A tribute to Loyd Rich

I've been in Lincoln about three years now and when I first moved here I wondered what the young people did for recreation around town. I noticed Rich's Recreation on the corner of the square and decided to visit the place one evening. I remember I felt a little uneasy being new in town walking into a place filled with younger people I didn't know and who didn't know me. I found a stick, got a table and shot a few racks by myself. It had been sometime since I had held a stick at the table and I was trying to remember how to shoot, trying not to look too uncomfortable about being a new face in the place.

Then I met Loyd; he asked if I wanted to play a couple games. As we played on into the late night we talked over the table. I learned a number of things that first evening at Rich's Recreation. I learned that Loyd cared about people and especially the young people of the community. As I watched him interact with the young people that night, I learned that they liked him and respected him. He had a way of relating to them. I liked Loyd. Even though we were different in so many ways, there was a lot we shared together. We shared the enjoyment of a good game of eight-ball and a concern for young people.

Since that first night at Rich's Recreation Center my respect for Loyd continued to grow. Now it's a couple years, a lot of evenings, a good many late-night westerns, and a whole lot of eight balls in the pocket later.

With Loyd's passing, some have lost a dear loved one, some a close friend, some a good pool partner, but I really believe that the young people of our community have suffered one of the greatest losses. Somewhere to go when there's nothing else to do in town, someone who cared for them just the way they were, someone to talk to when they were feeling down. All who knew Loyd suffered loss. But please let us never lose the care and concern for the young people of our community that he always carried in his heart. Let's carry it on-in memory of Loyd Rich.

Loyd Rich

Letter to the editor:

I read in last week's Lincoln Leader of the tribute to Loyd Rich. It was a beautiful write up but I have been wondering why we wait until someone is gone to start saying nice things about them. Life should be beautiful for the living. Why can't we express our love and show kindness to our loved ones and friends while they can know it. Don't wait until they are gone. I think everyone would prefer their bouquets while living.

I'm sending this little clipping I cut from a magazine many years ago. It expresses my sentiments.

The clock of life is wound but once and no man has the power to stop the hands at late or early hours. Today is the only time we have. Let's live it with a will. Place no faith in tomorrow for the clock may then be still.

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love...

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

EDGAR CLINTON COLLINS

Edgar Clinton Collins, born March 15, 1920, departed this life at the age of 48 years and 20 days.

He was married to Jewell Hunton August 4, 1940. To this union was born one son, Fred, of west Lafayette, Ind.; a daughter, Deloris Russell, of Peck, Kansas. In addition to his widow and children he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Collins; three brothers: Robert and Roy, of Lincoln, Walter Rich, of Downy California; one sister, Mrs. Ruth Hightower, of Prairie Grove, Ark., and one grandchild; also a host of other relatives and friends. A veteran of World War Two. He had a history of heart trouble and was found by searchers in his wood-pasture.

His funeral was conducted by this writer in the Baptist Church in Lincoln, in the presence of a very large congregation. The floral offerings were as great as I have ever seen. Brother Collins was a member of Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church and also a deacon, a very devout Brother with wisdom and integrity, and used the office of Deacon well. He will be greatly missed in the neighborhood and Church in every way.

The writer, having been in constant contact with Brother Collins and his family, can say: I was never in a home that displayed more christianity than at his home—I have known him 18 years. We do not have words to say all we would like to say about this very dear gift that God has given to the Church. But let us say as Job: "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." May He give us grace to carry on and may He fill this gap with His Holy presence; sustain the Church and Sister Collins and children and mother, and help us to rejoice in the fact that He will call and Brother Collins and all the redeemed will answer. Burial was in the Baety Cemetery to await the final call.

Grovespring, Mo. 65062

Accepted by Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church, Virgie McHone, Church Clerk.

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY ALAN HOUSER

Collins, Houser married

Debra Jo Collins became the bride of Gregory Alan Houser at 7:30 p.m. June 10, 1995. Minister and uncle of the bride, Jeff Hart, performed the double-ring ceremony at The Inn At The Mill in Johnson.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. Fred and Jo Anna Collins of Prairie Grove. Parents of the groom are Dean and Jeannette Houser of Farmington.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory Empress Italian satin, featuring a deep scalloped vee neckline and long, fitted gibbon sleeves ending in lily points over the wrist. The basque waistline, sleeves and full skirt front were heavily embellished with handbeaded French alencon lace edged in pearls and iridescent sequins. A cathedral length train attached with lace and embellished with heavily beaded cut-out lace and pearls draped from a candy box bow with pearl droplets in the back.

The bride's headpiece was a crown of alencon lace covered in auroras, pearls and iridescents, featuring a double fingertip layer of handrolled illusion and a back pouf which was complemented with a blusher and cathedral length train. She carried a cascade of red roses and starglazer lilies, which were grown by her father, accented with baby's breath, red and ivory ribbon and strings of pearls with ivory.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Alana Boyle of Prairie Grove. Other attendants were Katherine Collins, sister-in-law of the bride, of Fort Leonardwood, Mo.; Heather Dennis and Stacy Dennis, cousins of the groom, both of Prairie Grove, and Melynda Marshall, cousin of the bride, of Winslow. They all wore sleeveless vee-necked bodices of red paisley brocade with black tea-

Dean Houser, father of the groom, served as best man. Other attendants were Rick Collins, brother of the bride, of Ft. Leonardwood, Mo.; Marvin Light, Mike Gonzales, and Chris Houser, brother of the groom, all of Prairie Grove.

Other attendants included Kirstie Douthit, cousin of the groom, of Springfield, Mo., as flowergirl, and Woody Marshall, a cousin of the bride, of Winslow, as ringbearer. Carolyn Boyle of Prairie Grove served as wedding and reception coordinator.

Other special details of the wedding included the cake topper which was the cake topper from the bride's parents' wedding cake from 34 years ago. The Bible the minister used was a Bible belonging to the bride's deceased grandmother.

After a wedding trip to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, Debra and Greg are at home in Fayetteville. He is employed as an assistant manager at Maurice's in Rogers, and she is employed as an assistant manager at Maurice's in Fayetteville.

The Faint Glimmer of a Rose

The faint glimmer of childhood left in her face.
The dawning of womanhood appearing in the horizon.
A young blossom just blooming with the new day.
And greeted with a shower of dew.
A butterfly . . . giving a faint touch of a kiss to the Young blossom.
The clouds are rolling in dark and heavy.
Aware of what is to come.
Showers falling harshly, unceremoniously,
upon the blooming of the oblivious bud.
Beating it, willing it away . . .

The bloom has perished . . .
But not before everyone could see its beauty . . .
Its joy . . .
No one forgets the faint scent of the young rose . . .
She will not be easily forgotten . . .
Her memory, her beauty.

The smell of the wilted rose will live on.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

In Loving Memory of

Alice Mary Asher

April 23, 1913 - November 14, 2002

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says: "There, she is gone!"

"Gone where?"

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says: "There, she is gone!" there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: "Here she comes!"

And that is dying.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER AND GRANDMOTHER

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around you and whispered "Come with Me"
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove He only takes the best.

Virginia C. 'Ginny' Reed, 60, of Omaha, AR, passed away Tuesday, November 27th at UAMS Hospital in Little Rock. She was born on February 28, 1941, in Houston, TX, a daughter to Barney and Margie Parks, who moved their family to Little Rock in 1946.

Ginny was a Little Rock resident until 1994 when she married Robert Earl 'Punjo' Reed. They lived briefly in Prairie Grove and then moved to Omaha. She was a member of Ridgeway Church of Christ, Hwy 65 North, Harrison.

Ginny leaves behind her husband, Punjo, and daughter Tamie Allen of Fort Smith and son Lance Boykin of North Little Rock; grandchildren Joey Allen of Fort Smith; Landon Boykin of Little Rock and Blake Boykin of Little Rock; stepchildren Robert Reed, Jr. (Humble, TX), Donnie Reed (Prairie Grove), and Ron Reed (Coral Springs, FL); step-grandchildren Bonnie Reed (Greenland) and Katie Reed (Coral Springs, FL); sisters Jackie Everhart (Hensley); Faye Rahman (Medford, OR) and Linda Schwalm (Kansas City); uncles and aunts include Betty Walloch (Little Rock), Bonnie Solomon (Bryant), Ouida Hogg (El Dorado), Leona Lotz (Smackover), J. W. Oliver (Hot Springs), Clara Massey (Cherry Valley); Vera Fraser (Nederland, TX), Paul Long (Smackover), Clarice Smith (Nederland, TX), Clarence Long (Claremore, OK), John Long (Fred, TX), Huey Long (Stephens), Peggy Sullivan (Bryant) and Marie Rogers (Port Neches, TX).

When diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in July, Ginny and Punjo were developing The Christian Way magazine to go along with American News-Journal, which Ginny was publisher and editor of. Additionally, Ginny owned Western Heritage, ViStar Record and PunGin Music Publishing. She was preceded in death by her mother, Marjorie Parks, in March of this year.

She and Punjo entertained nationally, raising thousands of dollars for St. Jude's Children's Hospital and the Shriners Children Hospitals. "She was an incredible lady," Punjo said. "A beautiful, caring Christian who was the love of my life."

Appreciation

On behalf of the Reed family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed and for your attendance at the memorial service.
