

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away,

Her journey's just begun;

Life holds so many facets,

This earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting

From the sorrows and the tears,

In a place of warmth and comfort,

Where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing

That we could know today,

How nothing but our sadness

Can really pass away.

And think of her as living

In the hearts of those she touched,

For nothing loved is ever lost,

And she was loved so much.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths

of righteousness for

His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me:

Thy rod and Thy staff

they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table

before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Amy Kae Beetch

Age 52, a resident of Farmington, Arkansas, passed away after a courageous battle with cancer on Sunday, February 11, 2024 at Circle of Life Hospice House, surrounded by her family. She was born December 27, 1971 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, grew up in Mankato, MN and relocated to Arkansas in 2001.

Amy dedicated her life to being the best wife, mom, mimi, daughter, sister and friend. Her caring nature extended beyond her family to the people she met and places she traveled - somewhere tropical and in the warm sand. Amy brought the beach home by designing her perfect outdoor oasis where we spent summers in the pool and celebrated with good people and good food.

Amy was a self proclaimed coffee connoisseur and professional shopper, always willing to engage in either with whomever wanted to join her. To know Amy is to love Amy, always having a kind smile and an encouraging word. Amy loved her work family at J.B. Hunt by supporting her teammates with a constant get it done attitude and a firm but loving approach to all things she was involved in. Amy is loved by many and missed by all.

She was preceded in death by her father James Sauer, grandparents Harold and Edna Springstroh, William and Jean Sauer, sister Traci Sauer and her mother and father-in-law Charles and Arlene Beetch.

Survivors include her high school sweetheart and husband of 30 years Bradley Beetch; one son Aaron Beetch and wife Courtney of Farmington, Arkansas; one daughter Kylee Beetch and husband Jonathan Horn of Conway, Arkansas; her mother Sharon Sauer of Sartell, Minnesota; two sisters Andrea Luedtke and husband Rustin of Elysian, Minnesota, and Angela Stavos and husband Jairad of Sartell, Minnesota; one brother-in-law Steven Beetch and wife Judy of Madison Lake, Minnesota; one grandchild Everly Beetch.
