Notes for ANNA WAHNEETA LUGINBUEL:

Anna Venable retired after teaching in 1969 after 31 years. Her Early education began at White Rock where she attended the 1st through 6th grades. Money was short along with the school terms. Anna started living with her Aunt Susie Robinson of Cincinnati and attended school there through the ninth grade. Her tenth year was spent with her Uncle Wilson Kimbrough in Springdale, Arkansas. Here Junior and senior years were spent at Lincoln School. The four senior in 1925 were Marion Joyce, Waldo Bain, Wesley Shannon and Anna. When she was 18 years old, she returned to White Rock (near the Luginbuel family home) to teach -- 1925 - 1926. During the summer, she had taken a teachers exam at the court house and received a teacher's certificate. The day she took the exa, she went ot Lincoln in a Model T Ford and rode the train to Fayetteville and returned home the same day. Some of her pupils at White Rock were Oren and Marie Glenn, and Mary Rice. She had gone to school with them four years earlier. She attended summer schools for several years. Later she when to John Brown School at Siloam Springs, Arkansas which was a two-year college where she received a Music and Education Certificate in 1931. She continued to attend summer schools at the University of Arkansas.

He lived in the Strickler community since childhood, where he completed the eighth grade in a one room school house. He then worked on the family farm until being drafted into the Army in 1942. He was trained in anti-aircraft gunnery, field artillery, Carbine rifles, and side arms. He trained other officers for these duties as well. He served in three armies, the 1st Army, 3rd Army, and the 9th Army. He fought in the Battle of the Bulge, Siegfried Line, Schwammennaueul Dam, the Cologne Plain, the Remagen Bridge, and Ruhr Pocket. After the war ended in Europe, he remained in Germany for almost a year where he guarded the POW's at Frankfurt. He was awarded three Bronze Stars, the American Theater Campaign Ribbon, the European African Middle East Theater Campaign Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal and two Overseas Bars. He earned the rank of Corporal.

After returning home, he continued farming and growing berries. In 1952, he married Phyllis Leach and together they raised cows and chickens, and sold milk. He worked for the Arkansas State Forestry Service for 23 years before retiring in 1980. After retirement he continued tending the cows, gardening, woodworking, rock work, making rose gardens, and spending time with his grandchildren.

He was a long time member of the Fall Creek Church where he served for many years as a Sunday school teacher, song leader, and Deacon.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Iva Sargent, one son, John Sargent, Sr., two brothers and six sisters, Clyde Sargent, Alma Caviness, Belle Prater, Louise Prater, Clarence Sargent, Lorraine Skelton, Maudileen McKee, and Dolly Kidd.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Phyllis Leach Sargent; two sons and daughters-in-law, Jim Sargent and his wife Betty of Strickler, Tom Sargent and his wife Debria of Camden, AR.; five grandchildren, John Sargent, Jr. and his wife Sarah of Strickler, Jason Sargent and his wife Donna of Owensboro, Kentucky, Cari Burnett and her husband Mark of Shawnee, Oklahoma, Libby Wagner and her husband Wyatt of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Russall Sargent of Camden, Arkansas.; nine great-grandchildren, Sierra Hinkle, John Sargent, Dale Sargent, Mathew Sargent, Calloway Burnett, Wyndon Wagner, Damian Springsted, Chrystal Springsted, and Wayne Springsted; two brothers, Claude Sargent and Chester Sargent both of Prairie Grove, and one sister, Bonnie Anderson of Jacksonville, Arkansas.; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Chamber Announces Pioneer Farm Family

When Peter Luginbyhl came to Northwest Arkansas from Germany in 1866, he had no way of knowing that he would become so established here that his children, granddaughter and great granddaughters would be born not only on the same homestead but in the same house. The family has even attended the same church, Liberty Baptist Church, for over 100 years.

This kind of tradition of establishing a family's roots and maintaining a family farm is the tradition honored each year as the Chamber of Commerce and the Washington County Farm Bureau select the Washington County Pioneer Farm Family of the Year. Families qualifying must have owned and operated their farm for a minimum of 100 years.

This year, Edward and Mary Ellen Brogdon of Lincoln are our Pioneer Farm Family. Mary Ellen's great grand father, Peter Luginbyhl (now spelled Luginbuel). purchased 80 acres near Dutch Mills just outside Lincoln, adding 40 more acres of the farm in 1890. His son, E.W., purchased all his brothers and sisters portions of the farm in 1911 following the death of his parents.

E.W.'s only daughter Anna was born on the family farm. Later she and her husband William Gibson "Bill" Venable, lived there, in rooms adjoining the original farmhouse. Bill and Anna, along with their two daughters, Mary Ellen and Anna Ruth, continued to operate the family farm, with Anna inheriting the farm in 1953.

Anna lived on the farm, in the same home in which she was born, until her death earlier this year. Her daughter, Mary Ellen, and Mary Ellen's husband, Edward Brogdon, continue to raise cattle and hay on the 120-acre homestead.

"This began as a family farm," Mary Ellen explained. "Peter came from Germany via Switzerland, eventually settling near Dutch Mills. In the tradition of arms a hundred years ago, they seem to have had a little bit of everything they needed for their own use. "Stories in a historical records indicate the family had "some hogs, goats and sold extra grain, "however mainstay of hte Luginbuel farm was and still is cattle.

Chickens, ducks and horses also abound, but these are for Mary Ellen's enjoyment. Although not raised on a cattle farm, Ed seems quite at home bringing in hay, re pairing tractors and "collecting things."

"We are so pleased to have been selected for this award," Mary Ellen said. "My only regret is that my mother isn't alive to receive it. Life herfe is pretty easy now. They lived here during the hard times when things weren't easy. My mother loved history. This award wouldf have meant a lot to here.
