

MRS. R. H. BEAN DEAD

Mother of Mrs. Harrell Died Saturday at Her Home at Cane Hill

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Harrell and children went over to Cane Hill last Friday afternoon, called there by the serious illness of Mrs. R. H. Bean, the mother of Mrs. Harrell, who died early Saturday morning.

She was sixtysix years of age and had lived near her present home all her life.

The funeral services were held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

A husband and six children are left to mourn the death of their loved one and all have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. The children are all married and have homes of thir own except one daughter.
