TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME

Today I thank and praise You,
Lord, for Your unending love,
And for the promise You have given of our future home above.

Countless millions have wondered if there's life beyond the grave,
And if You have the answer,
if You have the power to save.

But in Your Word,
You've reassured us.
Your promises are true.
In it You have told us,

“I go to prepare a place for you.
Let not your heart be troubled,
you need only believe in me,
I go, but I'll be back again that where I am, you'll be.”

“If it were not so,
I would have told you.
To you I cannot lie,
I promise I'll be waiting, to receive you when you die.”

I need not guess nor wonder of my future dwelling place.
It's being prepared by the savior.
Who saved me by His grace.

I'm thankful I need not be troubled,
the battles already been won.
If it wasn't He would have told me.
Hallelujah!
The best is yet to come!
