

Hugh Alvin Bailey, a beloved resident of Farmington, AR, peacefully passed away on June 30, 2024, in Fayetteville, AR, at the age of 74. Born on March 18, 1950, in Prairie Grove, Arkansas. Hugh was the son of Charles and Audrey Bailey. He is survived by his wife Judy Bailey, three sons: Eric Bailey and his wife Shelly, Chad Bailey and his wife Misty and Trey Bailey. He is also survived by brothers Roland "Beetle" Bailey and his wife Helen, Ed Bailey and his wife Vicki, Ken Bailey and his wife Deby, and sister-in-law Shelly Greninger and her husband Ron, along with many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles, and his mother, Audrey.

The heart of Hugh's life was his family. On August 12, 1972, Hugh married the love of his life, Judy Bailey. Their family grew to include three sons: Eric, Chad, and Trey.

Hugh's life was filled with joy and pride for his grandchildren Landon, Lindley, Peyton, Paige, Austen, and Karder Kate, who were the light of his life.

Hugh dedicated his professional life to Tyson Foods, where he retired after 46 years of contributing his expertise and hard work to the company and formed lasting friendships and earned the respect of his colleagues. Outside of his career, his true joy was watching and coaching his sons in sports when they were young. He was an avid fan of Arkansas Razorbacks sports and St. Louis Cardinals baseball. Hugh found joy in working outdoors and cherished every moment spent with his family.

More than his hobbies, Hugh's greatest legacy was his unwavering love and commitment to his family, church, and community. He was a steadfast figure at family gatherings, a loving patriarch, and a dependable friend to all who knew him.

Hugh Alvin Bailey leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and inspiration. His life, marked by unwavering faith and commitment to his family and community, will continue to inspire those who had the privilege to know him. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,

And a time for everything

under heaven -

A Time for sowing,

a time for reaping,

A time for sharing,

a time for caring,

A time for loving,

a time for giving,

A time for remembering,

a time for parting,

You have made everything

beautiful in its time

For everything you do remains forever.

FINAL RESTING PLACE

Dutch Mills Cemetery

Dutch Mills, Arkansas

I cried when you passed away,
I still cry today.

Although I loved you dearly,
I couldn't make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hardworking hands at rest.

God broke my heart to prove to me
He only takes the best.
