

Kayla Danielle Davis Bailey of Prairie Grove, AR, the answer to many prayers, born November 9, 1979 in Russellville, AR, passed from this earthly life and is now reunited with her father, Danny Davis, and our Lord Jesus, with the love of her life by her side on December 15, 2025 in Fayetteville, AR. She leaves behind a legacy of kindness, strength, and deep devotion to those she held dear. Her life, though far too brief, was marked by compassion, resilience, and an unwavering love for her family and friends, especially her love for Dale, Tate, and Addison.

Kayla was known for her warm smile, gentle spirit, her ability to whisper to almost any critter, her amazing fortitude, her incredible devotion to family, her deep belief in herself, her unwavering faith in God and the way she made others feel seen and valued. She carried herself like the farmgirl she was, with grace, sincerity, some no-nonsense toughness and clear opinions while offering encouragement and laughter wherever she went. Her presence brought comfort, and her love left a lasting imprint on the hearts of many.

Family was at the center of Kayla's life. A proud daddy's girl, she was heartbroken when her father passed away too early as well. She kept his memory alive by sharing pictures of him on social media sites often. She cherished time spent with loved ones and found joy in everyday moments—conversations, shared memories, and simple acts of togetherness. She thoroughly enjoyed this time of year in particular, which she made Christmas special for her children and looked forward to seeing her extended family in Tilly, AR. She was a loyal friend, a devoted family member, and a source of strength to those who knew her.

Kayla is survived by her husband Dale Bailey, her son Tate Bailey, her daughter Addison Bailey, her mother Daveline Davis of Pottsville, her brother Daniel (Megan) Davis of Pottsville, a beloved niece, Kinley Egger and two nephews, Caleb and Rhett, many extended family members and a plethora of friends and peers. She is also survived by a multitude of fur babies, hers and others, who loved her with wags and purrs. She was preceded in death by her father, Danny Earl Davis.

Several weeks ago, Kayla was diagnosed with ovarian cancer. Her response was to tackle the scourge head-on with positivity and resolve. The consummate fighter, she battled the disease admirably, concealing the pain and misery as best she could. Unfortunately for those of us on earth, the cancer took its toll, and hastened her ascent into Heaven. A lifelong Christian, Kayla's faith buoyed her throughout this tribulation.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Kayla's memory to the Summers Missionary Baptist Church, 22055 US 62 West, Summers, AR 72769.

Kayla will be remembered, not only for who she was, but for how she made others feel: loved, supported, and understood. Her memory will live on through the lives she touched and the love she so freely gave.

She is deeply missed and forever remembered.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
Luginbuel Funeral Home
Prairie Grove, Arkansas
online guest book, visit www.luginbuel.com

Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

Kayla Danielle Davis Bailey

November 9, 1979 - December 15, 2025

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing"

2 Timothy 4:7-8

MOTHER'S LOVE

God surely knew the world would need
A gentle loving touch,
When He created mother love
That warms our hearts so much.
He must have known that children
Would need a guiding hand,
Someone who'd always be there
To care and understand.
God must have known our hearts would need
A special kind of cheer
When He endowed a mother's face
With smiles that would endear.
Of all the gifts that God does send
From His heavenly realm above,
There is none that is more precious
Than that of mother's love.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE & MEMORY OF Kayla Danielle Davis Bailey

DATE, TIME & PLACE OF SERVICE
Friday, December 19, 2025 - 3:00 PM
Summers Missionary Baptist Church

ORDER OF SERVICE

Prelude	Family Memories Video
"Beulah Land" Clark Bailey, Joel & Paul Young
Obituary	Travis Warren
"Lead Me Home"	John & Tucker Odom
Words of Comfort	Paul Young Pastor - Summers Missionary Baptist Church
Closing Prayer
"The Manger"	Kayla with Paul & Joel

FINAL RESTING PLACE

Dutch Mills Cemetery

PALLBEARERS

Luke Parrish - PJ Roberts - Gunnar Pankey
Aaron Keith - Eric Lee - Josh Arnold

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Prairie Grove Baseball and Football

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LOR^D is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in
green pastures:
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for
His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence
of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the LOR^D forever.