J. W. Hammontree (1829-1895), and

J. J. McDonald (1822-1896)

There are several Hammontree graves and some children's graves, bearing the names of Jennings and McKee

DUNAGAN CEMETERY

Dunagan cemetery is located about three and one-half miles east of Evansville on the road to Hale Mountain. This is on the Alexander Shannon homestead and members of the Shannon family are the first burials. About 20 unidentified sandstone markers are in the cemetery.

EVERGREEN CEMETERY

Fayetteville's largest cemetery is important historically because it is the last resting place of many men who won fame as statesmen, educators, soldiers, doctors, and in other fields. It contains hundreds of pioneer names. The list which follows contains the names of those who were born before 1860, and surnames only of many other families.

PREFACE

This is the second book of a series of volumes that will contain tombstone inscriptions from all known, existing cemeteries in Washington County.

This county, one of the earliest in Arkansas, was established in 1828. Some of the early settlements still in existence date from the 1820's.

Names are listed in this volume in the order in which they were read, so that you will know the names of those buried next to your ancestor and can locate the grave easily should you visit the cemetery. Family data such as marriage date, place of birth, military service, etc., that was on the stone has been recorded as read.

We sincerely thank all those who put so much hard work into the making of this publication. We cannot name them all, but feel we should mention Clara Pendley who did the typing and Verba Jo Pearce who designed and drew the map for the cover. Names of the readers are mentioned at the beginning of each cemetery listing and needless to say, none of this could have taken place without their splendid work. We are very grateful to them.

Some of the cemeteries in this volume are not only quite old, but are virtually abandoned and the inscriptions have suffered from the effects of time, neglect, erosion and vandalism. Our readers and typists have made every effort to be accurate, but there are chances for error both in copying and in transcribing. We take no responsibility for the authenticity of these pages, and ask that you inform us of any additions or corrections that should be made.

PRAIRIE GROVE CEMETERY

Located in Prairie Grove, Washington County, Arkansas at the intersection of West Buchanan St. (Highway 62) and Kate Smith St., adjacent to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. An historical marker in the church yard reads: Site of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, used as a hospital during the Battle of Prairie Grove 1862. Marked by Prairie Grove U D C in 1930.

The cemetery rows read from north to south and are numbered from east to west. Rows one through fifty four are south of the east-west road through the cemetery. Rows one through ten are very short and are north of the church parking area. Rows fifty five through one hundred fourteen are north of the east-west cemetery road. Read by George and Bitsey Crabtree and Bertley and Dorothy Clutter; fall of 1979.

BARRON CEMETERY

A small cemetery located on the farm that my great grandfather William Marion Barron owned until 1897. It is enclosed by an iron fence and about fifty yards east of Highway 265 in Section 23, Township 15, range 31, which is about six and one half miles south of the intersection of US 71 and 265 south edge of Fayetteville. Submitted by Jack Barron, June 1980.

FITZGERALD CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on Randal Road in Springdale, Washington County Arkansas, near the Fitzgerald Butterfield Stagecoach Station and the John Fitzgerald's house, all a part of his land holdings. The cemetery contains many more graves which are not marked at this time. Many stones were destroyed by cattle; some carried away over the years.

Copied by Dorothy G. Fitzgerald and Bobby Byars Lynch, April 1980.

SKELTON CEMETERY

Located in Fayetteville, Ark., northeast of the First United Presbyterian Church. Turn west off Old Wire Road on Calvin Street and proceed to the church parking lot. The cemetery is approximately 100 yards north and 150 yards east of the northeast corner ofthe parking area and is overgrown with brush and vines. Tombstones have been turned over and are broken; it is very probably that some are missing. Read by Bitsy and George Crabtree September 10, 1980.

INDEX---PART II

Part II lists what we believe to be the maiden names of women who are listed by their married surnames in Part I of the Index. These maiden names are not capitalized and are immediately after the given name of the person.

EXAMPLE:

Index, Part II shows: Baird 60
Listing on Page 60 reads:
SCONCE, Margaret Baird 1879 1950

We hope this part of the index will provide an additional clue for your research.

PREFACE

The Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society, whose goal is to gather, preserve and perpetuate records of our own pioneer ancestors, presents our third book of a series of volumes that will contain tombstone inscriptions from all known, existing cemeteries in Washington County, Arkansas. This county, one of the earliest in the state, was established in 1828. Some of the early settlements still in existence date from the 1820's.

Names are listed in this volume in the order in which they were read, so that you will know the names of those buried next to your ancestor and can locate the graves easily should you visit the cemetery. Family data such as marriage date, place of birth, military service, etc., that was on the stone has been recorded as read.

We sincerely thank all those who put so much hard work into the making of this publication. We cannot name them all, but feel we should mention Clara Pendley who did the typing and Verba Jo Pearce who designed and drew the map for the cover. Names of the readers are mentioned at the beginning of each cemetery listing and needless to say, none of this could have taken place without their splendid work. We are very grateful to them.

Some of the cemeteries in this volume are not only quite old, but are virtually abandoned and the inscriptions have suffered from the effects of time, neglect, erosion and vandalism. Our readers and typists have made every effort to be accurate, but there are chances for error both in copying and in transcribing. We take no responsibility for the authenticity of these pages, and ask that you inform us of any additions or corrections that should be made.

MT COMFORT CEMETERY

About 1828 William D. Cunningham staked off a 7 acre tract of his land to be used as a church. The Tuttle and Cunningham families named it Mt Comfort after the Mount Comfort Church they had left in Tennessee. The church has been the center of neighborhood life and today is a focal point for the people in the area.
Located 0.3 mile west of Fayetteville City limits on Mt. Comfort Road.

There were 2 fieldstones observed with no markings. The cemetery was at one time in a very run down condition but was in the process of being cleaned up and fenced at the time of reading. Some of the markers which we read were obviously replacements of older ones that had ben destroyed.

CLARK CEMETERY

Located on the Bunky Boger farm one half to one mile east of Mayfield, Ark. S23 T16N R28W. The list is from the Ark. History Commission. The tombstone readings were recorded by Ruby Holt Vaughn for the Widener E. H. Club Nov 12, 1969. Ms Vaughn says the cemetery is named for James Clark who died ca 2848, whose grave is marked by a large sandstone rock with J. C. carved on it. This statement is from the Ark. History Commission.

INDEX

This index lists the family surnames as they appear on the grave markers. These are printed in all capital letters along the left-hand margin of the page(s) indicated. Also listed in this index are what we believe to be the maiden names of some married women. These maiden names are also capitalized and appear immediately after the given name of the person.

PREFACE

The Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society, whose goal is to gather, preserve and perpetuate records of our own pioneer ancestors, presents the fourth book of a series of volumes that will contain tombstone inscriptions from all known, existing cemeteries in Washington County, Arkansas. This county, one of the earliest in the state, was established in 1828. Some of the early settlements still in existence date from the 1820s.

Names are listed in this volume in the order in which they were read, so that you will know the names of those buried next to your ancestor and can locate the grave easily should you visit the cemetery. Family data such as marriage date, place of birth, military service, etc. that was on the stone has been recorded as read.

We sincerely thank all those who put so much hard work into the making of this publication. We cannot name them all, but feel we should mention Clara Pendley who did the typing and Verba Jo Pearce who designed and drew the map for the cover. Names of the readers are mentioned at the beginning of each cemetery listed and, needless to say, none of this could have taken place without their valuable work. We are very grateful to them.

Some of the cemeteries in this volume are not only quite old, but are virtually abandoned and the inscriptions have suffered from the effects of time, neglect, erosion, and vandalism. Our readers and typist have made every effort to be accurate, but there are chances for error both in copying and in transcribing. We take no responsibility for the authenticity of these pages, and ask that you inform us of any additions or corrections that should be made.

BAPTIST FORD

Located just off US Hwy 71 (to SW side) about 0.3 miles south of Greenland City limits in S16, T15N, R 30 W. The rows are numbered from west to east and were read from north to south, on October 30 and November 4, 1981 by Esther Gittings, Cecile Wallace, Bitsy and George Crabtree. There is a church adjacent to the cemetery.

BELL

Located approximately 3 miles south of Ark. State Hwy 16 on Washington County Road 37. Take first right hand road; cemetery is approximately 3/4 mile east on north side of road in a grove of trees. It is about one mile east of the Illinois River almost on the section line between S13 and S24, T16N,R32W. This cemetery has been neglected and there are a number of broken and overturned stones. Some of the stones had to be dug up for reading, but others may have been missed. Copied by Kenneth and Susan Townsend and Virgie Hamilton in September 1981.

There are about three stones insdie of a chain link fence that are readable, They are:

LANGLEY-JONES-BELL CEMETERY

Located south and east of Goshen. Take the paved road that passes the Post-office. Turn right on to first gravel road then a mile or so, the first road turning right, take this to where the road runs into another road going east and west. Turn left; there is a trailer home on the right and a frame house and several out buildings on the left, where the road forks. The cemetery is about ½ mile but can be easily missed as very quickly after you cross a small creek a small road turns abruptly to the left up a steel incline and the cemetery is out of sight on a knoll. Exact name of the cemetery is uncertain. Listed by Wesley and Gail Scott March 29, 1981.

CULWELL CEMETERY

Follow the same directions from town(as given in Langley-Jones-Bell) until you come to the fork where the houses are. Instead of turning left, turn right and follow the main road for 3 or 4 miles. Uncertain as to distance. The cemetery is right in the road.

CULWELL, William	Dec 20, 1828	Mar 26, 1876
Nancy	Apr 25, 1840	Dec __, 1914

There were one or two field stones marking grave sites and one broken headstone too deep in the ground to get it out.

SHADY GROVE CEMETERY

Located 3 miles south of Springdale and ¼ mile west of U. S. Hwy 71, on West Shady Grove Road. The Shady Grove Baptist Church was organized on July 10, 1880 and a building erected on land deeded to the church by John H. Lichlyter. The church then appointed three trustees of the church and cemetery; A. B. Henson, George W. Brooks and F. A. Graue. The first burial occurred in 1885 when J. H. Lichlyter's son died of typhoid fever and was brought back from Indian Territory to be buried. The church building is no longer in existence. The cemetery rows were read from south to north and are numbered from west to east. Read by George and Bitsy Crabtree on May 15, 1981

INDEX

This index lists the family surnames as they appear on the grave markers. These are printed in all capital letters along the left-hand margin of the page(s) indicated. Also listed in this index are what we believe to be the maiden names of some married women. These maiden names are also capitalized and appear immediately after the given name of the person.

PREFACE

The Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society is pleased to present the sixth book of a series of cemetery volumes that will contain tombstone inscriptions from all known, existing cemeteries in Washington County, Arkansas. As the map on the front cover indicates, most of the cemeteries in Volume VI are located in the rural areas of the southern part of the county near the higher elevations of the Boston Mountains.

Names are listed in this volume in the order in which they were read, so that you will know the names of those buried next to your ancestor and can locate the grave easily should you visit the cemetery. Family data such as marriage date, place of birth, military service, etc. has been transcribed as recorded on the grave marker.

We sincerely thank all those who contributed to the making of this publication, for their hours of labor and their patient sufferance of sunburn, dust, fatigue, tick and chigger bites. But they received many compensations - the appreciation of researchers who use these volumes; the enjoyment of the peace and beauty of the cemetery surroundings; the joy of receiving the active, strong support of others who share the conviction that this is an important means of preserving worthwhile genealogical information; and lastly, the knowledge that any profit from this project will be used to enlarge and improve the collection of books and microfilm that is housed in the Bentonville Public Library.

Some of the cemeteries in this volume are not only quite old but are virtually abandoned and the inscriptions have suffered from the effects of time, neglect, erosion and vandalism. Our readers and typist have made every effort to be accurate, but there are chances for error both in copying and in transcribing. We take no responsibility for the authenticity of these pages, and ask that you inform us of any additions or corrections that should be made.

BRENTWOOD CEMETERY

Located in the SW¼ of S 30, T14N, R29W on the west side of U. S. Highway 71 approximately 7 miles south of the town of West Fork. A road through the cemetery divides it into two parts designated in this listing as North Section and South Section. The rows in each Section were read from North to South and numbered from East to West. Row 1 is nearest Highway 71. In Row 9 of the South Section is a marker erected by Louallen & Emerett Fine, which reads "Upkeep of the Brentwood Cemetery is provided through a trust established under the will of Mrs. Erma Devore." The cemetery was read 11 November 1981 by Mabel Carnahan, Cecile Wallace, Bitsy and George Crabtree.

UNKNOWN

This burial ground is located on a hill east of the Illinois River bridge on the Bethel Grove road. It is east of the stone and gravel quarry. Mrs. Veva Caldwell located it for us. She said the stone and gravel operation was not to take in the area. The stones have been broken off and a few are piled up against two trees. Copied by Mabel Carnahan 1981.

INDEX

This index lists the family surnames as they appear on the grave markers. These are printed in all capital letters along the left-hand margin of the page(s) indicated. Also listed in this index are what we believe to be the maiden names of some married women. These maiden names are also capitalized and appear immediately after the given name of the person.

PREFACE

This is the ninth book of a series of cemetery volumes that will contain tombstone inscriptions from all known, existing cemeteries in Washington County, Arkansas. It appears now that about two more volumes will complete this series.

These are mostly small rural cemeteries in the western part of the county, with a few notable exceptions. A great majority of them are well cared for and still used.

Names are listed in the order in which they were read, so that you will know the names of those buried next to your ancestor and can locate the grave easily should you visit the cemetery. Family data such as marriage date, place of birth, military service- etc. has been transcribed as recorded on the grave marker. When a military marker and a stone were both present, we combined the two for one entry. When the notation FHM is used, there is no tombstone and the dates are from the marker.

Some of the cemeteries in this volume are not only quite old but are virtually abandoned and the inscriptions have suffered from the effects of time, neglect, erosion and vandalism. Also the stone engravers of those earlier times seemed to use very similar shapes for C. and G.; also B. and R.

Our readers and the typist have made every effort to be accurate, but there are chances for error both in copying and in transcribing. We take no responsibility for the authenticity of these pages and ask that you inform us of any additions or corrections that should be made.

ST. JOSEPH - TONTITOWN

Location: Approximately ½ mi s of St. Joseph Church (intersection of Hwy 68 and Arbor Acres Rd, Tontitown, and 1/8 mile east of Arbor Acres Rd on Fletcher Ave. The Church is on the north side of Hwy 68 and about ½ mi west of intersection with Hwy 112. Read June, 1983 by Bitsy and George Crabtree.

In the center of the cemetery (the part presently used) is a memorial to Rev. Pietro Bandini who brought these Italian pioneers to Washington Co. Inscriptions on the memorial are:

BANDINI, Rev. Pietro born Forli, Italy died Tontitown, AR	Mar 31, 1852	Jan 2, 1917
BANDINI, Rev. Tito M. his nephew born Cesantico, Italy died Healdsburg, CA	Sep 8, 1870	Sep 30, 1923

Rows were numbered from the memorial beginning with 1E on the east side and with 1W on the west.

EDMISTON

Location: About 1 and 1/4 miles east of Morrow in S30, T14N, R32W. Cemetery is in three sections. The center section is the oldest and is enclosed with a stone wall. The other two sections, one to the north and one to the south, are each enclosed with a cyclone fence. Each section was read separately, and rows are numbered beginning at the gate. Read September 26, 1986 by Bitsy and George Crabtree.

CARNAHAN or BEAN

Read and contributed by Mabel Carnahan.

This cemetery, considered to be the oldest in western Washington Co., is located about halfway between Lincoln and Cane Hill off the Old Pump Road on a hill about 1/4 mile east of the road in S5, T14N, R32W. This is on land that was originally taken up by Samuel Carnahan when the early settlers came to western Washington County. Land on which cemetery is located was later known as the old Henson farm but is now owned by Mr. Ray Braley. In earlier times this old burying ground was known as Bean Cemetery. It is said, the existing inscriptions indicate that there have been no burials here for over 100 years.

There is a rock enclosure containing four graves.

Rev. John Carnahan, a revolutionary soldier. Born 1756. Died 1840 (the father of Samuel Carnahan, original land owner).

Aunt Lame Polly (Mary Pyeatte), 2nd wife of Rev. John Carnahan. She was born in 1798

Major Jacob Pyeatte, a revolutionary soldier who served with Clark's Regiment, Virginia State Troops. He was born 1760 and died 1844. He is the father-in-law of Samuel Carnahan.

The fourth grave is that of Jane Carnahan, small daughter of Samuel Carnahan. Born September 28, 1830 and died in childhood. She was a twin to John.

There were many graves outside the rock enclosure but only two markers are left standing.

In Memory of William Maxwell born Oct 14, 1785 and departed this life May 31st 1855

On the same stone: Annie Billingsley, wife of William Maxwell 1800-1880

John Billingsley born 1772 Gilford Co., N. C. died 14 November 1827 First burial in this cemetery

(John Billingsley died at Morrow a few miles south of Cane Hill, on the night the contingent of settlers reached the place where they were to make their homes.)

The graves of Rev. John Carnahan and Major Jacob Pyeatte have been marked by the DAR.

HARRELL CEMETERY

Located about 3 miles N. E. of Cincinatti. This cemetery was first read by J. Roger Huff in 1973 but was very overgrown with brush and inaccessable; however cattle were allowed to run in it. It was read again In 1977 and almost twice as many grave stones were recorded.

BOYD

This cemetery was the only one in Washington Co., Ar located in an area that was flooded when Beaver Lake was created. It was in T18N, R29W, ca 3/4 mile beyond Evergreen School. 34 graves were re-located by the U. S. Engineers to New Oak Grove Cemetery in Benton Co., AR ca 2 miles south of Rogers then 1/2 mile east. The only graves with markers that were re-located from Boyd to New Oak Grove are:

MILLER, Martha wife of James	Sep 3, 1822	Mar 18, 1879
BOYD, Mary S. wife of Wm. Boyd Jr.	May 15, 1854	Sep 11, 1877

REYNOLDS, John W.	Feb 21, 1848	Sep 3, 1862
WHITTLE, Willie W.	Jan 28, 1897	Oct 16, 1897

For a complete listing of New Oak Grove Cemetery, see Cemeteries of Benton Co., AR Volume IV. Other information on cemeteries flooded by Beaver Lake may be found in Cemetery Relocations by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in Il, IA, Mo and AR published by St. Louis Genealogical Society, St. Louis, MO.

There were 47 native stones, no information

The Flashback Vol. II, No. 5, of 1952, tells of an old burial ground just across the road from Rhea Cemetery that was badly overgrown with no burials in the "last sixty years". The few markers that could be read at that time are listed below.

POWELL, Robert		d 1873
DANIEL, John R.	1829	1883
COX, Mary wife of John M.	1832	1882
DICKSON, Nancy A. wife of I. M.	1846	1886
RHEA, P. V. first mayor of Fayetteville	1803	1864

Several stones bearing the name MATEER.

WALKER & SUTTON

Walker Cemetery and Sutton Family burying ground join near the intersection of Rock Street and Walker Road, east of downtown Fayetteville. S15, T16N, R30W. Because of the overgrown condition of the two cemeteries it was almost impossible to know, for certain, where one begins and the other ends. Consequently we list below all the legible markers that could be found in these two old family cemeteries. Read January 1986 by Bob and Roberta Tucker.

WEST or POOL

Location: On Bates Mountain about 1 mile southwest of Cincinnati in S31, T16N, R33W, on land once owned by Sam D. West. The cemetery is divided into two parts with two fenced sections plus a large open space with a few graves outside the fenced areas. In 1973 the farm was owned by Mr. Dan Phillips, who showed our reader a beautiful old home, said to have been built by slaves and having two large chimney's at each end of the dwelling.

The cemetery contains a number of grave markers that are difficult or almost impossible to read because of the ravages of time. We have two readings of the cemetery - one - by J. Roger Huff in July of 1973 and another by James E. Gibson, in February 1986. Where the reading's differ, because of poor condition of the gravemarkers, we have listed both with the second shown in parantheses.

ECHO DELL and BURK CEMETERIES

Cemeteries in Washington County lists them separately, both in the same Section, T. and R. but Echo Dell is 3 and 1/2 miles west of Elm Springs while Burk is 4 miles west.

Cemetery records V. III page 44 lists Echo Dell or Burk 4 miles west of Elm Springs, but names are totally different from the ones I read. The one I read is about 4 miles west of Elm Springs. There are definitely 2, but Walter Thornberry is not in either one.

WEST - POOL

This cemetery is on the old West orchard place, southwest of Cincinnati, Ar., in Washington County. It is called either the West or Pool Cemetery. The property is now owned by Mr. Dan Phillips, in S31, T16N, R33W. The cemetery is divided into two parts with two fenced sections; only a few graves outside the fences, in a large open space between and behind the fenced sections. The following information was supplied by Mr. Phillips. "The story is told there were Confederate and Union Soldiers buried here. Because of the conflict between the north and the south, the men were buried in opposite sides of the cemetery, although there are no stones to witness this, it is said to be true." Mr. Phillips also pointed out a large, old dwelling, which is said to have been built by slaves. It has two large chimnies at each end and has been a beautiful olf home. Read by J. Roger Huff in July 1973.
