

Margaret Eoline Boardman

91, a resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away August 7, 2009 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born July 29, 1918 at Little Rock, Arkansas, the daughter of Glen and Jesse Margaret Wallace Thompson.

Margaret was married to Fred Boardman for fifty-nine years. Margaret was a professional Interior Decorator for twenty years for Montgomery Wards, Sears, and later the co-owner of Artistic Interiors of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. During her free time she perfected her skills as an amateur golfer for more than fifty years. She competed in numerous golf tournaments in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and Mexico. Her competitive spirit also led her to be an accomplished card player. She enjoyed bridge tournaments and high-spirited card sessions with family and friends. Margaret also enjoyed photography, gardening and world traveling. She had extensive gardens on her property for years, and she has visited every continent in the world except Antarctica.

Survivors include one son, Rick Boardman of Tyler, Texas and one daughter, Vicki Smith of Lincoln, Arkansas; five grandchildren, Amanda Smith, Fredrick Glenn Smith, Sarah Jo Eoline Doughty, Meredith Gail Boardman, and Benjamin Charles Boardman; six great grandchildren.

Margaret Eoline Boardman

July 29, 1918 - August 7, 2009

In the simple by-ways of life, devoid of rancor and strife.

It is there that I travel
and let my life unravel.

I love the air that is free
and the sun that shines on me.
No dark clouds hover above;
no rain to dampen my love.

For I'm walking on air,
without a worry or care.
Me and my fairway wood.
Eighteen holes is understood.

The greens are fast and forgiving;
each birdie is why I'm living.
Yes, it's the simple life for me;
out on a course that's free.
