

Charles Wayne Bartholomew
83, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, August 7, 2021 at his home. He was born April 17, 1938 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, the son of John Arthur and Mary Melissa (Sawyer) Bartholomew.

In the early days, Wayne hauled feed for Keaton Farms before becoming the Plant Manager for their feed mill. He was an independent cattle rancher and poultry grower for Tyson for more than 40 years.

He was a member of the Center Point Church of God, where he faithfully served as a Deacon for many years. Anyone who knew him knows that he lived his life as a testament of his strong faith in God.

Wayne was preceded in death by his parents, one grandson Austin Wayne Albert Deere, one brother Lynn Bartholomew, one sister and brother-in-law Lena Bartholomew Foren and Fred Foren, and one sister-in-law Erlene Pennington Bartholomew.

Survivors include his wife of 63 years Wanda Cooper Bartholomew; one son Carl Bartholomew of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; two daughters Gaylene Bartholomew Deere of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, and Karen Bartholomew Grant and her husband Lonnie of Farmington, Arkansas; one brother Dale Bartholomew and his wife Jennifer of Baldwin City, Kansas; four grandchildren Carly Bartholomew Marx and her husband Steven, Coby Bartholomew and fiancée Mattie Harden, Amanda Grant Frye and her husband Anthony, and Emily Grant; family friend Vicki Cate of Farmington, Arkansas; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The family would like to express their heartfelt appreciation to those who helped care for Wayne over the past few months, Bricky Ferrell, Brittany Seratt, Linda Martindale, Dana Taylor, Robert Sams, Meghan Shelton and the Elite Hospice Team.

God saw you getting tired

and a cure was not to be so He put his arms around you and whispered "Come with Me"

With tearful eyes

we watched you suffer

and saw you fade away

although we loved you dearly

we could not make you stay

A golden heart stopped beating

hard working hands at rest

God broke our hearts to prove

He only takes the best.

VICTORY

When this perishable body puts on imperishability,
and this mortal body puts on
immortality,
then the saying that is written will be fulfilled:

"Death has been swallowed up in
victory."

"Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"

The sting of death is sin,
and the power of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God, who gives us
the victory through our lord Jesus Christ.

I Corinthians 15:54-57
