A message came to relatives and friends Sunday announcing the death of Dennis Brooks of Lincoln, Ark., who died suddenly at his home early Sunday morning from a heart attack. Mr. Brooks was a World War I veteran. He had not been well for sometime but his death was unexpected. His wife is the former Mrs. Edna Simpson of Westville and son-in-law of Mrs. W. W. Johnson of Westville. Funeral service was conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Lincoln Methodist church, of which he was a member, with Rev. Whiddon, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Lincoln cemetery with the Luginbuel Funeral Home, directing arrangements. Survivors, other than the wife, are two daughters, two step-daughters and two step sons.
